BONUS BILL IS PASSED BY SENATE

Final Arguments Are Made on Provisions of Soldier Compensation Measure; Underwood Attacks Plan

Copeland Declares Demand Made for Cash Payments; Voting Is Delayed by the Minor Amendments

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

WASHINGTON, April 23.—The Senate bonus bill was passed today by the Senate. As approved it is substantially in the same form as the House measure but minor differences between the two Houses must be adjusted before the legislation can be sent to the President.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—A final vote on the soldier bonus bill was delayed in the Senate today by submission of a flock of minor amendments, most of which were rejected.

LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Convening two hours earlier than usual the senate pressed toward a vote today on the soldier bonus bill with each speaker limited to 15 minutes.

The principal controversy centered on the amendment for inclusion in the bill of a cash option provision, offered by Senator Copeland, Democrat, New York.

Opening the debate today, Underwood, Democrat, Alabama, renewed the attack against the bonus. He advocated a pension law, but declared it impossible to compensate the former soldiers for their service.

"You dishonor these protectors of our nation by offering them dirty dollars," Underwood said, "or by proposing to give them these insurance policies.

TAX BURDEN IS CLAIMED BY SENATOR.

"The man who fought on the first line of battle will have to carry this country in the next twenty years. You very cunningly fixed this bonus so that it won't be paid for twenty years and propose that these men instead of you will have to pay for it.

"You're adding under this legislation an enormous tax to an already heavy burden. The doctors disagree as to the cost of the bill. One estimate says it will cost $2,300,000,000. The treasury actuary, Mr. McCoy, says it will cost $3,600,000,000 and the treasury is probably right."

"A price must be paid for everything worth having," Underwood said. "That is true of government—the most essential factor in civilization. You pay in loyalty, in service as well as in taxes. The 'bond' every citizen is born under is carried in that section of the constitution providing that Congress has the power to raise and maintain armies. The duty cannot be measured in money.

"I want it distinctly understood that I shall vote against any bonus measure presented here. It would be a reflection on the service given by my son."

BROOKHART ASKS ABOUT PROFITEERS.

"Yet, the senator would reflect on it by letting war profiteers keep their profits," declared Senator Brookhart, Republican, Iowa.

"That is not the issue here," returned the Alabama senator. "They already are hidden behind tax-exempt securities."

When Brookhart insisted that those securities were only a small part of the national security issue, Underwood expressed regret that he could not "keep up with that senator's imagination."

"Although opposed to any bonus," he continued, "I feel that if one is to be paid, it should be an honest bonus paid in cash."

A proposal that holders of tax-exempt securities pay the cost of the soldier bonus by voluntarily foregoing their income from this source for four years, was made by Senator Smith, Democrat, South Carolina.

"We have heard of the pure patriotism of these bond holders," he said. "Here's a chance for them to show it."

Senator Copeland said it was time for "repentence" by the government, and referring to the recent Senate investigations, declared "we can best start cleaning house by paying our obligations to the soldiers."

"I have been hooed and hissed by the rich for presenting this cash option amendment," Copeland said. "I don't think there was a New York paper which did not criticize me for it. But there is hardly a bank or business firm in New York which every year does not give its employees a cash bonus."

Copeland said he had received messages from soldiers in every section of the country endorsing and "demanding" the cash option.

The peiding measure should be compared with "adjusted compensation paid by the government to every industry since the war," declared Senator Heflin, Democrat, Alabama, in order that its inadequacy might be appreciated.

Senator Broussard, Democrat,

The officers will be installed April 26. The whiskerettes are a branch of the Whiskerino Club formed to celebrate days of '49 here two years ago.

FIRE INSURANCE RATES HERE CUT

East Oakland Business and Industrial Property Given Reduction.

A reduction of fire insurance rates throughout the East Oakland district from Fruitvale avenue to the city line was announced in a communication received today by Commissioner Colbourn of Public Health and Safety, from the Board of Underwriters of the Pacific, 914 Merchants' Exchange building, San Francisco. While dwelling and apartment house rates remain the same, there will be an average percentage of reduction of about 18 per cent from present published rates for brick mercantile buildings and about 10 per cent for frame merchantiles, with certain qualifications. It is announced that this action marks the completion of fire insurance rate readjustment for the entire city of Oakland, readjustments of rates west of Fruitvale avenue having been previously announced.

NO CHANGE IN DWELLING RATES.

The letter follows:

"Following dut letter of February 21, 1924, wherein we advised you of material reduction in fire insurance rates in all section of your city west of Fruitvale avenue, we now have pleasure to announced that the detail work necessary to a readjustment of rates throughout the East Oakland district from Fruitvale avenue to the city line, has been completed.

"We are now having the new rates printed. They snow the following average percentage of reduction: Brick mercantile buildings, 18 per cent from present published rates and the contents of the same, 14 per cent. Frame mercantiles are being reduced 10 per cent. There will be no change in dwelling rates, which are now very low, being 35 cents per hundred dollars of insurance when within 500 feet of a fire hydrant, on not less than a four-inch main. Apartment houses will remain as at present, being rated upon dwelling basis.

RESURVEY OF EACH RISK TO BE MADE.

"In the East Oakland section there are many industrial plants, chiefly along the railroad rights-of-way; some properties are of such a quality as to justify the application of the increased protection credit applying to the city as a whole, but in many cases, especially where large plants are involved, and under weak protection, it will be necessary to make a resurvey of each risk, as time and opportunity may permit, before we can determine whether or not such plants are entitled to any reduction from existing rates.

"These approximate percentages of reduction will not apply to property equipped with automatic sprinklers as these risks receive special treatment because of the sprinkler equipment and are in a class entirely distinct from the average run of mercantile and manufacturing properties.

NEW RATES ARE EFFECTIVE MARCH 1.

"Please understand that the percentages of reduction herein named are approximate, or average, rather than exact, and there will be some variation, as between one risk and another in the same class.

"The new rates will be published shortly and will be effective on all policies, taking effect on and after March 1, 1924.

"It is very gratifying to this body to note your continued activity directed at the removal of the more acute fire hazards of your fair city, and you may count on this board to lend a hand wherever we can be useful.

"Yours very truly,
"Manager."

MOTHER, 65, HELD AS SON DIES OF DRUG

Three Violent Deaths in One Family Leads to Arrest of Mendocino County Pioneer Woman, Silent as 'Sphinx'

Mysterious Demise of Husband and Two Boys Goads Authorities to Investigate; Victim Found Poisoned

BY UNITED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

UKIAH, Cal., April 23.—Mrs. Annie Mattson, 65, who has lived in the same house in Fort Bragg, Mendocino county, as long as anyone can remember, was taken into custody yesterday after her son John, aged 24, had been found dying in a field near the house.

A tiny bottle which had contained poison was found in his coat.

Near the body was a piece of wood on which the single word "goodbye" had been whittled, indicating apparent suicide.

Mrs. Mattson, frail and worn, a type of the toiling woman found on isolated farms, sat in her cell today and said nothing. She was held incommunicado but that technical bar to her conversation with outsiders was unnecessary—she wouldn't talk, anyhow.

Mrs. Mattson's arrest came as the climax of long years of violence and suspicion in her family. Twenty years ago her husband met a violent death. Four years ago another son, Walter, was found dead with a bullet in his back.

Yesterday however, neighbors heard sounds of a violent quarrel shortly before breaktast. John was seen to stagger from the kitchen and wander into the fields. When he was found he was unable to talk. He died while Dr. Harper Peddicord was examing him.

The man's stomach was sent to San Francisco today for analysis.

While the result of the analysis is being awaited, Deputy Sheriff W. R. Reis and Coroner Weller were piecing together evidence to determine whether some form of insanity might have driven the aged woman to take the lives of her husband and two of her offspring.

Fire, Blast Destroys Schooner Corona

BY UNITED PRESS

SANTA ROSA, April 23.—The Diesel schooner Corona, which plies between San Francisco and Eureka, was almost totally destroyed by fire in Bodega bay early today after a terrific explosion had wrecked her engine room.

The schooner came into the bay shortly after daylight, apparently in trouble. The explosion followed shortly after and the craft burst into flames. Captain Tony Peterson and his crew of three escaped in a small boat and were picked up by rescuers from shore.

Captain Peterson would not discuss the accident except to say he had no theory as to the cause of the explosion.

Depew, 90, Will Start in Playing Golf When 100

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

NEW YORK, April 23.—Ten years from today Chauncey M. Depew may start playing golf, but just now, when he is 90 years old, he wont break the daily routine at his office, he announces.

The veteran railroad man, after-dinner speaker and former United States Senator celebrated his 90th birthday today, planning to spend it as any other day. He arrived in his office about 10 o'clock each morning and leaves between 4:30 and 5:00 o'clock in the afternoon. Each birthday he wades through piles of congratulatory letters and telegrams.

"I ascribe my long life to my ability to 'switch,'" he said, "I have been in the railroad business for fifty-nine years and have associated with the men who built up the railroads of this country. Nearly all have died early or their health has been seriously impaired. A study of their lives has convinced me that it was their inability to get away from the problems that weighed upon them."

Depew approves of women in politics, but thinks they take it all too seriously, especially their speeches, for they leave out funny stories, and according to his own statement, he'd rather tell funny stories than be President. He believes President Coolidge will be re-elected, and thinks the younger generation is headed in a direction opposite from the dogs.

GIRL STOWAWAY ON U. S. WARSHIP

One Discovered On 'Arizona and She Reports Others on Fleet Vessels.

LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

LOS ANGELES, April 23.—Sensational disclosures that a girl stowaway was found aboard the U. S. S. Arizona just after the Pacific fleet left Panama for Los Angeles harbor on April 12, that the girl declared other girl stowaways were on other vessels of the fleet, and that a thorough investigation has been launched, were made today at Los Angeles Harbor.

As a result of the startling condition, which has caused a furore in navy circles, it was learned, drastic actions including a detailed search of every ship in division four, has been launched by Admiral W. V. Pratt, in command of the division now at the harbor.

The name of the girl found on the Arizona, the flagship of the battleship division, was not given in the official report of the scandal. Admiral Pratt, however, was said to have been highly incensed over the matter, declaring that the action of a few men in the fleet had brought discredit to the "home" of all the ships of the fleet.

In a despatch to the personnel of the fleet Admiral Pratt is reported to have declared that the search to be made of other boats will be supervised by commissioned officers who will report to their executive that they personally had made a search of the ship under their authority and an investigation among the personnel to learn the facts concerning the stowaway and who was to blame for allowing her aboard.

HONOLULU, April 22.—The second heaviest rainstorm in the history of the weather bureau, which flooded portions of the Island of Oahu, washed out numerous bridges and caused the virtual suspension of street traffic throughout the island, apparently had ended this afternoon. The damage is estimated at thousands of dollars. The rainfall for fourteen hours was 7.30 inches.

Reports from Hilo, Island of Hawaii, state that the Kilauea volcano seismograph registered fifty earth disturbances during the night. A resident of Kapoho, in the volcano district, said that he counted eighty earth shocks in twelve hours ending at 6 a. m. and another at 7:30 a. m. It was also reported that loud noises were heard coming from the lava cracks of the volcano.

Superintendent Thomas Boles of the Hawaiian National Park has gone to the volcano observatory at Kapoho to investigate.

Pennsylvania's Governor Is Defeated for Delegate at Large to G.O.P. Convention by Publisher Strassburger

PHILADELPHIA, April 23.—Returns from yesterday's primary election in Pennsylvania today showed additional gains for Ralph Beaver Strassburger, Norristown publisher, over Governor Pinchot for delegate-at-large to the Republican national convention. The vote in 3797 districts out of 8119 in the state gave Strassburger 312,628; Pinchot 138,997.

Philadelphia, complete, gave Strassburger a majority of 190,107. The governor was leading in some of the rural counties.

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 23.—Governor Pinchot and his issue of liquor law enforcement were snowed under in the Pennsylvania primary.

Pinchot was defeated for a place on the list of seven Republican delegates at large by Ralph Beaver Strassburger, millionaire owner of the Norristown Herald, who two days before election received full support of Republican organizations in Philadelphia, Allegheny [illegible]

President Calvin Coolidge is now assured of the solid delegation of 79 votes from the Keystone state at the Cleveland convention.

For the first time in the memory of the oldest elector Pennsylvania has failed to send its governor to the national convention of the party whose politics he embraced.

Governor Pinchot, in a statement today, declared it "appears the wets have elected Strassburger and have beaten me," and asserted "this vote does not represent the conscience and heart of Pennsylvania."

DECLARES DEFEAT IS NOT DRY SETBACK.

The governor said he had made no campaign and asserted the vote "is merely proof that the old alliance between liquor and gang politics in Pennsylvania remains in full force and effect." He warned the friends of law and order "to give no credence to the wet claim that my defeat is a setback for the cause of law enforcement," declaring he "proposes to take this matter in hand more vigorously than ever." The governor's statement follows:

"I would infinitely rather be beaten as the enemy of liquor can win as its friend. I have been through many battles, and I know by experience that a defeat for principle does no man harm.

"From returns so far received, it appears that the wets have elected Strassburger and have beaten me. If the last minute orders, given after the campaign was over, by Vare in Philadelphia, Leslie of Pittsburgh, and other bosses over the state, have brought this result about, I have no personal complaint to make.

"I made no campaign and I warn the friends of law and order throughout the country to give no credence to the wet claim that my defeat is a setback for the cause of law enforcement. It is nothing of the sort. This vote does not represent the conscience and heart of Pennsylvania. It is merely proof that the old alliance between liquor and gang politics in Pennsylvania remains in full force and effect.

SACRAMENTO, April 23.—Governor Richardson today cleared away all doubt concerning his attitude toward federal intervention in the foot and mouth disease situation in California by a telegram to Henry C. Wallace, secretary of agriculture, requesting his department to assume full control.

BY UNITED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—The department of agriculture today prepared to take over active direction of the war being waged on the California foot and mouth disease at the request of Governor Richardson of California.

According to present plans Dr. U. G. Houck of the bureau of animal industry, will direct both federal and state forces in the fight against the plague.

The bureau of animal industry is preparing to mobilize its veterinarians in California shortly as part of the federal government's campaign against the disease.

SPECIAL BY WIRE TO THE TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Although press dispatches from California indicate that Governor Richardson has telegraphed authority for the federal government to take over control, it was said at the department of agriculture today that no such advices had been received, and officials were showing some concern over the delay.

The government will assume this control as soon as the authorization is received, it was stated, by placing Dr. U. G. Houck, who is in California as the personal representative of Secretary Wallace, in complete charge. He will be designated as commander-in-chief with headquarters at Sacramento.

"AT NO TIME HAS IT LOOKED SO SERIOUS.

Governor Richardson, in a planned statement to Secretary Wallace today, declared that emphatically the disease is not under control, and at no time has it looked so serious.

"There is no doubt," the statement continued, "that there is a shortage of at least fifty veterinarians now. The present force is hopelessly inadequate to take care of present conditions. At least fifty veterinarians should be immediately provided.

"In addition, there should be a reserve on the ground to promptly take care of any new outbreaks which probably will occur. These much needed trained men are not in California and must be secured from other states. Besides this, adequate trenching machinery must be provided to put the animals promptly under ground."

SUPREME HEAD OF CAMPAIGN ADVOCATED.

"The campaign in California the statement added, "is being conducted on a federal and state joint control basis. There is no supreme head in Sacramento which should be the base of all operations. There is not a complete unity of action by federal and state forces at each of the three centers of infection. This is bound to result in confusion and prevent prompt and efficient action.

We would strongly urge:

"That a United States department of agriculture commander in chief be located at Sacramento in supreme command.

"That if possible all veterinarians, federal and state, be made collaborators."

SACRAMENTO, April 23.—Authority over the fight against the foot and mouth disease among livestock in California is centralized, with the federal department of agriculture, at the request of state authorities, taking over supervision of the work.

ARIZONA TOURISTS FACE FUMIGATION

Through Passengers Not to Be Allowed to Leave the Trains Within State.

LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

PHOENIX, Ariz., April 23.—Inspection and disinfection of all railroad passengers from California bound for Arizona points will become effective April 28 as a further safeguard against spread of the foot and mouth disease to Arizona under an executive proclamation issued last night by Governor Hunt.

Railroad companies in California selling tickets to Arizona points "shall notify all prospective purchasers of such tickets that the ticket is sold subject to regulations of the Arizona state board of health," the proclamation declared.

Approval was given by the chief executive of the prevailing quarantine against California products and vehicular traffic, and another appropriation of $10,000 was declared to be expended in carrying out the terms of the quarantine regulations.

ALL MUST SUBMIT TO DISINFECTION.

Passengers entering Arizona on trains from California, the proclamation states, shall "submit to such inspection and disinfection of his person and baggage as may be required by the Arizona state board of health at such points as may be designated by it."

The carriers will be required "to search all trains for persons who may be traveling thereon without having purchased tickets and detrain them at some station outside of the state of Arizona," the proclamation said.

"Through passengers," for points east of Arizona will not be permitted to leave the train while it is in Arizona territory in order that the infectious foot and mouth disease now prevalent in California may be prevented from spreading to the state of Arizona" according to the regulations of the board of health which were cited in the proclamation.

FUMIGATION STATIONS AT POINT OF ENTRY.

[illegible] Arizona-bound passengers, the state health board would establish fumigation stations at points of entry near the state boundary and [illegible] would be subjected to the cleansing process at these places, it was said.

Details as to the disinfection method are not completed tonight, it was said. The Arizona-bound travelers, according to the proclamation, must submit to "such inspection and disinfection" as may be required by the board.

The plan to disinfect the passengers was proclaimed today as a substitute measure to a recommendation offered at a state conference of business representatives yesterday that the railroads limit sale of tickets to persons who have obtained certificates from the Arizona health board, who were to be stationed in California.

SACRAMENTO, April 23.—The foot and mouth scourge fastened its hold on nine new districts today and reports to the state department of agriculture showed more than 1000 cattle and hogs affected.

Five infections in Los Angeles county, affecting 610 hogs and 160 cattle, were reported. The most serious outbreak was near Long Beach.

In the Merced districts there were four new flareups of the disease resulting in 300 cattle and fifty hogs being condemned for slaughter.

The livestock industry in California has fallen 35 per cent below normal because the average man fears that the hoof and mouth disease will find its way into his system, via the dining table, E. G. Rodolph of Miller & Lux, Inc., declared to the United Press today.

"There is absolutely no danger to the human being in this epidemic, except insofar as his pocketbook is concerned," Rodolph said.

"Not a bit of meat goes into the butchershops that is not inspected and is perfectly fit for human consumption. Yet people have an unreasonable fear of the disease, many of them have quit buying meat, others are eating less. Even ham and bacon have been hit because of restrictions on picnicking.

Dr. Houck issued the following statement:

"The disease is under control to the extent that the avenues of spread are known and are being carefully watched and all contaminating hazards figured. We expect further infections but they should be confined closely to the small infected areas.

"I see no logical reason why the fruit, vegetables and other industries where the production is in non-infected areas, should be apprehensive as to the movement of their crops as I feel that as soon as some other states have the opportunity of securing a true understanding of the situation here, many of the rigid embargoes now enforced will be modified."

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA WAGING GREAT FIGHT.

LOS ANGELES, April 23.—War against the foot and mouth disease in Southern California is being waged on a widened front as a result of the discovery of infected animals in a herd of 570 hogs at Long Beach, a previously uninfected area.

Two other new outbreaks reported during the day were both in old areas of infection, Lamanda Park and Van Nuys, and involved a total of 165 cows.

Various civic organizations took additional measures against the cattle scourge. The Los Angeles city council appropriated $3000 for the fumigation of milk handlers. GOVERNOR PREDICTS END OF EPIDEMIC.

PETALUM, April 23.—Governor Friend W. Richardson, in a speech at the Hotel Petaluma last night, declared that within two or three weeks California will have been freed of the foot and mouth disease. The Governor declared this would be accomplished through the activities of the State and Federal officers and by the stringent quarantine regulations adopted and enforced. More than $2,000,000 will have been spent to stamp out the cattle plague, he said, half of the sum being furnished by the State and half by the Federal government.

Governor Richardson was the guest of Emmett Olmstead, State Prison director, at the public inspection of the recently completed hotel.

OLYMPIA, Wash., April 23.—All raw fruits and vegetables, with the exception of citrus fruits, from the counties in California infected with the foot and mouth epizootic will be prohibited entrance into this state under one of the provisions of a revised quarantine order to be issued shortly by the state department of agriculture, Director E. L. French, announced today. Products from uninfected counties may still be admitted after fumigation and inspection.

30,000 Workers on Strike in Havana

HAVANA, April 23. — Thirty thousand union workers, including 23,000 cigar and cigarette makers, are idle in Havana. They are supporting the striking dock workers.

Street car men and taxi and bus drivers have abandoned their posts and joined the strikers. Nails, tacks and broken glass on the streets made the driving of private automobiles hazardous.

No ice was delivered, no newspapers were published except the three English language papers, the drivers of the brewery wagons quit and few men were willing to deliver gasoline to the filling station, and both beer and gasoline went high in price.

The union leaders predicted that by tomorrow the garbage men and street car cleaners would be out and that the railroad workers would refuse to handle freight.

Hecke Takes No Chance, Forbids Party at Home

WOODLAND, April 23.—Emphasizing the preachings, G. H. Hecke, resident of Woodland and superintendent of the State Department of Agriculture, has refused the Mills Club Association of Yolo county permission to hold a benefit card party at the Hecke home. Hecke explained that public gatherings tend to spread the foot and mouth disease.

Mrs. Fred R. Fairchild, president of the local association, consented to an indefinite postponement of the card party and get together of the alumni.

something else instead of meat. Therefore, the butcher buys less from the wholesaler, the slaughterhouses do less business and lay off men, the railroads haul fewer cattle with increasing effect on general conditions, until, finally, we have an excess of cattle to feed for this time year.

"In a normal year we would not be stricken so seriously because of such an epidemic as this, but this year, after the dryest winter in 48 years, we have little to feed stock. Normally we could take care of them and go ahead with shipments of surplus cattle when quarantine restrictions are lifted.

UNABLE TO USE GRAZE LANDS IN OTHER STATES.

"With little feed in this State, due to the drought, we would normally turn to other States to feed. This epidemic has stopped all that. In adjoining States we have extensive grazing properties, which we cannot use. Mexico has barred us.

"I cannot begin to estimate the loss this epidemic has cost every man connected with the livestock industry. Many cattle will die from lack of feed. Thousands of others have been slaughtered because they were exposed to infection.

"Yet, even with this thinning out, we have more mouths to feed than we have food, and on top of it all the housewife becomes suspicious of her butcher. Almost all our avenues of escape from loss are cut off, and it will take us a long time to recover."

NO NEW OUTBREAKS IN LAST TWO DAYS.

No new outbreaks of the hoof and mouth disease occurred yesterday or today in the bay region. All the herds at Pinole which were discovered to be infected last week have been slaughtered and buried. County officials in various places are still adding new restrictions to the movements of persons and goods in California, and the quarantine is being steadily tightened.

The State Department of Agriculture has asked the Oakland Chamber of Commerce to act as a clearing house for news on the hoof and mouth epidemic for Alameda and Contra Costa counties according to a report issued in Sacramento yesterday.

Ten counties in the State are included in the infested area, according to the report issued yesterday. They include Alameda, Contra Costa, Kern, Los Angeles, Merced, San Joaquin, Stanislaus, Solano, San Francisco and San Bernardino.

COUNTY'S LAST CASE WAS ON MARCH 22.

The last infested herd reported in Alamada county was on March 22 according to Dr. Herold, while a new case was discovered in the Pinole district in Contra Costa county on April 20.

At Merced, arrangements were completed today for the handling of permits for the movement of fruit and vegetables by the county horticultural commissioner. Hay, grain, straw, fodder and other similar commodities in eastern Merced county are included in the regulations. Commissioner E. E. Welty and Permit Officer W. C. de Lapp appeared yesterday before an adjourned session of the supervisors to present the new plan, under which these commodities will be moved only upon certificates issued from Welty's office.

MAKES IT UNLAWFUL TO EMPLOY STRANGERS.

A ordinance making it unlawful for any person to employ strangers on ranches where livestock is kept, unless such stranger shall present a certificate from the livestock inspector certifying that he has not been in a close quarantine area within 30 days, or otherwise, that he has been thoroughly disinfected, was passed by the board of supervisors of Solano county at Firfield yesterday.

The Yuba county board of supervisors yesterday adopted an ordinance restricting the importation of live stock into this county, except when properly certified as to freedom from foot and mouth disease infection.

An ordinance adopted two weeks ago carrying many of the same provisions was repealed because it was too strict.

The supervisors also appointed Dr. J. J. Fleming as livestock inspector.

CIRCUS ANIMALS COME WITHIN LAW.

Monkeys, a pet cat and several snakes may not be livestock, but they come under the provisions of the livestock ordinance in this county. The Bernardi Shows, Consolidated, therefore, must obtain certificates of health before they can present their production in this city under the auspices of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, during the week beginning April 28, it was reported at a meeting of the supervisors yesterday.

Under a new ruling by the county livestock inspector, dairymen and farmers are prohibited from making deliveries of milk to the various condensories in Monterey county. On the other hand, trucks sent out from various condensories must pick up the milk receptacles at the roadside, returning the same empty after sterilization. The object is to avoid concentration of ranch trucks at points of delivery.

MORE THAN HUNDRED DAIRYMEN AFFECTED.

Plants at Castroville, Salinas, Gonzales and Soledad are affected. More than 100 dairymen and farmers have been making daily deliveries at the Meyenburg plant here. The new order is effective during the hoof and mouth disease protective quarantine.

John Terry, well-known Newman rancher, was fined $50 by proxy on a charge of permitting a horse to run loose on the highway in spite of the quarantine regulations. Terry did not appear before Judge J. D. Blackwell, but sent W. A. Caton, local business man to represent him. He pleaded guilty for the rancher and paid the fine.

Joe Brown, owner of a Franklin canyon dairy, was arrested last night by Deputy Sheriff Ralph Harrison on a charge of violating quarantine in the hoof and mouth disease. Brown pleaded guilty and will come tomorrow before Justice of the Peace Frank Glass of Martinez for sentence. According to Harrison, Brown visited the infected area in Briones Valley.

22 Alameda Herds, Worth $179,150, Killed in Plague

Twenty-two herds have been affected with hoof and mouth disease in Alameda county, according to Dr. W. C. Herold, government expert, who is superintending the fight on the epidemic in this section. These included 1461 cows, 4331 hogs, four goats and one sheep, all of which have been slaughtered. The value of the animals is estimated at $179,156.

In Contra Costa county there have been 255 affected herds including 4951 cattle, 3192 hogs 31 sheep and 154 goats. The estimated cost of these slaughtered animals is $348,800, or a total cost of the two counties of $527,950.

The assessed value of the average cow in the herds that have been slaughtered in Alameda county is $90, while in Contra Costa county the value is only $60, the difference favoring Alameda on account of the pure bred dairy herds.

SENATE BEGINS VOTE ON MINOR BONUS CHANGES

One Change Approved Fixes January, 1925, as Date For First Payment.

Louisiana, said sentiment in that state was overwhelmingly in favor of a cash bonus.

Senator Caraway, Democrat, Arkansas, declared the American Legion, in endorsing the insurance bill, had changed its stand.

"I don't know what controlled the view of the American Legion lobbyists here," he added, "but I don't believe the majority of members of that organization know what this bill provides. We are just giving the soldiers a due bill which they can collect 20 years from now if they live."

Senator Neely, Democrat, West Virginia, suggested a bonus be voted for the Kaiser "for affording our soldiers the opportunity to enjoy such a great time as opponents of this bill have pictured."

Taking up amendments, the Senate voted down, 41 to 38, a proposal by Senator Smith, Democrat, South Carolina, to limit the rediscount rates chargeable on the insurance certificates.

Without a roll call the Senate agreed to the amendments by Chairman Wadsworth of the military committee extending the bonus to the Philippine scouts and making the Porto Rico regiment of infantry eligible on the basis of overseas service by reason of this service at Panama.

Without a record vote a motion by Senator Walsh, Democrat Massachusetts, to hold up payments of the $50 in cash allowed by the committee bill until July 1, 1925, was adopted.

An amendment offerd by Senator Brookhart, proposing to give the veterans' bureau sole control over loans allowed on the insurance policies was defeatd, 43 to 35.

The Senate approved, 42 to 38, an amendment by Senator Harrison, Democrat, Missouri, to relieve veterans from paying compound interest to the treasury upon redemption of an hypothecated certificate.

FOUR HURT WHEN AUTO TURNS OVER NEAR SAN JOSE

Car Catches Fire After It Left Road: Occupants Badly Burned.

SAN JOSE, April 23.—Edwin Martin, Paul Theno and Lillian Silva of San Leandro and Lena Silva of 1638 East Twenty-first street, Oakland, were seriously injured early this morning when their auto failed to make the turn from the Alviso road onto the Fish road, half a mile outside of San Jose, and rolled over into the ditch. The auto caught fire and was destroyed, while the occupants, in addition to the injuries received in the crash, were badly burned. The extent of their injuries has not yet been determined at the San Jose hospital, but it is believed all of them may be hurt internally.

Martin, who was driving, had rented the auto from George Hayden of San Leandro early in the evening. Sheriff George W. Lyle has learned. Deputy Sheriffs working on the case declare the car must have been traveling at a terrific speed from the position in which it was lying and the distance from the road.

Henry R. Neilson, deputy in the city clerk's office, went to trial today on charges of failing to stop and render aid following an accident. Work of picking the jury in Superior Judge Fred V. Wood's court began with the opening of court.

Neilson is accused of having run down Frank Phillips as the latter left his employment on East Fourteenth street on the evening of December 15 last. According to the evidence at the preliminary examination, J. R. Freeman, who witnessed the accident, chased Neilson's car three or four blocks before overtaking it and compelling Neilson to halt.

Freeman testified at the hearing in the lower court that Neilson denied all knowledge of having struck any one, and that he returned to the scene of the accident without protest other than repeated denials of having struck any person.

The following speeders appeared before Police Judge William J. Hennessey today: Leslie Fowler, 3674 East Eighteenth street, fined $5, but was sentenced to one day in jail because he did not have the money to pay the fine. Marcel Marquis, 3904 East Twelfth street, $5 bail forfeited. Frank Hawks, 2856 School street, $5 bail forfeited. Arthur Bawden, 2240 Eighty-fifth avenue, $5 bail forfeited.

Three speeders appeared before Police Judge Edward J. Tyrrell. Eloys Smith, 1222 East Seventeenth street, fined $5. Al Nathanson, 1507 Fourth avenue, fined $5. John Kaufman, 880 Forty-fifth avenue, fined $20. He was traveling 40 miles an hour in a 15-mile zone.

WETHERBEE BUSINESS SUBDIVISION

The decision rests with you

Which do YOU want here?

A first-run motion picture house or a first-class stock company theater?

A community of 150,000 people without a first-run movie house or a fine stock theater! Big theatrical interests have discovered this lack in East Oakland. Two concerns, one a motion picture syndicate and the other a well-known theatrical company, are negotiating for the same site in the Wetherbee Business Subdivision at East Fourteenth Street and Fruitvale Avenue.

The people of East Oakland can have whichever they want—a veritable movie palace or a splendid stock theater, either the equal of anything down town.

We believe they should have the final say as to how this last available property in the heart of their business center shall be built up.

So we are putting the decision fairly and squarely up to you. Which do you want? Simply check the ballot below and send it to either office. All we ask is that you vote now so that we may be advised of your wishes.

Which do you want? We will appreciate your cooperation. Please clip and mail the coupon.

THAW VOTED SANE; EVELYN NESBIT TO DEMAND RE-TRIAL

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 23.—Once more the doors of the asylum swing open for Harry Kendall Thaw.

After a period of seven years incarceration in a Philadelphia madhouse Thaw has been adjudged sane by a jury of his peers, and probably soon will be free.

Notice of motion of appeal for a new trial was immediately given by Evelyn Nesbit's counsel and this technicality will slightly delay complete freedom for Harry.

Harry, in a rambling statement which he picked out himself upon a typewriter while awaiting the verdict, announced he would probably make some provision for his former wife.

Thaw's statement, which is apparently an attempt to explain the manner in which he flew to the press table yesterday noon and delivered a long harangue, follows verbatim:

"About an hour before the morning session Mr. Coyne and I (besides counsel) knew there was danger later that a juror might be withdrawn, and if not counsel, I was greatly worried. The United Press reporter, also Mr. Beamish (a Philadelphia reporter) and the New York American and I believe the New York Times, observed this and I believe the rest all know now. Mr. Beamish, I saw, was watching and as I attempted to hear Mr. Clay's harangue when he attempted to tell the jury I was 'perturbed' by his talk, I had to use my handkerchief in laughing. For my anxiety never came from him.

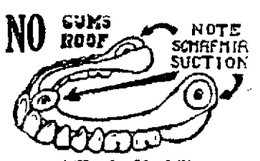

"Shortly after my lawyer arranged to prevent any possible objection, but we were all greatly relieved when Judge Monaghan began to charge the jury. His charge was excellent and most fair.

"Dr. Kirby and I had arranged to assist Miss Nesbit (should she like it) but that may be slightly delayed. However, I believe no one will object in case I manage this."

Thaw was committed to the insane asylum [illegible] in New York for the alleged whipping of Frederick Gump Jr., a high school boy.

Wine Which Ousted Police Head Spilled

RICHMOND, April 23.—The 450 gallons of wine, confiscated in a recent raid, which was indirectly responsible for the summary dismissal last Monday night of Chief of Police W. H. Wood, was destroyed today by a party of officials.

The wine, according to the authorities, was the property of Giuseppi Vavaletti, and was taken by the police. Oon December 4 a Superior court judge ordered Wood to destroy the wine, and it was later found that the police executive had disobeyed the order. He was dismissed on the recommendation of the city manager.

PRINTERS HEAR C. OF C. OFFICIAL

Printers of the Eastbay region gathered at the New Peerless last night and were honored by the attendance of delegations from San Francisco, San Jose and Contra Costa county.

Representatives from the Chambers of Commerce of Alameda, Berkeley, Oakland and Richmond were present and business men representing various lines attended to listen to C. W. Foy, manager of the Industrial Department of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce talk on the industrial growth of the Eastbay district.

Foy's talk was supplemented by the industrial film which is being sent to eastern concerns considering locating branch factories on the Pacific Coast.

Following Foy's talk on Industrial Development, William H. Barry, of the California Sanitation Development League addressed the meeting on "Community Co-operation in Building Up Payrolls." He showed that the printing trades in the Eastbay district were employing from 800 to 1000 people; that the investment in equipment was more $1,150,000, that the total sales of the printed product aggregated $2,300,000 per annum, that more than 2500 people were directly dependent upon the printing industry for a livelihood. He said there was enough printing and allied products being sent out of the community to be done on eastern presses to more than double the above figures.

Concluding the talks on Industrial Development of the Eastbay District, the meeting took on the form of a farewell meeting to William H. Barry, who for ten years has been the manager of the Commercial Printing Department of The Oakland TRIBUNE Publishing Co, and just recently resigned his position to become one of the active heads of the California Sanitation Development League.

Barry was honored by being unanimously elected an honorary life [illegible] club. The only other person who has had this honor bestowed upon him is Governor Friend W. Richardson, who at one time was president of the Employing Printers' Association of Alameda County.

Music Firm Sued For Contract Breach

Breach of contract and fraud is charged against F. D. Robinson of the Golden State Music Company, 1928 Center street, Berkeley, in a suit filed in Superior court by Oliver C. Lowe, who claims to be an expert organ builder.

Lowe claims he paid Robinson $500 in cash, signed a promissory note for $9500 and furnished certain parts of player organs with the understanding that he was to receive in exchange 100 shares of stock in the music company and half the profits from the manufacture of player organs. He declares that Robinson has failed to keep the agreement and made misrepresentations at the time of the agreement. Lowe asks that the court give him judgment for $500, with interest from November 3, 1923; that he recover the organ parts, valued at $4501.55, and that an injunction be issued to prevent Robinson disposing of or encumbering the promissory note.

Mrs. Shaw to Fight Suit For Divorce

SANTA ROSA, April 23.—Mrs. Muriel Shaw, wife of Earl Shaw, left here today for Reno, Nevada, to combat her husband's reported suit for divorce. Other than the information received from the newspapers Mrs. Shaw declares she knows nothing of the suit.

Shaw, who is a son of Leslie M. Shaw, former secretary of the treasury and former governor of Iowa, is reported to have charged his wife with cruelty.

A divorce action, charging cruelty, was filed in the California courts about a year ago by Shaw, but a reconciliation was effected and the suit was dropped. Last fall Shaw left Mrs. Shaw in San Francisco and she has been living in an apartment here since. For several years the Shaws lived on a prune ranch near here purchased for them by Shaw's father.

California Pioneer Woman Is Stricken

SAN JOSE, April 23.—Mrs. Minnie T. Lundy, California pioneer and daughter of Riley Moultrie, the man who financed and led the band which rescued the ill-fated Donner party, famous in California's history, died at her home here yesterday after a short illness. Mrs. Lundy, who had resided in this section of the Santa Clara valley for the past 30 years, was a character member of the Native Daughters of the Golden West. She is survived by her husband, Isaac Lundy, himself a pioneer of this state, her son, Ray F. Lundy, two grandchildren, Fielding and Myrtle Lundy and five sisters, Mrs. S. D. Adams, Mrs. H. Jack, Mrs. H. MacDonald, Mrs. M. Sinclair and Mrs. N. B. Lewis. Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

I. H. SPIRO HEADS MERCHANTS' BODY FOR FOURTH TERM

Oakland Exchange Endorsts Hospital and Courthouse Bond Issues.

For the fourth time in six years I. H. Spiro was made president of the Merchants' Exchange last evening. Spiro is well known on both sides of the bay having been San Francisco police commissioner for seven years under Mayor P. H. McCarthy and Mayor Rolph. He is also one of the oldest Rotarians in the bay district, having been identified with the organization for seventeen years.

Charles A. Nesbett was elected vice-president; E. H. Hart, secretary, and Wilbur Walker, treasurer.

Unanimous endorsement was given the Highland hospital bond issue and a committee consisting of William Strei, V. D. Mulkey and Theodore Gier was appointed to confer with the Community Chest on a request for funds with which to carry on the Highland hospital bond campaign.

The courthouse bond election was also endorsed.

A resolution was adopted calling upon the directors of the Eastbay Municipal Utility district to act with utmost speed in making investigation of new sources of water supply.

The exchange also endorsed the plan of City Electrician Hardy for the installation and maintenance of a new downtown lighting system. Hardy reported a cost of from $6.90 to $7.30 per front foot for installation and $.062 per front foot for maintenance.

SEATTLE REPORT DISCREDITS STORY OF KIDNAPED GIRL

Note Saying She Left of Own Accord Written Under Coercion, She Claims.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—While the search for George F. Carr, alleged kidnaper, has thus far proved fruitless, information received from the Seattle police discredits the story of Rose Fahey, 21, who appealed to the local police Monday night for protection from Carr, who, she said, had forced her to leave her home in Seattle and accompany him to San Francisco.

A telegram received by the police last night from Chief of Police Severns of Seattle quoted a note from the girl in which she had said that the story of her kidnaping and the gunplay by Carr was untrue, and that she had voluntarily left Seattle for reasons of her own.

When confronted with the note by detectives, the girl declared that Carr had forced her to write it.

The story she told the police Monday night was that Carr, her brother-in-law, had become temporarily unbalanced mentally as a result of a divorce proposed by his wife and that he had commanded her under penalty of death to leave her home in Seattle and had brought her in an automobile to this city.

THIRTY BURN TO DEATH IN SWISS TRAIN COLLISION

Cars Take Fire as Engines Crash; Fate of Four U. S. Tourists Unknown.

BY UNITED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

BASLE, April 23.—Between 25 and 30 persons are dead as a result of the disastrous railway wreck near Bellinzona, according to railway reports reaching here.

Two cars of one of the trains caught fire when tanks of gas used to illuminate the train exploded and many persons were pinned under the wreckage and burned. More than 20 charred bodies have been recovered.

Four Americans were reported among the passengers, most of whom were Italians and Germans.

The first car, containing passengers for Berlin, was completely wrecked and it is reported only one passenger from it escaped.

According to messages here, the Italian minister in Copenhagen, Signor Della Torre, was a passenger on one of the trains, but early reports gave no information as to whether or not he was injured.

Other messages say the passenger list of the Berlin train included 15 Germans and 2 Englishmen.

It was said the engineer of the Milan-Gothard express ignored a signal, sending his train crashing into an express from Lucern on a grade. The Lucern train was drawn by two locomotives and the crews of all three engines were killed.

I'd Be a Soldier Only I Was Born A King: Alfonso

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

PARIS, April 23.—King Alfonso views the military directorate governing Spain as necessary to the future welfare of the country, according to the correspondent of the Figaro, who has interviewed the Spanish sovereign at Madrid. Asked his conception of the role of a modern monarch, the king replied:

"A kingship is not a vocation that one chooses, it is a duty thrust upon us. I have been king since childhood and all my education was inspired by the royal functions I am to fulfill. I was always taught to obey my people and love my country—as a Spaniard first and then as a king. If I had been free to choose my own career I probably would have been a soldier and should never have wanted to be a king. But I am born and king and whatever my happen, under whatsoever circumstances, I shall always be at the service of my country.

"I am essentially a constitutional sovereign, but there are moments in history when it is indispensable to interpret the desires of the people so as to better represent them later. Besides the twenty years of my reign show clearly that I have always bowed before the will of the country."

AMERICANS PUT UNDER GUARD OF POLICE IN JAPAN

Jingo Orators Bitterly Attack U. S., Heralding War; Council Calm.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

TOKYO, April 23.—Reports on the American immigration legislation as it affects Japan were submitted to a meeting of the privy council today by Premier Kiyoura and Foreign Minister Matsui. It is understood the council generally endorsed the government's conduct in the matter.

Extra precautions have been ordered by the police to protect the persons and property of American residents of Tokyo. Although some "patriots" are distributing handbills warning of the approach of a Japanese-American war thus far there have been no untoward incidents. Many speakers, while bitterly attacking the United States as a nation, are cautioning their audiences against advance locally pointing out that this would only be a boomerang to Japan.

The cabinet has decided to convoke an extraordinary session of the Diet, June 2. The session will continue three weeks. The regular session was dissolved January 21, last, and the extraordinary session was decided upon some months ago. It is not being convoked because of the immigration problem.

Recent American exclusion legislation is affecting the election campaign, which is being hotly waged. The opposition believes that the American action on Japanese immigration is turning the campaign in its favor. The government is being blamed by the opposition for the exclusion fiasco, which is termed a "diplomatic failure."

St. Helena Sanitarium

ST. HELENA SANITARIUM, April 23.—M. C. Lysinger, A. C. Larson and E. R. Rhymes of St. Helena sanitarium have been called to be in attendance at the spring session of the Pacific Coast efficiency commission of Seventh Day Adventists. The men will attend particularly the business men's session which convenes April 28 and 29.

Tait and Edward Chinn, graduate nurses of St. Helena sanitarium, have returned to their home in Honolulu, Hawaii, sailing on the steamship Manoa from San Francisco, April 28. The Chinn brothers have been active members of the sanitarium concert band.

Members of the freshman A class of nurses entertained the members of the freshman B class, together with their teachers, in the parlor of the nurses' home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Gage of Mountain View are guests at the sanitarium this week. Gage is superintending some special work in the electrical department of the power plant. Mr. Simshauser, also of Mountain View, is assisting Gage in this work.

Miss Winifred James, teacher in the Mountain View schools, spent her Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Iram James, at the St. Helena sanitarium.

London will have the largest dock in the world when work now under way is completed.

Factory Stack Ires Bavarian Village

ROTHENBURG, Bavaria, April 23.—(By Associated Press.)—Rothenburgers are up in arms because the town council has granted a factory the right to erect a smoke-stack 200 feet high in the center of this picturesque medieval city which is regarded as Germany's most perfectly preserved ancient town.

Hitherto there has not been a discordant note in this old walled city. It stands just as it was in the days when Tilly entered it during the Thirty Years' War, and is one of the most popular Bavarian centers for tourists.

Rothenburg stands on a high hill and the residents insist that the factory might much better be located in the valley beneath it, where the smoke-stack would not break the skyline of picturesque roofs and sombre towers.

Ex-Premier Nitti's Son Hurt in Duel

NAPLES, April 23.—In a duel with swords here between Vincenzo Nitti, son of former Premier Nitti, and Giulio Francesconi, Nitti was wounded in the right arm.

The duel was the outgrowth of an article published by Francesconi in the fascist newspaper Mezzo Giorno, which Nitti considered an insult to his father.

Monterey Paving Is Approved by C. of C.

MONTEREY, April 23.—Monterey chamber of commerce followed the recommendation of its commimttee on boulevards, parks and roads and endorsed the proposed $53,000 bond issue for street improvements, projected by Monterey city council. The matter of the plea of the council for permission to borrow the sum of $15,000 with which to conduct the city's business for the remainder of the fiscal year did not receive such disposition. On motion of Col. H. H. Pattison, vice-president of the chamber, a committee of three was named to inspect the books of the city clerk, for the purpose of ascertainging what funds and for what purposes had been spent by the city board since January 1.

Secretary R. G. Watkins, recently returned from the convention of the Central Coast Counties associated chambers of commerce, held in San Luis Obispo last week, made a report on his observations at that place, and told the chamber that interest in the coast road (Carmel to San Simeon) was quite evident in San Luis Obispo county.

Arranges Program

WALTER HORACE BUNDY, well known in Oakland music circles, who has arranged a special program for KLX tonight, in which the Sunset Club will participate.

Father Coolidge 'Listens In' While President Talks

PLYMOUTH, Vt., April 23.—John C. Coolidge, father of President Coolidge, trudged half a mile to the home of Dick Brown, a neighbor, yesterday, and "listened in" on the radio while the president delivered his address at the Associated Press luncheon in New York. Mr. Coolidge remarked that the reception was perfect, but declined to comment on the matter of his son's address.

"I noticed that those newspaper men cheered him quite a bit," he added.

There is no radio installation in the Coolidge home in Plymouth. The president's father explained that his housekeeper objected to being "bothered with it." For the same reason a telephone which was installed in the house when Calvin Coolidge was notified last summer at his father's home of his succession to the presidency was removed soon afterward.

BOY SCOUTS GIVE LOS GATOS SHOW

LOS GATOS, April 23.—Forty Boy Scouts, members of Los Gatos Troop No. 3, gave a show last night at the Strand theater for the benefit of the troop's equipment fund. Scout Master Cecil A. Dickinson conducted the boys in a half-hour's exhibition of Scout work, dramatized under the title "A Day in Camp." Knot-tying, first aid, cooking, signaling and other branches of Scout work were exemplified.

The eigh-reel United States navy film, "The Silent Command," and a two-reel comedy were also shown.

EDUCATOR TO SPEAK.

Principal Ernest A. Rogers of the Montezuma mountain-top school for boys will speak next Sunday evening at 7:45 o'clock at the Los Gatos Presbyterian church on the topic, "Are We Civilized?" The Montezuma orchestra will play under the direction of Professor Reed.

TRAVELER TO PREACH.

Miss Jessie Ackermann, globe-trotter and lecturer, will preach next Sunday morning at the Fellowship church at 11 o'clock, on the topic, "Moral Aspects of the Labor Government in England."

CHAUTAUQUA DATES SET.

The Ellison-White Chautauqua will play in this city from May 28 to June 4. Among the features will be the production of Reginald De Koven's "Robin Hood."

CONCERT ARRANGED.

The annual spring concert of the Los Gatos Union high school orchestra will be given on Friday evening, May 9, at the grammar school auditorium. Professor Chas. Hayward, director, has arranged a special program, including selections by the boys' and girls' glee clubs.

BUNDY TO GIVE FINE TRIBUNE RADIO PROGAM

Sunset Club Will Take Leading Part in Pleasing Conctrt.

A special program under the direction of Walter Horace Bundy will be presented tonight from Radio KLX, The TRIBUNE'S station.

The Sunset club of Oakland will play the major part of the program. Those taking part in the special program are listed as follows: Sunset club; Mrs. Ethlyn Hampel, Miss Dollye Jones, Miss Ruth Hammell, sopranos; Miss Clevenger, Miss Rugg, Miss Thelma Jones, contraltos; Messrs. Moss, and Raymond Ramsey, basses. Orchestra: A. Thornton, Raymond Ramsey and D. Mack, violins; Roy Lowenfels, G. Roe and M. Fournier, saxophones; Mr. Church, cornet; Miss Margaret Graham, vocalist; Miss Thelma Jones, pianist; H. D. B. Soule, pianist and accompanist; Charles Birnbaum, marimba artist.

In addition to the special program as arranged by Bundy, there will be three features scheduled for this evening which will not be a part of the special program.

Forest Protection Week, set aside by President Coolidge, to begni April 21, will be observed at KLX by Paul G. Redington, district forester, and one of the government's greatest champions of forest protection. His talk should prove especially interesting to the people of the Pacific coast, for he declares that over one-half of the virgin timber standing in the United States is in the states of Washington, Oregon and California. His advice to campers, picknickers and others, is "Be sure your fire is dead, then bury it."

J. A. Ramsey of the National Carbon company, who has been delivering a series of talks from KLX on "E" batteries, will give the last of the series tonight.

Fred F. Bebergall, who is a regular contributor to the KLX programs, will recite "The Cremation of Sam McGee."

TOKYO HONORS 44 SUBMARINE DEAD AS IDEAL PATRIOTS

Heroes, Slowly Suffocating to Death, Pledge Immortal Fidelity to Japan.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

TOKYO, April 23.—Tribute was paid today to 44 victims of the Sasebo submarine disaster who, it has developed, wrote notes pledging immortal patriotism while awaiting slow death from suffocation.

In connection with impressive funeral ceremonies at Sasebo, the navy department made public to the nation letters and wills found in the navy submarine 43 which sank, in 26 fathoms of water off Sasebo harbor on March 19. Typical of the phrases written by the trapped and smothering men were these:

"Long live the emperor."

"We die, but we guard the empire after death."

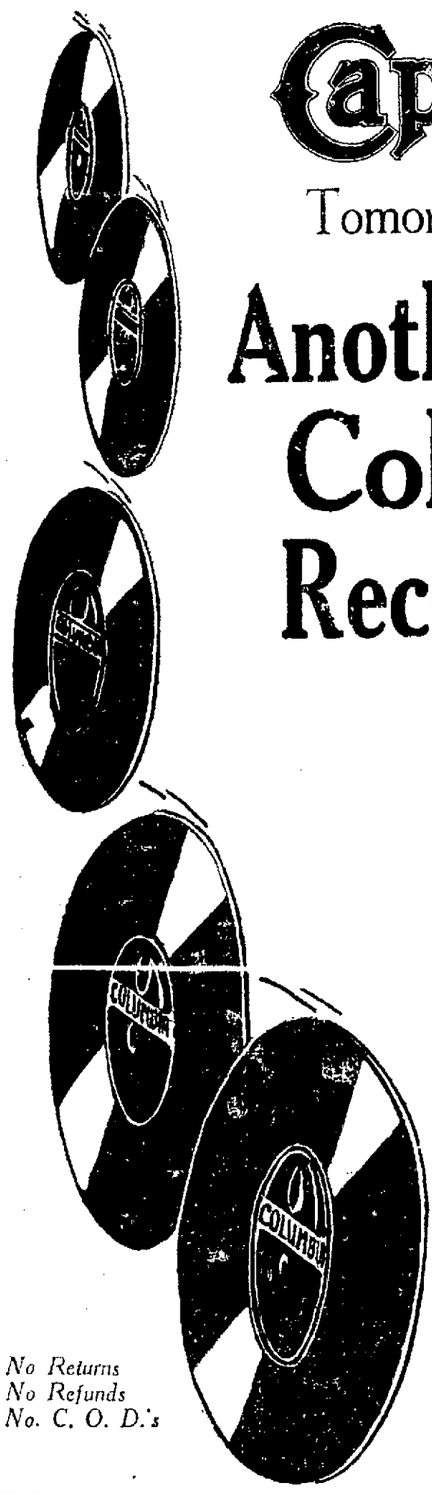

"In coming generations our spirits will serve the emperor."

One letter jotted at intervals during the death watch vividly described the suffering as the end approached. It was not until several days after all the crew had perished that rescuers were able to raise the undersea craft.

Morning newspapers devoted columns to the funeral accounts and letters. The publicity was calculated to improve the national morale as well as that of the navy, and to offset the unpopularity of the submarine service due to frequent fatal accidents.

Admiral Okada, vice minister of the navy, in an interview with the newspaper Asahi declared the Sasebo tragedy demonstrated the "navy retains the splendid loyalty which we had feared was somewhat undermined by dangerous foreign ideas."

Beauty

A Gleamy Mass of Hair

35c "Danderine" does Wonders for Any Girl's Hair

Girls! Try this! When combing and dressing your hair, just moisten your hair brush with a little "Danderine" and brush it through your hair. The effect is startling! You can do your hair up immediately and it will appear twice as thick and heavy — a mass of gleamy hair, sparkling with life and possessing that uncomparable softness, fluffiness and luxuriance.

While beautifying the hair 'Danderine' is also toning and stimulating each single hair to grow thick, long and strong. Hair stops falling out and dandruff disappears. Get a bottle of delightful refreshing "Danderine" at any drug or toilet counter and just see how healthy and youthful your hair becomes.—Advertisement.

"Butterfly" Solves Heart-Rending Problem; Read It

They cared for each other very much, those two sisters.

And yet when they both fell in love with the same man—

Dora said: "I shall never touch my violin again. I—I ..."

"Butterfly" Hilary gasped, her house of life dissolving before her.

"I can't!" Dora repeated, "that's over. If Craig comes for you, it is only right, Hilary. You've had more than your share of trouble. But I am going away. I can't stand it. I'd rather die than stop caring. He—he sat next to me that night and talked to me—and I—I—"

"Dora, my dearest, you must control yourself," Hilary interrupted, alarmed at her violence, her heart turning to ice. Amazement and consternation were making her feel dizzy and ill, but she knew enough to clasp her arms tightly about her sister, and as their faces touched, they both broke into fresh tears.

"My darling," continued Hilary, after an unmeasured silence, in which they clung together, "Don't let this thing be an unhappiness to you. It will come out all right."

How the two sisters worked out this heart rending proolem is told inimitably by Mrs Kathleen Norris in her latest best seller "Butterfly", which will be published weekl in the TRIBUNE Sunday magazine beginning May 4.

When the Civil War started the confederate dollar was worth ninety cents, at its close it was worth one cent.

ALAMEDA FIREMEN WILL BE HOSTS AT BALL TONIGHT

Fine Musical Program Will Be Presented During Evening.

ALAMEDA, April 23.—Arrangements for the second annual ball of the Alameda Fire Department, to be held this evening, have been completed under the direction of Captain August Wagner. The ball will be attended by fire department chiefs of the San Francisco, Oakland, Berkeley and other Bay cities.

Mayor Otis, members of the city council and city officials will be honor guests. Invitations have been sent out to prominent citizens of the Eastbay who have assisted the department in their Christmas festivals. According to Captain Wagner the ball will be one of the largest public functions of the spring season.

Miss Anita Sullivan, a concert singer recently from New York and who is preparing to enter grand opera, has been engaged as a soloist for the evening. Peter Rodriguez, tenor soloist of the Oakland fire department. Miss Hattye B. Randall, of Oakland will also sing and a trio of Oakland children Louis Fouchert, Hortencia Fouchert and Raymond Baldermos, will provide musical novelties.

Sand has been blown all the way from the Sahara desert into Switzerland by severe storms.

CABBAGE COSTS COWS' KEEPER CONSIDERABLE

SAN JOSE, April 23.—A cabbage "feed" which cows belonging to John Teixera enjoyed in the cabbage patch of Louis Silva near this city several months ago cost the cows' owner $256 in the court of Superior Judge P. F. Goshey yesterday.

Silva sued Teixera for $1000 charging that the cows had done this much damage when they broke into his cabbage patch and ate 900 cabbage and trampled on considerably more. The case was tried before Judge Goshey yesterday, with the result that the judge gave Silva $256 damages. Attorney J. M. Atkinson handled the case for the plaintiff.

PACIFIC GROVE TRUSTEES NAME GOULD MAYOR

New Council at First Meeting Accepts Resignation of Town Marshal.

PACIFIC GROVE, April 23.—W. J. Gould is the new mayor of Pacific Grove, succeeding E. Cooke Smith, whose term ended last night, with the incoming of the new city board. It had been pretty generally believed that Gould would be the choice of the men composing a majority of the board, who came into office with him at the recent election, when the old mayor surrendered the gavel of authority.

Following a canvass of the ballots of the recent election, Gould, Basham, Buck and Cosmey were declared elected to fill the vacancies caused by the retirement of Messrs. Bambauer, Bennett, Mausey and Cope. The first ballot showed Gould to be the unanimous choice for mayor.

The resignation of James P. Evans, for the past eight years town marshal of Pacific Grove, was presented to the new board. With the understanding that he hold office until May 5, the board accepted his resignation, and named Nightwatchman Frank Wilcox as marshal. John Beaumont was named to succeed Wilcoxen.

Mayor Gould announced the following appointments of city employees: Fire chief, Roy M. Wright; engine driver, V. M. Wasson; street superintendent, J. M. Gardner; electrical inspector, E. C. Gerry; plumbing inspector, C. L. Trine; city recorder, A. M. Fitzsimmons; city engineer, Howard D. Severence; city attorney, H. G. Jorgenson.

The following committees were named by the new mayor: Streets, Messrs. Basham, Buck and Smith; fire and water, Smith, Cosmey and Buck; finance, Basham Smith and Buck; finance, Basham, Smith and Basham; parks and music, Buck, Smith and Cosmey; ordinances, Buck, Smith and Cosmey.

The offices of tax collector and treasurer will be combined under a decision reached last night, final arrangements to this effect being held over until the next meeting of the board.

More than three billion dollars was spend by the American railroads during 1923 for maintenance and supplies.

Underneath where irritation starts

the real trouble is reached and soothed away

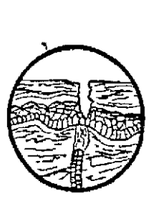

DO NOT expect ordinary surface remedies to remove a rash, eczema or itching skin disorder. Not on the outside, but down in the under layers of the skin is the real trouble.

Pores clogged with poisonous germs, body cells and tissues swollen and inflamed — these are what must be soothed back to normal before a skin disorder will disappear.

Yet there is a way that brings almost immediate relief. To cleanse the pores, kill germs, and start the skin again acting normally, physicians have for twenty-eight years been prescribing Resinol in their daily practice.

If you have today any spot, rash or irritation on your skin, apply this soothing, healing Ointment. Spread a coating on the affected surface and smooth it in very gently with the fingers. One application will, in many cases, stop the itching completely. Resinol is absolutely harmless. It will not irritate an infant's delicate skin, or even raw exposed flesh. Get a jar at your druggist's today, or send for a free trial sample to Dept. 26, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

CRACKSMEN ROB THREE SAFES IN SANTA ROSA ZONE

Auto Bandits Loot 5 Places in Few Hours; Posse in Pursuit.

SANTA ROSA, April 23.—Safe robbers, traveling by auto, last night robbed three safes within a few hours They are believed to be the same crew responsible for several similar robberies in the county about three weeks ago

The first robbery was committed at the Bertolini service station just outside of Santa Rosa, where they knocked the combination knob off the safe with a sledge The loss has not been determined Deputy sheriffs are taking finger prints from the safe door

Driving to Healdsburg the robbers broke into the depot of the Northwestern Pacific railroad where they broke open the safe in the same manner, securing a considerable sum of money. They also robbed the cash till of the Western Union Telegraph company and the money drawer of the railroad freight depot in the same building

At the Ford service station near the depot, they opened the safe in the same manner as they had the other two and secured between $50 and $100.

A posse under Sheriff John M Boyes is searching the county for the bandits' touring car

Associated Press Keeps Californian on Board

NEW YORK, April 23. — California and the Far West retained representation on the board of directors of the Associated Press at yesterday's annual meeting through the election of Joseph R Knowland of the Oakland TRIBUNE, succeeding V S McClatchey, who resigned following the sale of his interests in the Sacramento Bee. Under the rules of the association two nominations are made for each vacancy, and the other nominee was Harry Chandler of the Los Angeles Times Chandler withdrew in a speech on the floor endorsing Knowland, who was unanimously elected.

Five directors were re-elected.

The following were re-elected for three years Victor F. Lawson, Chicago (Ill.) Daily News, W H Cowles, Spokane (Wash.) Spokesman-Review, Frank P. MacLennan, Topeka (Kan.) State Journal; E Lansing Ray, St Louis (Mo.) Globe-Democrat Frederick I. Thompson, Birmingham (Ala.) Age-Herald.

To fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of W. L. McLean Philadelphia Bulletin, whose term would have expired in 1926 Robert McLean, Philadelphia Bulletin, was elected

As a special tribute to Lawson, he was re-elected by acclamation Ballots for the others were counted.

The honor was paid to Lawson on motion of Ralph H Booth of the Saginaw (Mich.) News-Courier Withdrawing his own candidacy. Booth said

TRIBUTE TO LAWSON.

"The outstanding thing about the Associated Press is its character, and character comes from the head down. I think there is nothing that has contributed to the character of the Associated Press more than the headship of its first president and chief organizer, Mr. Victor F. Lawson. It is unthinkable, as long as Mr. Lawson is able and willing to serve this association in the capacity of a director, that we should lose one scintilla of the opportunity to give him undivided support."

After the secretary, amid great applause, had cast one ballot for his re-election, Lawson said:

"I am quite unable adequately to express my appreciation of the generous action of this association, but I do want to say, in just literally a single word, that I am deeply sensible of your good opinion and good will and generous treatment of me I thank you very, very deeply."

The last stick of type set by President Harding was presented to the Associated Press by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace on behalf of W. R. Thompson, publisher of the Fairbanks (Alaska) News-Miner-Citizen. The type was set in the paper's composing room when President Harding was visiting Alaska shortly before his death. Secretary Wallace, who besides the President, was the only member of the Harding party to have been a printer, said that Thompson regarded the Associated Press as the most worthy institution to retain in its custody a precious memento of one who brought honor to the newspaper profession and of one of our most dearly beloved presidents

The following boards and committees were elected:

Advisory board, Central division—H. J. Powell (Coffeyville, (Kan.) Journal, chairman Miss Zellhart Deming Warren (Ohio) Tribune, secretary; F A Miller South Bend (Ind) Tribune Arthur R. Treanor, Saginaw (Mich.) News-Courier, M. F Hanson, Duluth (Minn.) Herald.

WEST REPRESENTED.

Western division—C. B. Blethen, Seattle (Wash.) Times, chairman, James D. Meredith, Sacramento (Cal.) Union, secretary; C A Morden, Portland (Ore.) Oregonian, A. N McKay, Salt Lake City (Utah) Tribune, Dwight B. Heard, Phoenix (Ariz.) Republican

Nominating committee Central division—W. Y. Morgan, Hutchinson (Kan.) News, Marcellus M Murdock Wichita (Kan.) Eagle

Western division — Frank H Hitchcock Tucson (Ariz.) Citizen, chairman, Harry Chandler Los Angeles (Cal.) Times

NOYES RE-ELECTED.

Corporation Yard Site Negotiations On

Negotiations are going forward between the city of Oakland and the board of education for the purchase of the lots on 61st avenue and East Eleventh street the proposed new site for the city's corporation yard. The board of education has placed a $40,000 valuation on the property, which must be bought at public auction by the city.

The moving of the corporation yard, according to city officials, means not only the elimination of the old unsightly sheds but clears all the land around the auditorium The big new Peralta park playground will then come up to the south side of the big municipal building, giving a green landscope on every side of it

Tax Collectors Ready For Last Minute Rush

The last week of the second installment of city tax collecting is now bringing hundreds of residents to the ground floor of the city hall, and officials of the city treasurer's office say they expect the usual last minute rush on Monday April 28, when the final collection will be taken City Treasurer Frank Conard says he expects the office to remain open for an hour or so later than usual to allow tardy taxpayers to 'get under the wire"

The percentage of delinquent taxes according to Conard is just about the same as last year.

THE DANGER LINE

Pyorrhea begins at THE DANGER LINE

THE edges of your gums form a V-shaped crevice where they come in contact with the teeth. This is The Danger Line. Every time you eat, tiny food particles lodge there. Some of them are pressed under the gum margin, forcing the gums to recede, as shown in the cross-section of the tooth illustrated at the left.

These tiny food particles ferment and form acids, which cause tooth decay, and irritate the gums. Pyorrhea often results.

Squibb's Dental Cream is the one dentifrice which safely and effectively combats acid conditions in the mouth. It is made with Squibb's Milk of Magnesia, a product prescribed for generations by dentists and physicians to correct acidity.

In this way Squibb's Dental Cream gives the most thorough and lasting protection possible to the teeth and gums. Begin to use it to day to keep your teeth sound and attractive and your mouth clean and healthy. You will enjoy its pleasant flavor. No other dentifrice brings you the same advantages. Insist on Squibb's Dental Cream—at your druggist's.

CHAIRMANSHIPS ARE CONSIDERED BY COOLIDGE

President Expected to Indicate His Preferences at Meet of Advisors.

WASHINGTON, April 23—President Coolidge as a result of conferences held during his visit to New York, is expected before the end of the week to indicate his preferences with regard to temporary and permanent chairmanships of the Republican National convention.

The Republican National committee's sub-committee on arrangements for the convention will meet in Cleveland next Wednesday and its members have indicated a desire to obtain an expression of view from the President on the chairmanships prior to their session. Coolidge before delivery of his address at the annual luncheon of the Associated Press went over the matter with several of his political advisers and gave the subject additional thought during the return trip to Washington.

Conferences were held by the President with William M Butler manager of his campaign, John T Adams chairman of the Republican National committee, Charles D Hilles, Republican National Committeeman from New York, George Harvey, Frank W Stearns of the Coolidge campaign directorate, and Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, who long has been prominent in Republican politics. Efforts were made to get in touch with Will H Hays, chairman of the Republican National committee during the last campaign, but he was out of the city.

The conference resulted in no decision, as the President was understood to have expressed a desire to consider the matter for several days. Butler returned to Washington with him and will confer with him several times within the next few days. Coolidge also will consult with C Bascom Slemp, his secretary and one of the leaders in his campaign.

The names considered were in the main those which have been mentioned frequently within recent weeks. They include former Governor Lowden of Illinois, Secretary Hughes, Senator Willis, Ohio, Chas G. Dawes, Representative Longworth, of Ohio, Senator Borah, of Idaho; former Senator Beveridge of Indiana, Governors Hyde of Missouri and Groesbeck of Michigan, and Senator Pepper of Pennsylvania.

Gerard Hopes For Democratic Victory

NEW YORK, April 23—James W. Gerard, former United States ambassador to Germany, declared last night at the pre-convention dinner of the women's national Democratic club that the lifting of the lid in Washington" would bring back to the Democratic party the 3,500,000 voters necessary to its victory unless their decision was made impossible "by some idiotic act" of the party.

"The Republicans have most of the newspapers and all of the money," he charged, "but our own honest fellow citizens those who voted with the Republican party at the last election have glimpsed the connection of the corrupt end of Wall Street with Republican leadership. Publicity is the remedy for political evils."

Coolidge's N. Y. Address Wins Editors' Approval

By J. R. KNOWLAND
Publisher of The Oakland TRIBUNE.

NEW YORK, April 23 — When you first see Calvin Coolidge you feel quite certain that he is a New Englander. As soon as he begins to speak you are convinced of the fact, for the nasal twang is strikingly apparent. His countenance bespeaks austerity, which you forget when he smiles.

When the membership of the Associated Press gathered at the Waldorf saw the President light a cigar and smoke it with the band still encircling the weed, all doubt of his democracy was dispelled. That cigar was the connecting link.

I have heard Presidents speak upon many occasions, but never have I listened to a chief executive in the midst of a campaign and felt that he was not delivering a political address.

There were no flights of oratory attempted. It was just a straightforward business-like address, devoid of all bunk and meaningless words. Summed up, it was the utterance of a statesman seeking what was best for his country, and whether or not you agree, his opinions commanded respect. There was applause when the President, speaking of those guilty of wrongdoing in official life declared that there was a healthy disposition to administer punishment wherever competent evidence of guilt can be produced. "That I am doing and propose to continue."

UTTERANCES APPROVED

There was also applause when the speaker announced that he regarded the League of Nations a dead issue. His strong appeal for economy in governmental expenditures, and for world peace, elicited approval. The Dawes report was highly commended and pointed to as an outstanding accomplishment, chief credit for which was accorded others.

The Associated Press is a nonpolitical organization, and its membership made up of representatives from all sections. At my table were a number of southern editors of Democratic papers and they were frank in commending the address. One remarked that the chief concern of his party leaders at the present time was due to the knowledge that the American people were thoroughly convinced of the honesty and high character of Calvin Coolidge, and that the Democrats could not hope to win in these days of impaired confidence in public officials, unless a man enjoying equal confidence was nominated.

DEFEAT OF PINCHOT.

In Pennsylvania yesterday Francis J Heney of California fame was instrumental in defeating Governor Gifford Pinchot for delegate to the Republican National convention. It is an interesting story. The man who won against Pinchot was Ralph Beaver Strassburger, who four years ago, was one of the chief supporters and financial backers of Senator Johnson, but who is this year for Coolidge. The Pennsylvania Republican leaders some time ago in making up a ticket for delegates at large included on the ticket both Pinchot and Secretary of the Treasury Mellon. There has been suspicion that Pinchot was secretly opposed to both Coolidge and Mellon, and proof was finally furnished when it was disclosed that the Governor had recommended to Senator Couzens the employment of Heney to investigate Mellon in an effort to discredit the Treasury Department.

RESULTS CONCLUSIVE

When this information was broadcast in Pennsylvania and a fight opened on Pinchot, the Governor announced that it was all a conspiracy of the wets to discredit him, and he appealed to the dry forces to rally to his support. The drys found no fault with Coolidge's record for law enforcement, and refused to endorse Pinchot for sniping at Coolidge and Mellon. Yesterday's election in Pennsylvania and New Jersey has finally settled the contest for the Republican nomination for president. The people in the primary States have expressed their preference for Coolidge and in the opinion of all leaders here the results are conclusive.

POLITICAL NOTES

Alameda Coolidge Republican clubs today were perfecting plans for a big joint rally to be held Monday evening at American Legion hall, 1346 Park street. The rally will be under the direction of all of the Coolidge clubs of the city with a membership of more than 2500 voters.

According to announcement of the committee of arrangements, Edward K. Taylor, former State Senator and first mayor of Alameda will preside. Speakers furnished by the speakers' bureau of the League of Coolidge Republican Clubs of Alameda County, will be Mark Requa former U S Fuel administrator during the World War, John R Jones noted political orator of San Francisco, Mrs Ida Finney Mackrille well known Eastbay clubwoman and speaker; and Mrs Leonora Chaney president of the Women's Legislative Council of California.

Representative business and clubwomen of the Island City will make up the reception committee. Among them are Mrs Walter G Tibbets, Miss Mary Helen McLean; Mrs A W Iverson, Mrs Hugh O'Neil McCoy, Mrs William Rafuel and Mrs L H Levy.

Special entertainment will be provided. There will be several vocal and instrumental numbers.

The clubs participating in the rally are the East End Coolidge club, the Central Alameda Coolidge club, the West End Coolidge club, the Young Men's Coolidge League of Alameda, the Thirty-fifth Assembly District Coolidge club, the Fourteenth Senatorial District Coolidge club and the Alameda Political club, an organization that has unanimously endorsed the candidacy of the President.

Reports at league headquarters it was announced today, show an active precinct campaign being waged in Alameda. In some of the precincts a house-to-house canvass in the interests of Coolidge was begun and a telephone canvass was being employed in others, it was reported.

COOLIDGE POLICY DOUBLES SCOPE OF HIS ACTIVITY

By H. K. REYNOLDS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 23—The scope of President Coolidge's political activities has doubled. Already busy with his presidential campaign, Coolidge returned to Washington today from New York to take upon himself the added burden imposed by his deliberate plunge into European politics.

No outward change may be expected immediately as the result of the President's declaration of his desire to extend a helping hand across the Atlantic, administration official said today. In congress where suggestions for a new world armament conference have been frowned upon by administration leaders, Coolidge's warm endorsement of proposals for further limitation caused distinct surprise.

WILL RENEW EFFORTS

Less than a month ago when Senator Pepper, Republican of Pennsylvania, tried to put a resolution through the senate calling a new conference to limit naval and aircraft construction there was a general understanding that the President did not think the present condition of international affairs augured for the success of such an undertaking. The same thing happened in the house when the naval appropriation bill was under consideration.

Now that the President has indicated his approval of another armament conference as soon as Europe's economic stability is assured renewed efforts will be made to get the senate's endorsement of the Pepper resolution. Everything depends however, upon a reparations settlement predicted upon the Dawes' plan.

APPROVED BY SENATORS

Republican senators generally approved of the President's plan for a new armament conference but were quick to point out that it was impossible to tell when world conditions would permit the great powers to come together in the same spirit that made President Harding's conference a success three years ago.

The Democrats' attitude was expressed by Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the minority leader who said that he could see no advantage in calling an independent conference when we could take advantage of instrumentalities already offered by the League of Nations.

Among the Republicans who endorsed the President's proposal were Senators Norris of Nebraska, Willis of Ohio, Pepper of Pennsylvania and Cummins of Iowa, the President pro tem of the senate.

Pershing Is Urged For Vice-President

ROCHESTER, Minn April 23—Mark A. Woods of Lincoln, Neb., Coolidge delegate to the Republican national convention and national chairman of the Pershing-for-President club four years ago in a statement issued here last night indicated that he proposes actively to launch the campaign of General J J Pershing for the Republican vice-presidential nomination.

"Pershing," said Woods' statement, "would be an ideal running mate for President Coolidge. Born in Missouri, with Nebraska as his home state, he would appeal to the middle west. His ability as an executive was clearly demonstrated by the manner in which he handled the greatest business machine the world has ever known. His integrity is unquestioned.

"Pershing as vice-president would help the administration to command the wholesome respect of the people of all foreign countries—they know him. Nebraska and Missouri join in placing him in nomination."

$50,00 Heart Balm Asked by S. F. Girl

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23—Heart breakage requires $50,000 for repairs, in the opinion of Miss Gladys Williams, of 970 Geary street, who demands damages in that amount in a break of promise suit filed by her against James L. Maupin, medical student at the Stanford hospital. The suit was filed in the Superior Court here.

The plaintiff says that Maupin proposed to her and was accepted on September 15, 1922. About a month ago the engagement of Maupin to another San Francisco woman, Miss Katherine Stoney, was announced.

Miss Williams declares that she was "going through with this thing to the very end."

British Educator to Address Teachers

BERKELEY, April 23 — Dr John Adams of the University of London will be the speaker at the spring convention of the State Association of English Teachers at Haviland hall, University of California, Saturday afternoon.

The meeting will follow a luncheon held at the Faculty's Women's Club House and a morning session in Haviland hall. Talcot Williamson head of the English department of Oakland Technical High School, will give an address on the subject of European schools.

Accused Actress Takes Pets to Jail

Accompanied by her "family," consisting of one bullterrier and three cats, Lola Stewart, Sacramento actress who was arrested upon her arrival here yesterday for the alleged theft of a $100 fur coat will be taken back to Sacramento today according to the police.

When taken into custody at Shasta and College avenues yesterday by Detectives B. A. Wallman and Timothy Flynn she said "If you arrest me you'll have to take my family along, too."

She led the officers to the baggage car and her "family" proved to be her four pets. They were taken with her to the city prison and passed the night in the municipal garage—where they immediately declared war on rats—while their mistress languished behind the bars.

Kahn Declares He Will Not Retire

SARATOGA, April 23 — Congressman Julius Kahn chairman of the congressional committee on military affairs who is visiting at Mrs. M. R. Grunsky's Saratoga home, "The Terrace," with his family recuperating from a breakdown due to overwork, went on record this week as fearing no serious complications from the heated discussion now on over the Japanese exclusion bill.

"As far as Japan is concerned I do not believe that serious complications need be feared. For one thing, since the world war Japan and the rest of the world have had a new view of the United States. Before the world conflict we were considered weak from a military point of view. But the war showed that while we are not a militaristic nation we can offer formidable opposition in men, materials and money, and that the American citizen is the best soldier in the world."

Kahn denied positively rumors to the effect that he intended soon to retire from active political life.

DEATH ACCIDENTAL

A coroner's jury investigating the death of Edward C Howard, 581 Rosal avenue on April 18 reported today that death had resulted from carbon monoxide poisoning and that the man was accidentally asphyxiated by the exhaust fumes of his automobile in a garage at his residence. Surviving are a widow and two children and a brother-in-law, H Kitschinski.

COURT FREES MOTORIST.

A charge of driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor was dismissed today against Fred B Becker, an automobile salesman. The case was quashed by Judge Hennessey at the request of the prosecuting attorney because of lack of evidence.

EXPERTS' CLAIMS ARE REJECTED BY AUDITOR OF CITY

Council Votes Approval of Bills Over Officials' Protests.

Maintaining that $83.33 per day is too much to pay to real estate experts testifying for the city concerning valuations along Twentieth street, City Auditor Harry Williams today rejected the claims of Wilfred N Ball, D W. LaFortune and R W Kittrelle for $1000 each for their services in giving valuation testimony before the superior court in favor of the city concerning the Twentieth street opening.

City Attorney Leon E Gray asserted that the pay of these experts was just. The council then approved the demand of the experts, over Williams' head.

Williams asserted that the state law provides $2 per diem and mileage for ordinary witnesses. He admitted however that technical real estate witnesses could not be induced to work at this wage and agreed with Gray recently that these men should get $25 per day for 30 days. The case ended earlier, said Williams, and the experts only earned about $300 according to the $25 per day schedule. Williams asserted that he could see no reason to pay the larger amount.

Gray said the claim of the witnesses was absolutely legal. He said:

"They saved money for the city. There was more than $1,000,000 involved. The court sessions were only part of the work. The experts spent three weeks in inspection and study. Ball personally measured 33 buildings. The claim is just and very reasonable. If Williams wanted to save money for the city, he shuld have taken the stand. He's the auditor, but he preferred not to."

Actress to Be Guest Of Local Press Club

Miss Ruth Renick, leading woman at the Fulton theater and a former motion picture favorite will be the guest of honor at the regular Thursday luncheon of the Oakland Press club tomorrow.

The actress will offer a short program of songs and recitations.

With the acceptance of the invitation of the Press club Miss Renick revealed a part of her talents never before known to the public. She admitted that she had literary inclinations herself and that such time as she may have at liberty from the duties of the theater she devotes to the writing of a novel. The magnum opus she said is named "The Heart of a Son's Mother."

ASSAULT CHARGE QUASHED

Police Judge Hennessey dismissed a charge of assault with a deadly weapon against Frank Mimentel of 1901 East Twenty-first street. About a month ago Pimental had an argument with G H Klukhert of the same address over a gas bill. During the argument Klukhert was shot by Pimental's young son. The boy's case has been transferred to the juvenile court.

MOTORCYCLE VICTIM SUES

Claiming he received a fracture of the right leg and other injuries when struck by a motorcycle recklessly operated by H W Hoffman at Fairmont and Moss avenues on March 3, Frank P Harbst has filed suit for $11,582 damages in the Superior Court. Hoffman is made defendant.

BROADWAY AT SIXTEENTH

That Anxious 10 Minutes in the Dentist's Chair

Regular inspection of the teeth by a competent dentist is a vital necessity to adult and child, but you fear this periodical inspection, nevertheless. Suppose you are sitting in your dentist's reception room waiting for this examination —hoping against hope, but fearing the worst—surely, the dentist will discover cavities this time!

Ah—all too soon your turn has come. Gripping the arms of the chair, you lie back while the dentist goes over your teeth with probe and mirror — and suppose — just suppose—after what seems a century of anxiety—the dentist smilingly announces "I CAN'T FIND A THING THE MATTER." Wouldn't that be a grand and glorious feeling?

Users of MYRROHL Tooth Paste often have that wonderful experience. So should you if you clean your teeth with it twice daily.

MYRROHL contains no grit and is delightful in taste. In addition to being a thorough cleanser, with strong germ-destroying qualities it contains THREE ACTIVE HEALING AGENTS highly valued by the dental profession for their medicinal and antiseptic virtues—gum myrrh, red gum and zinc chloride. It prevents tooth decay, keeps teeth beautifully white and frees them from nicotine stains, makes spongy inflamed gums firm and healthy, and keeps the breath sweet and wholesome. Harmless. Children delight in its use, and if they accidentally swallow it, no ill effects result.

PHYSICIANS OF COUNTY FOR BONDS

Medical Society Unanimously Endorses $1,800,000 Highland Hospital Issue; Will Work For Its Passage

The Alameda County Medical Society, representing the medical profession in Alameda county, is unanimously behind the Highland hospital bond issue for $1,800,000 which will be voted on at the general election Tuesday, May 6.

These men, perhaps those best fitted in the entire county to know the hospital needs of the county, at their last meeting, without a dissenting voice, endorsed the bonds for the completion of the Highland hospital. The meeting was attended by several hundred of the most prominent men in the profession.

And to further show their desire that this great work be accomplished today instead of six years from today, the medical men have organized a "fighting committee" which will enter the field to urge upon every possible occasion a favorable vote for the bonds.

This committee, headed by Dr. Clarence McVey, president of the society, will educate the public—the men, women and children of the county—as to the vital necessity of completing Highland hospital.

The following resolutions were adopted by the organization:

Whereas Alameda county is now and has for many years past been without sufficient hospital accommodations for its county poor, thereby not only greatly inconveniencing those who through necessity must come under the county's care, but also greatly hazarding their lives and recovery to health and,

Whereas, the board of supervisors of the county of Alameda has for several years been ernestly endeavoring to overcome the existing lack of hospital facilities by erecting the Highland hospital out of the general funds of the county monies, which action by the board is highly commendable as being for the best interest of the county and the people, though obviously a slow process and a particularly expensive one to the taxpayer, while with the issuance of bonds—spread over a period of years, the tax rate will be reduced, and by its early completion the Highland hospital will not become obsolete before it is being used, and

Whereas, the time has arrived when it is imperative that said Highland hospital should be completed, fully equipped and given a full medical and surgical staff to properly care for the patients thereof, at the very earliest date possible, and

Whereas, a ballot for the issuance of $1,800,000 of bonds necessary money for the immediate completion of Highland hospital will be submitted to the electors of this county on May 6 next, therefore be it

Resolved, that the Alameda County Medical association, realizing as we do the necessity for the Highland hospital, do all within our power to urge upon the voters of Alameda county the propriety and necessity of these bonds and be it further

Resolved, that we, the members of the Alameda County Medical association, unanimously ask the voters of Alameda county to vote in favor thereof.

Medical Men Ask People to Vote for Bonds

COGNIZANT of the county's urgent need for an adequate hospital, the Alameda County eMdical Society has unanimously passed a resolution asking citizens to vote in favor of the $1,800,000 bond issue to provide for the immediate completion of the Highland Hospital. The issue will be placed before the public at the general election on May 6.

The society, composed of the medical profession — men and women who should know the county's requirements in this respect far better than all others—declared in its resolutions that the county for many years in the past has been without sufficient hospital accommodations, thereby greatly inconveniencing those who through necessity must come under the county's care, and also hazzarding their lives and recovery to health.

Members of the board of supervisors, the resolution points out, have been working for years to overcome this obstacle, and it is the duty of the people to see that it is surmounted.

JAPANESE FIGHTS STATE ALIEN ACT

A third attempt to break don the California Anti-Alien Land Act has been launched in Imperial county by Japanese according to State Attorney U S Webb. A Japanese in jail at El Centro for violation of the alien law has asked for a writ of habeas corpus to force his release.

The trial is set for May 2, when District Attorney Ernest R Utley of Imperial county, will have the assistance of a deputy attorney of California in fighting the case.

Two previous attempts to attack the constitutionality of the California anti-alien land act failed.

Five Days Are Left in Which To Pay Taxes

Four days remain in which to pay county taxes before an extra penalty of 5 per cent is attached, Edward T Planer, county tax collector, today warned tax payers. Monday is the last day upon which taxes can be paid.

To afford tax payers all possible opportunity to make payment before the delinquency period Planer today announced his office would remain open until 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon and until 6 o'clock Monday afternoon. He said that approximately $1,750,000 in taxes still remain unpaid.

SCORES SEND ENTRIES FOR BEAUTY RACE

Oakland Girls in Tribune's Contest Forward Photos for City's Representative at Santa Cruz Fete in June

Entries to The TRIBUNE'S "Miss Oakland Contest" began pouring in today, and prospects are that the judges, who will be named to select the city's most beautiful woman to be sent to the big "Beauty Week" carnival at Santa Cruz in June, will have their hands full in passing upon the winner.

Following the announcements in The TRIBUNE giving the rules and details of the contest, scores of Oakland girls who believe their charms superior to all others forwarded entry blanks and their photographs, thereby enrolling in the race.

The first young woman to enter was Burdeitta Lorene Leiter, of 6700 West street. Miss Leiter, apparently believing in the old adage, "the early bird catches the worm," lost no time in sending in her photograph and entry blank to the editor of the "Miss Oakland Contest," care of The Oakland TRIBUNE.

Her entry was closely followed by that of Sonny Henderson, 1532 Market street, and these two young women have the distinction of being the first two to enroll in the competitive beauty contest.

Among other entrants to the contest are Miss Betty Crawton, 6208 Outlook avenue, Miss Hazel Dolman, 1201 Market street, and Florence MacMillner, 3810 Ardley avenue.

Any Oakland woman who enters The TRIBUNE "Miss Oakland Contest" may have her photograph taken, for the purpose free of charge, by applying at the Fred Hartsook studio in either Oakland or Berkeley or at the J. A. Webster studio in Oakland. The Hartsook studios are at 405 Fourteenth street, Oakland, and 2275 Telegraph avenue, Berkeley. The Webster studio is at 1916 Broadway, Oakland.

The contest closes at midnight, May 29. The woman who at that time is considered by The TRIBUNE'S committee of judges as the most beautiful of those in the contest, will be sent, with all her expenses and those of her chaperon, fully paid, to Santa Cruz for the big "Beauty Week" carnival and festival to be held there June 5, 6, 7 and 8. She will be presented with a golden key to the city of Santa Cruz, and will be royally feted while in that city, and will compete with beauties from all parts of the state for the title of "Miss California," which is to be given the winner of the "Beauty Week" beauty contest and bathing girl revue.

HERE ARE RULES.

The rules and conditions of the contest follow:

Following are the rules and conditions of the contest:

1. Who is eligible? Any woman, single or married, 18 years of age or older, living within the corporate limits of Oakland, California, on Tuesday, April 15—the time of the original announcement of this contest—is eligible. (Except employees of The TRIBUNE or their families.)

2. Entry coupon should be filled out and sent in at once, so as to register contestant with the committee of judges.

TRY MAGNESIA FOR STOMACH TROUBLE

It Neutralizes Stomach Acidity, Prevents Food Fermentation, Sour Gassy Stomach and Acid Indigestion.

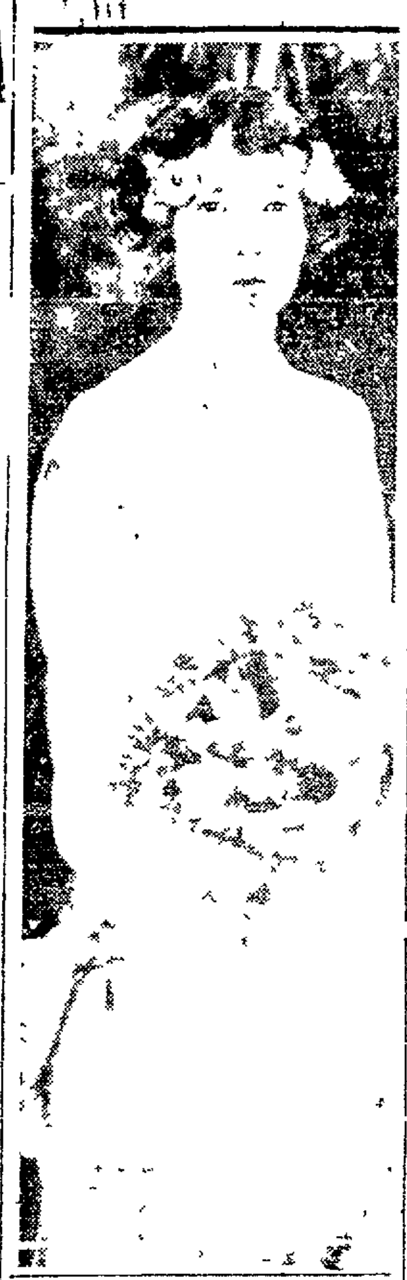

Doubtless if you are a sufferer from indigestion, you have already tried pepsin, charcoal, drugs and various digestive aids and you know these things will not cure your trouble—in some cases do not even give relief

But before giving up hope and deciding you are a chronic dyspeptic just try the effect of a little Bisurated Magnesia—not the ordinary commercial carbonate, citrate, or milk, but the pure Bisurated Magnesia which you can obtain from practically any druggist in either powdered or tablet form

Take a teaspoonful of the powder or three compressed tablets with a little water after your next meal, and see what a difference this makes It will instantly neutralize the dangerous harmful acid in the stomach which now causes your food to ferment and sour, making gas, wind flatulence, heartburn and the bloated or heavy, lumpy feeling that seems to follow most everything you eat

You will find that provided you take a little Bisurated Magnesia immediately after a meal you can eat almost anything and enjoy it without any danger of pain or discomfort to follow and moreover the continued use of the Bisurated Magnesia cannot injure the stomach in any way so long as there are any symptoms of acid indigestion —Advertisement

PETS WILL BE PASS FOR DAY AT SHRINE SHOW

Children of Various Institutions Will Also Be Given Treat.

Presentation of a pet at the door will constitute the magic pass word for free admission to the opening performance of the Shrine Frolic to be staged at the Auditorium for younger Oakland, according to announcements made yesterday by the Shrine Frolic committee The opening performance will take place Saturday afternoon May 3 and at that time every boy and girl who appears at the door with a pet will be admitted free It is explained that there are no limitations as to what shall represent a pet Dogs cats birds frogs tame mice tame ducks—anything that the youngsters consider as a pet will be recognized

And in addition to the children who obtain admission in this manner the children of all orphanages and the various charitable institutions will be entertained as the guests of the Shriners Automobiles will be provided to carry the little unfortunates to the Auditorium and arrangements are being made to provide them with fruit popcorn and candy.

"The Shrine Frolic this year will strike out along new lines" explained Blanks Everett, chairman of the entertainment committee We are going to stress the entertainment features and we are anxious to make the event as entertaining to the youngsters as it will be to the adults It was for the purpose of giving the boys and girls a good time that we arranged for the Saturday matinee The array of pets that are certain to be presented should in itself constitute a feature of rare amusement"

RAINS PROBABLE IN BAY DISTRICT

The San Joaquin Valley, the fringe of coast from Paso Robles southward and Southern California have received some moisture from yesterday's storm which today is central over Nevada and seems likely to cause rain in the southern third of the state tonight and tomorrow.

The forecast for the bay region is for partly cloudy and unsettled conditions, with the likelihood of rain in the San Joaquin Valley and Southern California. Fair weather should prevail in the Santa Clara and Sacramento valleys.

The heaviest showers early today fell at San Pedro, which reported an inch. Los Angeles had .08, Santa Barbara .30, San Luis Obispo 14, and Lindsey 12. There was a trace of rain at Stockton, Fresno and Bakersfield and all of these are expected to receive a greater precipitation during the day and night.

RAIN WELCOMED BY CATTLEMEN, ORCHARDISTS.

STOCKTON, April 23, — Rain that began falling about 8 a. m., and is continuing has become general throughout the Mother Lode, reports from various portions of the district indicate. The rain, quite heavy at first, has settled down to a steady "all day" precipitation that promises considerable quantity.

Cattlemen and orchardists throughout the territory declare the rain will be the salvation of their industries this year, assuring a good fruit crop and providing ample grass to feed the cattle until next winter.

Autoists, Here's Summary Of Road Ban Conditions

On account of the hoof and mouth epidemic and the consequent quarantines established by the county boards of health the motorist finds himself frequently in a quandary as to where to go for his week end excursion

In view of this fact the National Automobile club has installed a special service bureau to distribute information in regard to conditions in the quarantined areas of the state This bureau keeps in touch by wire with county officials as well as with the state department of agriculture and thus is able to offer an up-to-the-minute service to motorists Bulletins issued yesterday by L L Norris head of the touring bureau of the National Automobile club, were as follows

Kings County—Not under quarantine restriction is anticipated, None of the public roads have been closed to traffic A few private roads have been closed at the request of ranchers Dips for machines have been placed at various points along the highways Various restrictions have been placed on camping, hiking and picnicking The county is free from the hoof and mouth disease at the present time

Stanislaus County—This district is quarantined. Coulterville road, Crows Landing bridge, and a few side roads have been closed A few roads are open but restricted to business travel only No camping or fishing is permitted County authorities are trying to restrict all traffic to a minimum

Plumas County—There is no quarantine in this district and all roads are open to motor traffic.

Siskiyou County—This district under full provisional quarantine. No roads have been closed or restricted either for business or camping

Placer County—No roads have been closed to motor traffic Campers, hikers and picnickers are allowed to travel about the county with certain restrictions when they pass through quarantined districts

Tehama County—This district under quarantine with guards on all south roads Fields where stock are grazing are prohibited to hikers and campers Several of the trout streams have been closed to fishing

Merced County—Under full quarantine with guards on all south roads Fields where stock are grazing are prohibited to hikers and campers Several of the trout streams have been closed to fishing

Merced County—Under full quarantine All roads that cross the San Joaquin river, all roads to Snelling and Merced Falls as well as all highways leading into the hills are closed to the general public The main state highway through the county is open to motor travel

Tuolumne County—Provisional quarantine All roads in this district closed except main highway leading into and out of Calaveras Stanislaus and Mariposa

These roads are open only for business, and travel of campers, hikers and picnickers is not allowed.

San Joaquin—Close quarantine No roads have been closed but restrictions have been placed on campers and picnickers

Madera County—Close quarantine No roads have been closed but restrictions have been placed on campers and picnickers.

Madera County—Close quarantine Provisional Several roads have been closed to traffic and all roads are restricted to business travel except the state highway. All campers hikers and picnickers are barred on country roads over the week-end, and hill roads are barred to everyone without permits

San Diego County—Not under quarantine Precautionary embargoes in effect No main travel roads closed Camping and trespassing on private property forbidden

San Luis Obispo—Not under quarantine and will not be unless the disease breaks out within the county. No county highways are closed to traffic although restrictions have been placed on hikers, picnickers, salesmen, agents and peddlers No camping is permitted on the highways but motorists may stop at public or private camp grounds.

Contra Costa County—This district is under provisional quarantine and infected districts are under full quarantine Many roads have been closed and others are rapidly being restricted to urgent business All persons found breaking the quarantine regulations are being placed under arrest and fines of from five to fifty dollars are being imposed

Effective Treatment Seen in New Gland Discovery

Scientists of international prominence declare that the vital glands of young animals have remarkable power for renewing vitality, toning up the entire system and building up nerve force.

By a new discovery these glands are now scientifically prepared in convenient, compact tablet form for internal use. This preparation is known as Glandogen, prepared from the vital glands of healthy young animals.

People who have taken Glandogen only a few days have written letters telling of results that seem astonishing Glandogen can be procured in Oakland at Federal Drug Co, Federal Building, and 14th and Harrison In San Francisco at the No Percentage Drug Co, 953 Market street, Fillmore and Ellis, and Mission and 18th streets —Advertisement

How I Regained Strength to do My Work

MRS C M. MARUKO
221 CENTRAL PARK ROCHESTER, N Y

GIRLS work in mills, offices, factories, stores and kitchens all over this land, often far beyond their strength.

Frequently such a girl is the only bread winner of the family, and she must toil on, even though her back aches, she throbs with pain, has headaches, dizzy spells, is all dragged out and utterly unfit for work.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound builds health and strength for such women, as is evidenced by the many grateful letters which are received, attesting to the value of this old fashioned root and herb medicine.

How This Young Woman Got Relief

ROCHESTER N Y—"I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weakness and a displacement. This troubled me a lot when I walked and when I was sitting down and I had to stay away from work a great deal. It made me weak and nervous too. I learned about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound from one of your booklets and read about how it had helped so many. It has done so much for me I now recommend it to others. I am able to work in the factory now and can walk back and forth to work and enjoy it. I am very glad to have you use these facts as a testimonial"—Mrs. C. M. MARUKO, 221 Central Park, Rochester, N. Y.

Another Woman's Experience

LUDINGTON MICH—"I suffered every month and was very irregular, had headaches all the time, was thin and pale, with no appetite I had taken all kinds of medicines and every doctor told me I would have to face an operation before I would be well again. I was only a working-girl, doing factory work, and I had to stay at home so much that I was getting rather discouraged. My mother advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I did so with good results. I am now feeling fine. I have started to be more regular and gaining in strength and weight also I have advised all my girl friends to take your wonderful medicine."—Mrs THERESSA MCDOLE, 426 S. ONE-MAN CARS REMOVED, MAYOR TELLS COUNCIL

City Executive Sees Proof of His Position in Action of Company.

Mayor Davie today informed the city council that, effective April 21, the Key System Transit Company discontinued the operation of one-man cars on Telegraph avenue between Alcatraz avenue and Seventh and Broadway.

The mayor asserts that he was opposed to force to compel the company to stop running these one man cars, and says: "I believe that the action of the company in taking these cars off shows the wisdom of my policy." The mayor continued, in part:

"By discontinuing the operation of one-man cars in the downtown district the company acknowledges the justice of the city's opposition. To my mind it indicates the realization on the part of the Key System officials that they can no longer defy public opinion, and the duly constituted authorities of the city of Oakland.

"At no time since their announced defiance of this ordinance have I considered them to be within the law, and every application which they have made to the council I have considered as coming from an organization that had no standing and could not come before this body with clean hands. I believe that the present action of the company proves my contentions, and it is a pleasure to me to report to you that one-man cars have been taken off the downtown streets of our city."

The communication was filed by the council.

An ordinance levying a $7.50 quarterly tax on all gasoline curb-pumps was passed to print by the council. The regular filling stations have been taxed but curb-pumps have not been.

The council also levied a blanket $7.50 quarterly tax on all parking stations, instead of the various different smaller taxes hitherto imposed by the city upon such stations.

Born, on Island in Lake Merritt, 15 Native-Son Ducks

The Board of Park Directors begs to announce the arrival of two batches of young ducks on Lake Merritt, 15 in all, with many dozen more presumably on the way, inaugurating a great future flock of Oakland native-son ducks which, no matter how far they mad travel, will always return to the city of their birth. The hatching season on Lake Merritt is said to be the biggest affair o fthe kind yet observed here.

Part of the success of the hatching season this year is attributed to the planting of Duck Island, where trees, brush, shrubs and tule were recently set out to give convoys and nests for the feathered guests of Oakland. In a few weeks the greenery will be almost full grown except for the trees. A water pipe from the mainland, is insuring plenty of moisture for the plants.

Every Sneeze Has a Meaning

When you begin to sneeze, look out! It's a sign that you've caught cold—not just "catching" it. Right then is the time to get busy, if you want to conquer the cold easily, quickly and completely.

Go to any reliable druggist and ask for a tube or jar of "Deo," the genuine Dennis' Eucalyptus Ointment. Heat a spoonful in a tin plate—or use the special Vaporizer—and fill your lungs with the healing vapor. This will quickly clear your head and begin at once to destroy germs which have attacked the mucous membrane. Repeat the treatment night and morning until fully relieved.

Better Wives and Mothers

The emancipation of women as evidenced by the evolution in dress from steel stays that made a twenty-inch waist and the long street sweeping skirts to the sports clothes of the present day has certainly had its effect upon the health of women. With proper attention to diet and exercise a race of better wives and mothers is assured by it. If, however, ailments develop as evidenced by irregularities, backache, headaches, nervousness and irritability, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound may be depended upon to overcome them. Thousands of women testify to its success.—Advertisement.

Vénireman Draws Day in Jail on Contempt Charge

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—Superior Judge Louis Ward today sent a member of his jury panel to jail for 24 hours for contempt of court.

Harry J. Brock, realty broker of 2555 Bush street, failed to appear yesterday at 10 o'clock as required by all members of the panel. An attachment was issued for him and today he was on hand. Asked as to the reason for his absence he declared that he had had "other business" and that he had to open his real estate office in the Park Side district.

"I have excused you several times before on that account," said Judge Ward. "You could have communicated with the court if you had had urgent business and I would have excused you. It happens, however, that I take the street car every morning on the same corner where your real estate office is located and until lately I have seldom seen it open at all. I hereby find you guilty of contempt of court and sentence you to 24 hours in the county jail."

GOVERUOR GUEST AT BAR GANQUET

Governor Friend W. Richardson, William Thomas and Maurice E. Harris, will be the speakers at a banquet held in honor of the new judges of the state and federal courts by the San Francisco Bar Association at the Hotel St. Francis this evening.

The guests of honor will be: Judge Frank H. Kerrigan of the United States district court; Chief Justice Louis W. Meyers; Associate Justices John E. Richards and John W. Shenk; and Justice Benjamin K. Knight of the appellate court.

Beverly L. Hodghead, president of the association, will preside. The law department of Stanfrod University will also be a guest at the banquet.

DIMOND SEEKING THROUGH SERVICE

A through service over the Key System from the Mimond district of East Oakland to San Francisco, at the regular fare of 18 cents, is requested by residents in that neighborhood in a petition signed at a meeting held in Dimond hall last night. The Dimond Progressive club is sponsoring the petition.

Ben Allen, representing the Key System, told the Dimond residents that the company would take steps toward improving the service as soon as the engineers have completed a survey now under way.

City Attorney Leon Gray stated that the city has already taken action to permit double tracks on Fruitvale avenue, where Hopkins street cars now operate on a single track.

W. E. Gibson, president of the Dimond Progressive club, pointed out that the Dimond region is the fastest growing section of residential Oakland, and is in urgent need of adequate transportation facilities.

Runaway Atlanta Boy Found in S. F.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22.—Fourteen-year-old William Chupp of Atlanta, Ga., who came all the way here from his home in the South, is being detained as a guest in the home of Policeman George Gelman, 1120 Balboa street, preparatory to being sent home to his parents. The officer saw the youngster on 's arrival here Monday and on questioning him learned that he had set out afoot on the trail of adventure. He rode "blind baggage" and by auto part of the way and hiked the rest of the distance. It took him 60 days to complete the trip. His father, J. B. Chupp, 77 Windsor street, Atlanta, has been communicated with and the young adventurer is to have an opportunity of riding home "on the cushions."

Los Angeles Dollars Will Finance Its Construction

Oakland's money has not been available for Oakland's Progress

That's why the Athens Athletic Club had to seek Los Angeles dollars to finance its new building.

The Oakland Mortgage and Finance Company was formed to meet this situation.

Two shares of 8% preferred stock and one share of common in this company cost you $25.

Your money then becomes immediately available for financing building and real estate enterprises.

It is put out in first mortgages, first mortgage loans, deeds of trust and real estate contracts.

We have more applications for loans now than we can fill.

Eastbay Stanford men will gather at a smoker in the Oakland Press Club, Seventeenth street and Telegraph avenue, tomorrow evening to celebrate the approaching track meet between the boys still here on "The Farm" and their traditional rivals at Berkeley.

Once again, according to "Dick" Grant, chairman of the committee of arrangements, they will "join the rollicking chorus," and will tread again, in memory, the famous "road to Menlo."

"A real old ten per cent Stanford brawl," said Grant, "is what is planned for the occasion. This, as every one knows, is the quaint Stanford expression for a nice, [illegible]

The "brawl," according to Grant, Harold D. Weber, Dr. Sam R. Downing, Joseph J. Rosborough, and others who have been active in planning the affair, has been accumulating potential strength with each Cardinal track victory of the past few weeks, until now, with next Saturday's outlook as favorable as it is, the affair is as certain of reaching the old-time degree of enthusiasm as though "Dad" Moulton himself were to be there in person with his "boys" and his funny stories.

The evening's festivity will begin at 7 o'clock with a dinner.

WHATS HAPPENING IN THE AUTO WORLD

BY B.J. ROSENTHAL

There was a stir and bustle around the Star factory last week. Dealers thronged the halls of the service department, eagerly awaiting the distribution of the new Star four-wheel brake models.

For months this advance in Star car construction has been known to the executives and staff of the Star factory, but so carefully has the secret been guarded that even the dealers themselves had but a sight knowledge of what was really in store for the public until the early part of last week.

A "sneak-away" of unusual proportions was formed and amidst cheers and expressions of good will and success, the dealers and their helpers manned the wheels and formed a unique procession down East Fourteenth street. Horns were sounded at frequent intervals and the attention of the public was obtained, and altogether it was one of the most unusual sights that has greeted the gaze of the residents of the Fruitvale district for many a day.

Speaking of the four-wheel brake as an advance step in light car construction, Jerry Collier of Collier & Brooker, distributors for Alameda county, said: "Light cars have always required four-wheel brakes. It is a fact that the ratio of brake surface per pound of car has been very small in automobiles of the Star class. Because low cost of construction has been necessary in this type of car, the addition of front wheel brakes—due to their extra cost—has not been thought possible up to now.

"Many forms of front wheel brakes have been presented to Star engineers in the past two years, but it was left for them to perfect what is considered the best type—the locomotive shoe type brake.

"The Star four-wheel brake is constructed on the principle of a shoe brake, similar to that found on the modern locomotive, where curved steel shoes are applied to the braking surface by air pressure, bringing the huge engine to a stop without jar or jerk.

"The difference between the brake band type of brakes and the shoe type is that the brake bands in the drum of the average car are made in the form of a circle, whereas the shoe brake type is mounted on two arms of a fork which squeeze them together with the brake drum in between. Not only can greater pressure be applied, but this pressure is applied on but a quarter of the drum surface, leaving the rest of the drum surface exposed and with a larger expanse of cooling surface.

"Thus we do away with all heating and burning, and consequently economy of brake relining which is necessary on the brake band type."

Governor Commutes Lodi Man's Sentence

LODI, April 23.—Sentence of Herbert W. Reed, former music teacher of this city, has been commuted by Governor Friend W. Richardson to 10 years. This action was taken on recommendation of the judge who sentenced Reed and the district attorney who prosecuted him. Reed was accused on a statutory charge, on which he was convicted in Stockton in March, 1921.

LEGIONNAIRES AT S. L. TO GIVE HOP

SAN LEANDRO, April 23.—A Post-Easter dance for the benefit of the building fund of the American Legion unit here will be held on Saturday evening at the St. Joseph's hall under the auspices of the organization. Paul Brannon, chairman of the dance committee, states that cards of announcement have been sent out to residents of San Leandro. This will be the last dance of the season and it is expected that a large crowd will be present.

Squeezing and pinching out blackheads make the pores large and cause irritation. Blackheads are caused by accumulations of dust and dirt and secretions from the skin and there is only one safe and sure way, and that never fails to get rid of them—a simple way, too—that is to dissolve them. Just get from any drug store about two ounces of calonite powder—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet cloth—rub over the blackheads briskly for a few seconds—wash off, and you'll be surprised to see that every blackhead has disappeared, and the skin will be left soft and the pores in their natural condition.—Advertisement

CURTAIN CALLS
By WOOD SOANES

PATRIOTIC playgoers now have the permission of this department to breathe an audible sigh of relief.

The acting situation is well in hand. At least J. D. Lethbride finds it so and hastens to announce himself.

Lethbride, let it be known, is one of Great Britain's most important dramatic critics, a sort of minor Sir Oracle to a host of cash customers in the British Isles.

He came over here quite recently on a holiday. He intended to see all of the sights, but like the street car conductor who spent his day off riding on another fellow's car, Lethbride has spent most of his time in the New York theaters.

TWENTY SEASONS AGO TODAY
"The Two Schools" is at the Alcazar, with "Collinette" coming.

And therein lies the cream of the jest, for Lethbride came laboring under the belief that when Mrs. Fiske, Otis Skinner, Blanche Bates, Henry Miller, Robert Mantell and the others of the stellar group on whose shoulders the mantle of Thespis now rests pass away our native stage shall wither and die for want of suitable mantle bearers.

But after viewing the situation impartially Lethbride has arrived at the conclusion that there are plenty of torchbearers, that we are rich in acting material and that the day, in fact, is not at all lost. On the contrary he has hopes for many excellent things from the young American actor. In other words, Lethbride is all cheered up.

British Critic Pleased With American Actors

"You are rich in material," he declares. "I have not seen the plays now being presented on the stages of Chicago, Boston, Philadelphia, Washington, San Francisco and your Atlantic City, but if I may judge by the New York stage you have plenty of youngsters oozing with talent who must soon take a high place in your theatrical firmament.

"In fact I have not visited a single play on Broadway from which I have not been able to satisfy myself of the talent of some youngster whose name does not appear in big type, but whose work stands forth conspicuously for effectiveness. Miss Cornell in 'The Outsider' is one of them. Here is a vital personality who must make her mark.

FORTY SEASONS AGO TODAY
Henry Irving is in repertoire at Haverly's in Chicago.

"Miriam Doyle in 'The Goose Hangs High' no less than Eric Dressler in the same play, gives an excellent performance, and Mary Carroll in 'The Potters' is a personality which cannot be swamped by the class of role she plays. She cannot fool her audience. They know she has real and rare intelligence, however much she seeks to conceal it under the guise of 'bonehead.'

"One of the best young actresses I have seen is Helen Menken in 'Seventh Heaven.' In that very clever play 'Beggar on Horseback' I was particularly impressed by the repressed effectiveness of Kay Johnson and Florence Rittenhouse whose dual performance in 'The Shame Woman' is a most remarkable bit of transformation.

"Winifred Lenihan and Morgan Farley are two most promising players. One of my pleasantest recollections is that of Carroll McComas in 'Cyrano de Bergerac' and Margola Gillmore in 'Outward Bound,' and I dare say if I proceed further, and I certainly intend to, I might find others equally as promising in the casts."

EXITS AND ENTRANCES

Quinn Martin, whose reports on the New York pictures frequently illumine our theater pages, has sold a scenario, "The Little Cat," to Universal.

Rex Cherryman will leave the Fulton management at the termination of his contract, which comes next week to go under the aegis of Thomas Wilkes, who will use him at the Alcazar for a moment and then transfer him to the cast of "Topsy and Eva" due in New York in September. Cherryman has been having his voice trained in anticipation of the musical comedy engagement.

Clyde Fillmore also leaves that week to go to New York.

The Century theater closes on Saturday next so Hubert Harris says. The management has as yet made no plans for the future of the theater.

"Expressing Willie" Hits a Bulls-Eye

Equity Players Have Winner in Rachel Crothers' New Satirical Comedy.

By HEYWOOD BROUN.

NEW YORK, April 23.—A favorite query up and down the town these many months has been, "What's the matter with the Equity Players, Inc.?" The answer at the moment of going to press should be a tumultuous shout of "They're all right!"

"Expressing Willie" was presented on the stage of the 48th Street theater last night, and it seems to me one of the best plays of the year and among the most skilful of all American comedies. It is neither expedient nor easy, nor even sensible to be free with "best," "second best" and "third best." It should be quite enough to say that "Expressing Willie" is a good play.

But the achievement of Equity Players, Inc., goes beyond giving stage room to a shrewd and delightful entertainment. A cast of exceedingly happy fitness has been gathered for the performance and the piece is just a little better directed than anything else in town and we have not forgotten "The Show-off" either.

"Expressing Willie" was written by Rachel Crothers, and it was Miss Crothers who directed the play. This ought to be enough to assure her of an ample supply of laurel over a long, hard summer.

Since I cannot rid myself of a deep sensitivity to the substance of a play as well as its form I must add that one of the reasons why I like this comedy resides in the fact that I think it has a wholly civilized attitude toward life. We have a play dealing with the articulates, though not necessarily the younger ones of the present generation, but for the first time this season the theme is handled with understanding.

Miss Crothers realizes that satire does not mean knocking a person down and digging your heels in his face. She manages to spoof "self-expression" and still leave the partisans of that school of thought a good deal less than damn fools.

The story tells of Minnie from the Middle West, who comes to visit at Willie's house. Years before they almost got married, but by now Willie is a millionaire and Minnie is a music teacher. He hardly cares to introduce her to his brilliant and decorative friends, but when a gusty artist talks to her of self expression Minnie goes right up to the piano and plays in a way to astound them all. In the end it is Minnie who quite cuts out Mrs. Sylvester, the show piece of the whole party, and marries Willie.

A Battery of Smiles

S. P. Talent to Give 'Sho-Gun of Kachoo'

"Sho-Gun of Kachoo", George Ade's comic opera is to be given a public production by the Southern Pacific Musical Association in the Tivoli theater, San Francisco, April 25 and 26.

With a cast of 150 people and a large chorus, a host of singers and dancers a hundred pretty girls and a fifty-piece orchestra, made up entirely of Southern Pacific employees of Oakland and San Francisco, the show is expected to be one of the most colorful events ever staged in San Francisco, by local talent.

The principals of the comedy will be Jaunita Clifford, Elsie Beckert, Helen Saunders, Mary Oyster, of San Francisco, and Frieda Freund, Walter Fell, Tom Bissendine, Stanford Balzer, Betty Bernardi, Elmer Ault, Albert Liotta and George Osborne of Oakland.

The theme of the play is woven around the comical antics of a Yankee salesman on the mythical island of "Kachoo" off the coast of Japan.

The interest on the money owed the United States by Europe amounts to more than a billion dollars annually.

"Flashes of Action" Gives Vivid Picture of Soldier On West Front.

Shell torn walls, sand bag fortifications, field guns and Red Cross nurses in uniform combine to revive memories of the World War days at the Fox Oakland theatre this week where the Veterans of Foreign Wars are presenting "Flashes of Action," the official government films showing actual front line action in the world war.

Arrangements for the presentation of the picture were made with the War Department as part of a nation wide move of the veteran organizations to establish a national orphans' home.

In conjunction with the picture the local theatre has been transformed in its outward aspects into a replica of a shell torn village of France. House attaches are garbed as soldiers and as nurses to further carry out the idea. The co-operation of the Ninth Corps Area has been extended in sending to Oakland a detachment from Battery A of the Signal Corps from Ft. Scott with a 20 mile range search-light and its generator. The huge light is operated every night from in front of the theatre.

CALIFORNIA FACES STIFF TEST IN ANNUAL DUAL TRACK MEET WITH CARDS ON SATURDAY

STANFORD DUE FOR SUCCESSFUL SEASON TO REGAIN LAURELS

Pendulum Once More Swings Back in Favor of Cardinal in Track; Management Has Arranged All Details For Handling Meet Saturday.

By DOUG. MONTELL.

While there has been more or less rejoicing on the part of the general public over the wave of athletic depression which appears to have brought California down to within striking distance of the average college athletic teams this season, it does not necessarily follow that the Golden Bear is through.

Riding on the crest of the wave for a period of four years of unchecked victories in practically every branch of athletic competition with Stanford, it was in the cards that sooner or later Stanford would again come forth as a real contender. It was threatened slightly in football, more so in basketball, still more so in the present baseball season and track, capping the climax of the year's sport schedue, finds the Cardinal apparently due to displace the Blue and Gold for western collegiate supremacy.

Prospects for the immediate future are all in Stanford's favor in the matter of track, for not only is Stanford a top-heavy favorite in the dope to win the 1924 classic from California but the victory of the Stanford freshman team over the Bear Cubs indicates that for the next four years Stanford will carry a threat which only another era of "wonder athletes" at Berkeley can overcome.

Memories of Seven Successive Defeats.

Memories of the seven consecutive years of Stanford victories in track flash back to mind as the day of the Big Meet draws near—days when a Cardinal victory was almost a foregone conclusion, although history shows how bitterly contested many of those contests were.

But through it all Walter Christie, quiet, patient, undisturbed by the succession of Stanford victories, worked silently with the material afforded him and at last found patience rewarded.

California's failure to present a stronger team in track this year can, in no way, be said to be the fault of the California coach who has worked wonders with the material available.

It is simply one of those years in which only a scant nucleus of veterans was available to start with and it was the pleasure of the fate to will it that Stanford's leading athletes should slightly excel in the events in which the veteran Californians hold forth.

The pendulum of time has once more swung back to the Stanford side of the field in the matter of middle distance and distance athletes, giving Stanford almost unquestioned supremacy in everything on the cinderpath from the 440 up through the two mile.

In only five events can there be said to be room for argument on the track. The two dash events, finding Barber of California and Hale of Stanford on even terms as to best performances in the century and Barber and Ian Campbell almost even in the 220, are in the doubtful column.

The hurdles, both high and low, should be among the best races of the day with "Swede" Leisnter due to toe the mark a favorite over Becker but with prospects of the two events furnishing the best competition of the year.

The relay can always be said to be a doubtful event, as was demonstrated last Saturday when California, after failing to place in the 440, earned the plaudits of the multitude by winning in their fastest time of the year.

Plans Are Made For Next Saturday.

Graduate Manager Paul Davis is making plans for the accommodation of no less than 20,000 at the Stanford oval Saturday and judging by the advance sale of tickets off the Stanford campus there is good reason to believe that there will be nearer 25,000 in attendance when the starters gun sends the milers on their way.

Arrangements have been completed to take care of every detail in handling the meet itself. From the erection of the new scoreboards to the installation of the telephone announcing system, everything will be up to the minute.

In the past track meets have been the most difficult of all athletic events to watch with any sense of enjoyment. In the first place the field events, particularly those long drawn out contests, the high jump and polevault, where the athletes take the best part of the afternoon to end the affair, have prevented the holding of the concluding events.

Assurance has been given that complete details will be announced during the holding of the field events as to the distances made in the jumps and weights, for interest will undoubtedly enter on the shot and discus events, where there is strong possibility of world records being established.

Leading Sluggers of Stanford Nine

Facing California in the final game of the annual Stanford-California series next Saturday at Stanford, Coach Harry Wolter is looking for his tossers to repeat their victory of last week over the Bears.

Among the leading sluggers of the Cardinal squad are CAPTAIN "BUD" WOODWARD, star first sacker (left) and "BUS" McCANDLESS, hard hitting outfielder (right).

Yesterday's Doings on the Diamonds

Empire Bill Guthrie, back in the Coast League after several years' absence, made the Angels understand yesterday afternoon that he will not stand for any rough stuff. In the fifth inning, Manager Krug of the Angels crabbed about a perfect strike called on Twombly. Guthrie ordered him off the coaching line, but he crabbed more than ever, so he was ordered to the clubhouse. Twombly was retired, and while Clyde Beck was at bat, the Angels on the bench called names at Guthrie and the big fellow walked over to the bench and chased ten of them to the clubhouse. Only six men besides those in the game were allowed to remain.

Mike H. Sexton, head of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, and Harry A. Williams, president of the Coast League, sat in a box with Cal Ewing. Sexton and Williams were honored guests at a luncheon being given today at the Hotel Oakland by the Lions Club in honor of Cal Ewing. The Oakland and Angel players were also present.

Little Chief Is Coming to Tanforan Meet

Crack Gallopers Will Be on Hand for Opening May Third.

Little Chief, whose victory in the Au Revoir Handicap at Tijuana brought racing to a close at the border track last Sunday will positively come to Tanforan for the spring meeting according to John D. Stelling, general manager of the Pacific Coast Jockey club. This morning, Stelling said he had received word from San Diego to the effect that the L. P. Humphreys' star distance performer would be on hand to keep his Tanforan engagements, thereby setting at rest rumors to the effect that Little Chief would be shipped elsewhere.

Local patrons of the racing game will be anxious to see Little Chief and A. B. Spreckels' Runstar hook up in the Tanforan stake events to which they are eligible and entered. The former, to whom weight and distance seems to cut so little figure, is at the top of his racing form as was evidenced in his victory last Sunday. A week before, he romped away with the Tijuana cup at two miles, packing top weight in both events. In all, he captured six valuable stakes at Tijuana.

Pressing both Runstar and Little Chief in the Tanforan stake events will be Archibald Johnson's Spread Eagle. This one developed stake horse qualities at the border track, where he ranked with Osprey, Great Luck and Bear Shot as one of the most consistent winners. He gathered seven sets of winning brackets for himself.

Thoroughbreds at present on their way from Tijuana to Tanforan total 190 according to information given out at the jockey club. As soon as the cars are unloaded at San Bruno, they will be returned south for the rest of the horses due to perform at Tanforan. Tanforan opens Saturday, May 3.

Fremont High Beats Lowell On the Track

In one of the closest high school track meets ever held here Fremont High yesterday defeated [illegible] the local field. The winners got four first places against seven for the losers, but the Fremont boys won plenty of seconds and thirds. The summary:

Relay—Won by Lowell (Fest, Carr, Berry and Ewing).

Pole vault—Won by Stilson (L.); Foster (F.) and Coolluc (F.), tied for third. Height, 10 ft. 8 in.

Officials Have Power to Stop Trout Fishing

"Good Sportsmen" Will Not Attempt to Break Regulations.

"During such time as the county of Alameda is under close quarantine for the hoof and mouth disease, every person who, within the county of Alameda, trespasses upon any real property within 50 feet of any running stream or body of fresh water, or walks in, or wades in, or loiters along the banks of any stream or body of fresh water, is guilty of a misdemeanor."

With these words the board of supervisors at their meeting on Monday of this week "indefinitely postponed" the opening of the fishing season in Alameda county. The ordinance as drawn, the above being that portion of the law which defines what one cannot do, does not allow for a one-day open season in the county, as was first announced. On the other hand, it is a rigid closing of the season.

HAS POLICE POWERS.

That this has been accomplished in a round-about way does not alter the fact. While the board did not say in so many words that the opening of the season has been "postponed," the ordinance in question is sufficiently broad to accomplish that purpose.

The board had no power to alter the State Fish and Game law enacted by the legislature. This was found by Chief Deputy District Attorney Ralph Hoyt, into whose hands the matter of drawing the ordinance was placed. A constitutional provision acted as a bar to this. But Hoyt did find that there are police regulatory powers latent in county and city law-making bodies which can be invoked in public emergencies. This was the course pursued and this is what the ordinance does.

EMERGENCY EXISTS.

The fact of the emergency existing is set up in that section of the ordinance which reads that the ordinance is

"for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and is an urgency ordinance, for the reason that the hoof and mouth disease is prevalent and would be spread by persons trespassing near streams and bodies of water and wading or walking in same."

The ordinance has its teeth, without which no law would be availing. It provides for a fine of not less than $10, nor more than $500 and a jail sentence of not less than 10 days nor more than six months.

In commenting on the need for the law, Hoyt said today:

SITUATION SERIOUS.

There can be no question of the seriousness of the situation regarding the hoof and mouth disease. If we only had one case in the county it would be serious. It is time for all of us to forget our own wishes and desires and be 'good sportsmen' for the sake of California. This does not affect the stock and dairymen only, but it effects every man, woman and child in the State, and we should all do our part to help stamp it out, even if that "part" is only to give up fishing for the present season in Alameda county.

WILL MEET SUISUN.

VALLEJO, April 23.—Vallejo high will meet Suisun high at Suisun on Friday in the opening game of the S. C. A. league. Benicia and Rio Vista are also to play this week at Benicia.

Adams Helps Oaks Defeat Krug's Angels

His Single Scores Run That Ties Score and Durst's Boot Ends Game.

The Oaks scored a 5 to 4 win over the Angels in the opening game of their series at the local park yesterday afternoon. Spencer Adams' timely single with George Steward on second scored the tieing run and when Durst, Angel center fielder, booted the ball Pete Read scored from first base with the winning run. Walter Malls gets credit for the win as he went into the box in the eighth after Murchio retired in favor of a pinch-hitter.

Seibold for the Oaks and O'Neal for the Angels were the pitchers when the game started. Read, Adams, Brubaker, Cather and Guisto bunched five hits in the third inning to give Seibold a three-run lead. The Oakland pitcher showed good stuff in the first few innings, but in the fifth he went all to pieces and he was allowed to stay on the hill while the Angels turned two doubles, two singles and two wild pitches into four runs and take the lead.

Murchio took the box in the sixth and twirled fair ball, but it looked like the Oaks were defeated as O'Neal twirled fine ball, allowing one hit from the third until the ninth. Then came the break. LaFayette drew a walk and was forced at second by George Steward, who took Maderas' place at third after the latter gave way to Leptich, a pinch-hitter. Read was safe on Beck's boot and Baker, batting for Malls, skied out. Adams, who took part in the early rally, had two strikes on him when he drove a fast hit through short. It scored Steward and then Durst let the ball get away from him, Read trotting in with the winning run.

YOU CAN'T SHAKE HANDS WITH HOPPE

Friendly Greetings Nearly Spoil Champion's Game.

Willie Hoppe, champion of the world at 18.2 balkline billiards, like the late Col. Theodore Roosevelt and the Prince of Wales, has discovered that popularity and greatness have their penalties.

Some time ago the cue wizard suffered from a slightly strained ligament in the right shoulder which made it difficult for him to execute masse shots in the international tournament a year ago

After the tournament, Hoppe started on a tour of the Middle West giving exhibitions of his skill in the principal cities. Everywhere he went he was met by hundreds of billiard enthusiasts who wanted to shake hands and congratulate him on rescuing the world's championship from Jake Schaefer's pretensions in March. Hoppe was in St. Louis when he noticed a return of his old trouble. He wrote a casual letter to R. B. Benjamin, his manager. The latter didn't wait to pack a grip but jumped aboard the first train to St. Louis. There he discovered that Hoppe had been shaking hands from three to four hundred times every day. Benjamin stopped it immediately and put Hoppe in the hands of a doctor and an expert masseur who soon cleared up the trouble. Since then no one has been allowed to shake the champion's hand.

Hoppe's arm has at various times been insured by Lloyds of London for $100,000.

SARAZEN'S GRIP.

Champion Explains Why He Uses Interlocking.

Last winter when Gene Sarazen, America's open and professional golf champion, was touring the Coast, a few critics took it upon themselves to lay his streak of poor playing at the outset of the tour to his use of the interlocking grip.

Grips are a matter of interest to golf enthusiasts at all times. Here in substance is the champion's reply to the critics' attack: "I have never declared that the interlocking grip was the best grip in golf. I do insist, on the other hand, that it is as good as any other and as far as I am concerned, personally, it is one of the most powerful grips I know of. I think that the theory of the interlocking grip has been proven as practical as any by my record this past year. It is a natural grip for me and it is one which old and young can use alike. The fact that some players have found it impractical by no means proves it incorrect. I would like to be shown wherein it is wrong. Also, if my critics can prove that the overlapping grip is better than the interlocking, I would most certainly like to have them."

GOLF AND EVOLUTION.

$500 More a Year If You Play the Game.

In this age of arch supports, pyorrhea and bald heads those thoughtful people who keep an eye on the future of the race continually bemoan the fact that civilization with its quick lunches and subway jams is gradually eliminating man from the earth.

A remedy for this disintegration is on the horizon, Golf!

First it was a Scotsman's game, then it seeped into America as an old man's game, later working down the scale of years until the colleges took it up and made it a 'varsity sport.

Now it has crept into business and become an investment!

W. A. Alexander, of Chicago, a pioneer of the ancient and honourable game in America, says that an employee who golfs is worth $500 more a year to his concern.

He advocates that employers share the expense of teaching the game to their entire working staffs.

JACK REEVES AND RAY PELKEY BOX MAIN EVENT TONIGHT

McLARNIN WILL BOX JOCKEY LIGHTNER IN THE SPECIAL EVENT

Franal Ruffles Tackles Fred Sullivan in Heavyweight Feature; Joe Roche, Undefeated San Francisco Boy, Will Entertain Hank Roberts.

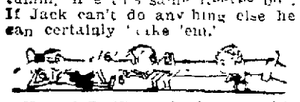

By BOB SHAND.

The sockers will have an inning at the Auditorium tonight when Ray Pelkey and Jack Reeves get together in the main event. There is nothing fancy nor scientific in the milling of these young men, but they are both game to the core and can wallop. These qualifications appeal more to local boxing customers than ability to side-step a punch or display flashy boxing ability. For those who like the clever stuff Jockey Lightner has been imported from Philadelphia to entertain Jimmy McLarnin, the Belfast biffer. McLarnin has been a sensation on account of his natural boxing ability. Lightner has never appeared here, but he comes well recommended. Frankie Farren, with whom he has been boxing in a San Francisco gymnasium, has been touting the jockey very highly.

Nothing scientific can be expected in the other contests but there should be some whole hearted dealing of leather with the chances of one or two of the young men stepping into a top-second crack on the chin.

Pelkey and Reeves boxed here a year ago last month, Reeves winning the decision after four willing rounds. Jack has had only a few bouts since that time while Pelkey has been boxing right along with at least two or three fights a month. The experience has done the boy a lot of good and he was never better than he is now. Reeves likes to peddle spuds and it takes a lot of coaxing to haul him off his wagon and get him into the ring. If Reeves took the boxing game more seriously and kept right at it he would get somewhere but he is generally slow and harmless after one of his long vacations. Kid Parker, manager of Pelkey expects Ray to cuele Reeves tonight a la Jimmy Duffy and either win the decision by a wide margin or score a K. O. Ray will be doing well if he wins the decision as there is nobody in local ring society who enjoys a punch on the chin or the tummy; like the same Reeves do. If Jack can't do any thing else he can certainly "take 'em."

Franal Ruffles who has won his last three bouts with clean knockouts will tackle Fred Sullivan tonight and if he applies the crusher to Sullivan the boys will have to admit that Franal has arrived. The big kid from Hanford was going well a few months ago until he got in the way of a pair of K. O. punches. Since his comback he has been bowling 'em over with great regularity. He looms up as one of the best hitters in the heavyweight division. Sullivan is a good fighter and will provide tough opposition for the Hanford Sunday school teacher.

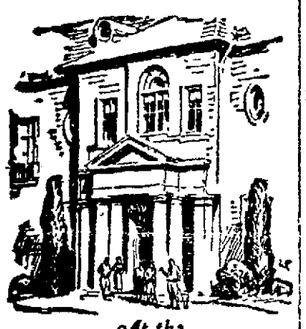

Joe Roche meets Hank Roberts in what should prove an interesting bout. Roche made a big hit last week when he defeated Frankie Thomas after the latter had him down and almost out in the first round. Roche has had about twenty bouts and has never been defeated.

GREENLEAF LOSES.

KANSAS CITY, April 23.—Benny Allen, Kansas City, took another step toward the world's pocket billiard championship here last night by defeating Ralph Greenleaf, titleholder, 125 to 114. The game ran 28 innings, Allen's high run was 26 and Greenleaf's 32.

A Promising Heavyweight

Here is FRANAL RUFFLES, the most promising young heavyweight in the four-round ranks and his mighty right hand with which he has been knocking out his opponents regularly. Franal is a Sunday school teacher in Hanford between fights. He meets Fred Sullivan at the Auditorium tonight.

Boxing Fans To Have New Parking Area

SERGEANT CHARLES HEMPHILL, in charge of the traffic bureau, announced this morning that a new parking area had been provided for the benefit of the boxing enthusiasts who attend the weekly shows at the Oakland Auditorium on Wednesday evenings.

The new parking space, which will accommodate at least 500 machines, is located to the left of the East entrance to the Auditorium. Those desiring to avail themselves of this space are advised to drive past the east entrance and then turn to the left, away from the building where accommodations under police supervision will be provided. Lights have been installed and the new system will be inaugurated tonight.

GOLF

The feature match of the first day's play of the northern California women's handicap golf tournament at the Burlingame Country club yesterday was furnished in the match in which Mrs. Trent Potter, Monday's medalist, defeated Mrs. Joe Mayo on the 19th hole.

The Del Monte golfer played an unusually brilliant game throughout and at times it appeared as though Mrs. Potter would suffer the same fate yesterday that befell her in the final round of last year's tournament.

Miss Alice Knowles of Claremont played a steady game to eliminate Mrs. W. G. Gilmour 2 and 1.

The two turned all square put over the "nt" holes the Claremont women's captain played her opponent off her feet and won on the 19th green.

Mrs. Max Rothchild, Mrs. Robert A. Roos, Mrs. W. C. Van Antwerp, Mrs. Frank Sheedy, Mrs. J. H. McClelland and Mrs. A. B. Swinerton were the other winners in the first flight yesterday.

The following players will represent Sequoyah and San Jose at Sequoyah next Sunday:

Cards Prepare For Two Meets After Bruins

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, April 23.—Following the termination of the Stanford-California track meet on April 26, the Stanford University track team expects to keep in training for at least three other contests during the spring. These will be the Far Western Relays, the P. A. A. championships, the Olympic tryouts and possibly the I. C. A. A. A. A. as a climax of the season.

The Far Western Relays will be held on the California oval at Berkeley at 1:30 on the afternoon of May 10. The events are divided into four classes: Class A includes a 440-yard relay, an 880-yard relay, two-mile relay and a four-mile relay. All Pacific Coast colleges entered in the relay meet must compete in this class though the events are also open to any other teams.

Class B events, which are not open to Pacific Coast colleges are the same as class A. Competition in class B does not debar competition in class A. The class C event is to be a one-mile club relay, which is scheduled, provided entries are received from the Los Angeles Athletic club, the Olympic club of San Francisco and Multnomah Athletic club of Portland.

Class D events are open to all college athletes. The events are: The hop, step and jump, 400-meter hurdles 56-pound weight, 110-meter hurdles and the 16-pound shot.

It is believed that this relay meet will fill a long-felt want in the west. The east has the Penn relays, the middle west the Drake relays, and it is hoped that the Western relays may prove enough of a success to be held annually.

On the Stanford oval on May 17 the P. A. A. will hold its annual meet, which will also serve as the Olympic games tryouts for Northern California, Nevada and Hawaii.

The I. C. A. A. A. A. will be held at Harvard on May 30 and 31. Stanford will send a team east to this meet provided the California meet is won by Stanford. There are probably twenty men on the varsity squad who are I. C. A. A. A. A. prospects, but neither the number or the names will be decided upon until after the showing on April 26.

Tilden Will Be Eligible For Davis Cup

Julian S. Myrick Declares That Champion Belongs on U. S. Team.

ST LOUIS, Mo., April 23.—William T. Tilden, II, of Philadelphia, telegraphed yesterday he would defend his title as national clay court tennis champion in the tournament here the week of July 7. He will play in the doubles with "Sandy" Weiner, Philadelphia, also entered in the singles.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Surprise that William T. Tilden, national tennis champion, had "any doubt whatsoever" as to his eligibility to play on America's Davis cup or Olympic teams, was expressed last night by Julian S. Myrick chairman of the Davis cup committee. Myrick made public his reply to Tilden's letter of resignation from the Davis cup and Olympic teams because he believed his status as an amateur had been questioned by the United States Lawn Tennis Association.

Myrick's letter in part follows:

"I was very much surprised to receive your letter of the 21st, in which you state that you desire to withdraw from the Olympic and Davis cup squads to relieve the association of embarrassment.

"Inasmuch as you have been invited to the recent meetings of the Davis cup committee and have been present at one of them, it is difficult for me to conceive your having any doubt whatsoever with regard to your eligibility, or any doubt as to the committee's view in this regard.

"You have been invited to play for your country as American champion and, as American champion it never crossed the minds of the committee that you would refuse or even hesitate to accept when called upon. You are eligible to reps sent this country in the contests mentioned."

Piedmont High Beats Hayward By 13-2 Score

The pitching of Vern Corbin for Piedmont was enough to defeat Hayward high school yesterday when the two ball teams clashed in their second game of the A. C. A. L. season. The final count was 13-2. Piedmont running wild on the bases due to thirteen errors by the farmers.

Hartranft May Set New Marks Next Saturday

Allan Charles May Not Be Able to Enter Two-Mile; Hale a Favorite.

By DAVID C. MUKLEJOHN.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, April 23.—Stanford faces the big meet on April 26 with a team in far better condition than in former seasons. Few injuries, and these of only a minor character, have been noticeable in the ranks of Coach "Dink" Templeton's aspiring champions.

The strongest runners after a hard workout during the last week, are in splendid shape to take their marks against the Bruin opponents, and only a light practice will be held during the remainder of this week.

"Tiny" Hartranft, 200-pound weight heaver, has been working industriously since the Conference meet in order to make up the half-inch by which he missed a world's record recently. Hartranft will be closely watched next Saturday.

He has an opportunity to set up two new records in the shot and discus. Stanford-California records are doomed to destruction before the heaves of the big blonde.

The world records in the shot and discus will be the most formidable, but those who saw Hartranft get so close within reaching distance in the Southern conference meet feel confident that the Card weight man will make more than a close bid for the international honors.

Should Hartranft break the world's record in the weight events he will automatically set two national intercollegiate records. At present he is holder of the American Intercollegiate record for the shot-put.

Up until the time of Allan Charles' injury, Bill Kerr, consistent Card mile runner, was doped to set a new Stanford-California record in the mile, but at present this is hardly probable. Kerr will be forced to enter the two mile run in order to balance the Stanford points in the distances now that Al Charles is on the injured list with a slim hope held out for complete recovery.

Due to Barber's failure to defeat the Illinois sprinter in the dual meet last Saturday, Marshall Hale, red-shirt sprinter is given the odds in the century over the Bruin flash. Hale has been running so consistently this season that Templeton deems it impossible for him to lose any of his speed in the California meet.

Nevertheless, a close race is expected, as both runners have broken the tape at :9 9-10 this season.

Stanford's weakest events will be the javelin and the broad-jump. Harlow has been unable to do better than 176 feet this season in competition, and Evers has done even less. Evers in practice has been showing up better than Harlow. Last Friday afternoon he took four throws, all over 180 feet.

McRae and Wright are the only dependable men for the broad-jump; their best distances are 22 feet 8¼ and 22 feet 6 inches respectively.

Hoof and Mouth Disease Affects Wrestling Match

SALINAS, April 23.—The wrestling profession of this neighborhood has been made to feel the effects of restrictions imposed by the hoof and mouth disease protective quarantine. Luigi Antognini and Dick Curley were scheduled to feature in a card at the Oriental theater tomorrow night, but the city council last night put on a ban, ordering the meet stopped, cancelling the police permit and revoking the license. Most of the wrestling fans hereabout are dairymen and dairy workers. The council's action was a keen disappointment to the promoters, who had gone to considerable expense billing the county and making other arrangements.

Smith Favors New Plan for U. C. Gridders

Change of Uniforms Between Halves To Be Adopted as Policy.

An innovation will mark play of University of California football warriors this year.

They're going to change suits between halves.

Andy Smith four-time producer of "wonder" teams at Berkeley and regarded as one of the front-rank gridiron coaches of America, conceived the new idea, and he believes the plan one important to the success of California.

TO FRESHEN TEAM.

Change from old suits between halves to fresh clothes will relieve each player of extra weight Smith believes. This extra weight is accounted for by sweat, gathered in the players' uniforms, especially in the padded portions.

"We will be changing suits between halves this fall, as I have definitely decided on the plan," Coach Smith told the writer the other day. "I think it will prove of great benefit, inasmuch as a man loses from eight to twelve pounds in a contest, principally through the pores of his skin; in other words, through perspiration. It follows that this perspiration is absorbed by the clothing of the player.

"Besides this, the new suits will give a man a fresher feeling. This elimination of extra weight carried in the clothing helps, and the clean, dry paraphernalia will tend to freshen up the players for the second half."

SMITH ENTHUSED.

Coach Smith is enthusiastic about the new plan and is adopting it at California only after considerable investigation. He believes it will be tried at other colleges also.

Smith, one of the most resourceful coaches in the history of football, has several other innovations, which he will introduce at Berkeley this fall.

Oakland Elks' Ball Team Will Visit Honolulu

The baseball team of Oakland Lodge No. 171, B. P. O. E. will make a trip to Honolulu next fall and play a number of exhibition games, according to an announcement made last night by Joe Beckman at a banquet given in honor of the team. The local team has a number of good independent games scheduled before going into the Elks league and Beckman urged his athletes to all keep on their toes hustling for victory, as a win in the league will mean a trip to Catalina Island and games in southern California, as well as the trip to Honolulu.

Exalted Ruler Frank Fletcher was an honored guest at the banquet and he promised his support to the team through the season. A number of interesting baseball stories were told by team members. Denny Wille, former Oak, who is playing with the team, told of his early experience as a professional player. The boys enjoyed many laughs.

Al LaCoste, who managed the team last season, was toastmaster and he did not let a single member of the team get away without saying a few words. The Elks have 21 players on their team and all but Captain Dr. Thomas Fitzsimmons were present. The captain sent word that his brother was very ill.

LaCoste announced that a series of dances will be held starting next month.

WITH THE HIGHSCHOOL ATHLETES

The annual A. C. A. L. swimming meet will be held at Neptune beach tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock. Alameda, Piedmont, Berkely and Hayward will enter teams.

Maxwell Barry is counted on from Alameda to get some points for Rittler's team and with the aid of his team mates should take first honors in the meet.

Piedmont has a one-man team in Gilbert Weeks, who has been traveling through the water at a pretty good clip in his practice dips.

Berkeley high lost a baseball game to St. Mary's preps at Berkeley yesterday. The score was 3-0 at the end of the fifth inning when the game was called on account of darkness. Wyatt hit a double with a man on in the fourth inning but his efforts were fruitless, as his team mates failed to produce a hit to bring in a run.

Teams.	W.	L.
Alameda	2	0
Piedmont	2	1
Berkeley	1	1
Hayward	0	3

The next games will be played Friday, when Piedmont and Berkeley battle at Berkeley and Hayward and Alameda meet at Lincoln Park.

Fremont High school defeated Oakland High in the first O. A. L. baseball game of the season at Bayview grounds yesterday afternoon in an exciting contest, 5-4. The acorns out-hit the green and gold team from the start but failed to make their bingles count. Each team scored three runs in the first inning due to errors.

Cruse, for the Oaks, allowed only five hits to the green and gold athletes but his teammates could not shove over the tying tally.

MUST BENCH OUTFIELDER.

Del Howard received word yesterday from the Detroit club to the effect that Goebel will join the Oaks at Los Angeles next Tuesday or Wednesday. The boys on the local team are trying to figure who will be benched to make room for the newcomer. As Claude Cooper is a cinch to remain in center field, Ted Cather or George LaFayette will be benched. Ted has not been fielding up to form and maybe he will be given a rest. LaFayette was not hitting the ball in the early games of the season but he seems to have his eye on it now.

STEWARD WILL PLAY.

George Steward, Fort McDowell youngster who has been sitting on the Oaks' bench, will get into the game today at third base, according to Del Howard. Al Maderas, regular third sacker hurt his shoulder last week when he slid into first base, and it has been bothering him ever since. Howard thinks that it has hurt his fielding and hitting, so he will be given a rest until he gets well. Steward looks like a good find and he may step in at third base and show lots of class.

TOUGH FOR KREMER.

Ray Kremer, former Oakland pitcher, came through with a 10 to 7 win for the Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday. His teammates gave him a ten-run lead in the first four innings, so he did not have much to worry about. Roger Hornsby, the St. Louis Card slugger, is the only one who gave him much trouble. He hit a pair of homers and made the score look good. Ray was entitled to such a win, as he got a bad break in his first start last Friday, according to Pittsburgh scribes. He had the Reds defeated 2 to 1 going into the ninth inning.

Duncan got a lucky single on a ball that bounced off Kremer's glove. Hargrave dropped a pop fly into right field for a double. It was a bad break, claim the scribes. Then Sammy Bohne got the only real hit of the three, a clean single to score the two runners and win the game. No pitcher ever made a better big league debut than did Kremer in that game, they say.

SCRAPS AT VALLEJO.

VALLEJO, April 23.—Tony Campus and Billy Springfield are to meet at the Auditorium tonight in a four-round bout. There will be six other scraps on the program.

Leptich Goes To Decatur in Three I League

George Steward to Play Third; Base in Place of Al. Maderas.

By EDDIE MURPHY.

Joe Leptich, young outfielder picked up from the Portland sandlots by the Oakland club, was today notified by Manager Dan Howard that he will finish the season with the Decatur team in the Three Eye League. Leptich came here highly boosted by Del and Ivan Howard and was expected to be a regular in the outfield. Now that Elmer Goebel has been secured through the Detroit Tigers the Oaks can afford to let Leptich go to the Three Eye circuit for more experience. The Oaks have a string attached to him.

His teammates gave him a ten-run lead in the first four innings, so he did not have much to worry about. Roger Hornsby, the St. Louis Card slugger, is the only one who gave him much trouble. He hit a pair of homers and made the score look good. Ray was entitled to such a win, as he got a bad break in his first start last Friday, according to Pittsburgh scribes. He had the Reds defeated 2 to 1 going into the ninth inning.

Duncan got a lucky single on a ball that bounced off Kremer's glove. Hargrave dropped a pop fly into right field for a double. It was a bad break, claim the scribes. Then Sammy Bohne got the only real hit of the three, a clean single to score the two runners and win the game. No pitcher ever made a better big league debut than did Kremer in that game, they say.

SCRAPS AT VALLEJO.

VALLEJO, April 23.—Tony Campus and Billy Springfield are to meet at the Auditorium tonight in a four-round bout. There will be six other scraps on the program.

Appetite Gone?

A tempting, delicious looking meal—all the choicest morsels from a well stocked pantry. The fragrant aroma of all these good things failing to put a keen edge on your appetite—failing to arouse, in any degree, a hardy relish for the food so attractively placed before you. Why?

Scores of men and women are faced with the same misfortune. After a day of toil—when they are tired—when good things to eat should be ravishly sought to recharge their vitality and fit them for play time—their stomachs turn. They are worn down, played out. Food has no appeal. To them it is sickening. The aroma of appetising things nauseates them.

Red blood cells are missing. Red blood which should be coursing through your veins strengthening your vitality—adding to your strength—keeping you healthy and fit—is not to be found.

S. S. S. is what is needed. Your blood needs purifying. What use is an automobile without a battery? What advantage is a dynamo without electricity? Your body is a human dynamo. Your blood cells supply the energy which keeps your body well and fit. Weakened blood cells make you like the storage battery with dry cells—power is lacking—energy gone—productive qualities at the lowest ebb. S. S. S. supplies the red blood cells—the spark that recharges your system.

Mr. James Chaloupka, Sherman School, Chillicothe, Ohio, writes:

"I feel like a new man after taking S. S. S. It gave me a better appetite and cleared my skin of pimples and blackheads."

Carefully selected, scientifically proportioned and prepared herbs and barks make up S. S. S.—the great blood purifier. Give nature a helping hand. Get back the lost appetite—the missing vitality—the keen, sparkling eyes—that look of determination. The best way to start back over the road to well being is with S. S. S. Nerves will become stronger. S. S. S. will give you more energy, vitality and vigor, and a more "up and going" appearance.

S. S. S. is sold at all leading drug stores. Try a bottle and see for yourself. The large size bottle is more economical. Get one today.

GOVERNMENT AIDS GROWERS.

Secretary Wallace has agreed to deputize state departmental agricultural inspectors to certify fruit shipments through states now enforcing embargoes, according to word received from the secretary of the California Fruit Exchange, now in Washington.

This is good news for California farmers for the bulk of the California crop moves to states beyond those bordering ones which, for one reason or another, have erected bars. Along with this information comes the indication that the Federal Government may take full charge of the campaign against the hoof and mouth disease, a plan which would be of inestimable aid because of the resulting close understanding between those engaged in fighting the epidemic and those who may supervise the shipping.

All that California asks is abandonment of hysteric action and the formulation of a sane policy which will permit the shipment of produce which is not exposed to disease and cannot carry it. The state will take every precautionary measure suggested but it does demand that arbitrary rules, based upon misinformation, ignorance, and excitement be replaced by those founded upon expert knowledge.

It would be ridiculous, if it were not tragic, to think that the fruits and vegetables of California must be held from markets. Prompt assurance of Federal action removes this fear and will prevent losses to growers.

CHILD HEALTH MAY DAY.

Some unusual celebrations and pageants will mark the coming of May this year. For the first time, on any large plan, a deep and underlying purpose goes with the picturesque festivals of the day of flowers and dance. For the first time every state in the Union will have plays for children. Most of the governors and the mayors of most of the large cities have issued proclamations calling upon the citizens to observe the children's day.

In spite of the wealth and progress of the United States it is fifth among the countries of the world in saving child health and sixteenth in preserving the lives of mothers in childbirth. The American Child Health Association has been stirred to action by the fact that 200,000 children in the United States die before they reach the age of one year. Physical examinations given to 22 million school children reveal that there is something wrong in over half of them, often something preventable: five million have defective eyes; a million have defective hearing; a million have active tuberculosis; a quarter million have organic heart trouble; and from three to five million are under-fed.

These are not subjects for pleasant thought. Perhaps it will be said they do not fit well into a scheme of Maypole dances and flowers. Surely the thoughts of bettering the condition of children fit into such a scheme and good may be accomplished if parents think while the children romp.

So the American Health Association has enlisted civic, religious, and social organizations in an effort to concentrate national attention for one day on better health for children. President Coolidge and Secretary Hoover, as well as the California Congressmen, have given the enterprise their endorsement.

TREE PLANTERS.

Every grove of trees within an American city is a monument to the pioneers who set them out or who stayed the ax in the days when trees were regarded as too plentiful to be cherished.

Every tree that is set out in a city today will carry the same message to another generation. Last year the American Tree Planting Association registered 70,000 tree planters and this number, of course, does not represent all of those who added the beauties which belong to the tree to a community.

Any person who plants a tree may belong to the American Tree Association and may add one name to a list which in 1924 will be considerably larger than in 1923. Whether he belongs to the association or not he may have the satisfaction of knowing that he has done something of lasting value to his city and will have left behind him something that will speak in years to come of the foresight of one who has gone before.

When one sees a shaded street he takes its beauties for granted without giving thought to the early settlers who set out the saplings with an eye to the looks of a city in the future. Those trees are rendering service and it is not too much to expect that the ones who do the same for another generation.

TO KEEP THE CAMPAIGN ALIVE.

Now that it has been demonstrated that a concentration of attention upon the problems of traffic will result in a lessening of the number of accidents, it remains to keep effort and interest alive.

No one who uses the streets will question the statement that the drivers and pedestrians of the Eastbay are exercising greater care than ever and that the lessons of safety are being learned and observed by the great majority. The general reaction is that this campaign is something that has been needed for a long time, that it is accomplishing a large amount of good and that it should be continued. "It is fine," says the average citizen, "I wonder how long it will last."

In the Eastbay the safety campaign will be continuous because there is an organization in the field which dedicates its daily effort to the cause of saving life and limb. The Eastbay Safety Council has cooperating with it churches, lodges, schools, service clubs and a great number of individuals. This is not an organization of paid workers and it is not interested in directing attention to any person or group. What it seeks to do is write its record in the offices of the coroner—a record of decreasing street accidents.

When the Eastbay Safety Council started, its work was confined to Oakland. Neighboring cities have planned to establish branches and the whole state is familiar with the results which have been obtained here. A handicap of lack of support has been overcome to the extent that the program of the future may be vigorous and continuous. In the place of one thousand citizens pledged to aid in reporting violators of the law there are 1500 and most of these are automobilists.

Real work remains to be done. If it can be proved that an aroused community consciousness can reduce the street fatalities there is reason in this proof for the heartiest support to that agency which keeps the idea of safety in the public mind.

It will be an evidence of community carelessness if the campaign is dropped.

GIPSY SMITH IN TOWN.

The list of talented men who have given their efforts to the evangelical field is a long one but in that list there is a smaller group of outstanding figures who, by the force of their eloquence and sincerity, have been able to hold and convince the multitudes. An older generation remembers Moody and Sankey for there are thousands who owe the very direction which their lives and efforts have taken to the words of these evangelists.

The average churchman divides evangelists into two classes. There is the stalwart soul who plunges into the work with all his strength and preaches the Gospel for the love of his fellows. There is another, actuated perhaps by the same high motives, who gives along with his preaching something which resembles a vaudeville show. There may be still another class, the one made up of men who have gained notoriety in other fields and profess to be evangelists—but their number is not large and those they impress are few.

One of the leading evangelists of the day and, in fact, of many years is in Oakland speaking to immense throngs who listen to Gipsy Smith because of the message he brings. When eight thousand persons crowd into a tent to hear a man speak and return to hear him again and again, when the word is passed and the throngs increase, that man is worthy of attention. His visit becomes an event. Gipsy Smith is worth hearing and his influence will be felt long after the man is gone.

The straw hat season arrives to find an unusually large number of fedoras in the political ring.

PHILIPPINE INDEPENDENCE.

If it is true that Manuel Quezon and Sergio Osmena are coming to this country with the hope of persuading Congress to set a time for the granting of Philippine independence, they have failed to understand that President Coolidge's letter on the subject to Manuel Roxas reflected the judgment of the American people. It doesn't follow, of course, that the Filipino agitators for immediate independence were convinced. As a matter of fact, a month after publication of the letter the Collectivista and Nacionalista Parties fused in Manila under a new name, promptly declared for complete and immediate independence, and elected Quezon President and Osmena Vice-President. Dissatisfaction was expressed with the Roxas mission, which had only provoked from Mr. Coolidge a masterly statement for continuing control of the islands in the interests of the people of the Philippines as distinguished from the politicians, who had demanded the recall of Governor General Wood.

Timely publicity is given by Secretary Weeks to a statement by General Wood which deals with the agitation in the Islands for immediate independence and shows what a tragedy it would be for the Filipinos. "I am convinced," says the Governor General, "that the President's letter to Speaker Roxas voices the true interests of the Filipino people and indicates the sound, sane, humane policy which should be followed."—New York Times.

THE CONNING TOWER

SCHEHERAZADE.

This indigo and splendid flame
Were woven to a carpet frame
Whereon Scheherazade knelt
To tell the king how Sinbad came
And when he went, and what he felt.

There was a censer and a dais
And corrido, a golden maze,
And Eastern midnight filled the courts
And all the little pathless ways.

To come and listen to her tale,
And wonder that she did not fail
At such a task as hers; and why
Her face should be so very pale,
So wild a brightness in her eye.

And hushed was every other thing,
And hushed there sate the kingly King,
And hushed the world beyond the gate;
That sat there all night listening,
Wide-eyed, to Ali-Baba's fate.

And listening all night they stayed,
And marveled that so young a maid
Could speak so well; and no one there
Knew that her heart was much afraid,
Or if one knew, he did not care.

Thus for a thousand nights and one
She spoke, and then when it was done,
So far she'd been away from skies,
The night was so much in her eyes
She could not smile at all at day.
And all her joy was turned to sighs
And all her life was given away.

JEANNETON.

If Dr. Donald B. Armstrong is to be credited, it is the 12 o'clock P. M. kiss—the Midnight Frolic—that is safest. For in the early morning kiss, though it include the salute that woke the Sleeping Beauty herself, danger lurks. It is the most unhygienic time. And yet if there should ever be, in the pacifistic effort to end sex warfare, a disarmament conference, the chances are that the safe kiss would be scrapped by the militarist majority. For the safe kiss is a contradiction in terms. There isn't a heart-beat in a barrel of them; and for all the good or harm they do, they might as well be chucked into the Grand Canyon.

Or—

Osculation is vexation.
Abstention is as bad,
A kiss at three ain't good for me,
But at midnight drives me mad.

Apparently Dr. Armstrong feels about the kiss as Calverley felt about tobacco: that it is Sweet when the morn is gray;
Sweet when they've cleared away
Lunch; and at close of day
Possibly sweetest.

What diseases are attributable to osculation Dr. Armstrong doesn't say, but the office Complete Amorist says the worst that can happen is chronic galloping palpitation.

Just as Mr. Donald Ogden Stewart, The Conning Tower's Eastern Hemisphere correspondent, boarded the S. S. Paris, he confided that while aboard he would write a sequel to his "Perfect Behavior," to be named "Perfect Behavior in Europe.' 'This will be followed, probably, by "Perfect Behavior on a Gunboat," "Perfect Behavior on the Lower Mississippi," and "Perfect Behavior in the Woods."

An attorney for the defense, according to the Young Men's Conning Tower Jury Club, which crowds this office at the noon hour, is a fellow who uses twenty words where one will do. And a juror, the club says, is a sap whose friends have no influence, but who says "It's a man's duty to serve, and I enjoy it."

The resolution adopted by the State Convention says that the recent disclosures of incompetency and corruption have shocked our people; but they haven't shocked 'em to the extent that the odds are not 1 to 4 that the next President will be a Democrat.

If the gentleman in Auburn who ends his letter "Please let me hear from you by return mail" and who wants a C melody saxophone will write again, signing the letter this time, we shall be glad to answer it, informing him that we haven't one in stock.

The bigger the revue, the midgeter they look.

A prize of $100 is offered by the Baltimore Evening Sun for the best explanation of the difference between a Democrat and a Republican. In the early nineties a Democrat was a little boy whose father was a Democrat and a Republican was a little boy whose father was a Republican.

The single hair that divides them nowadays is finer. Observation, however, leads to the conclusion that a Democrat is a man whose father writes editorials for a Republican newspaper, and vice versa.

"Every cloud has its silver lining." "The state income tax payment and the opening of the baseball season occurred the same day." But Mr. Deems Taylor says he can't see why anybody should call the payment of a tax a silver lining.

EXCERPTS from the NATIONAL PRESS

New York World (Dem.): "We are told that, emulating Andrew Jackson, President Coolidge will decline to cooperate with such an inquiry as that into the Income Tax Bureau of the Treasury Department if Francis J. Heney is employed as counsel by the Senate committee. The Jackson analogy is a trifle difficult to visualize, but the President's attitude is sound. Senator Couzens of Michigan, reasonably suspected of personal animus against Secretary Mellon, is financing the Heney employment; it was suggested by Gov. Pinchot of Pennsylvania, who also is inimical to Mr. Mellon; and there is nothing inherent in Mr. Heney's quality or record which makes him the only counsel who could be found."

Kansas City Times: "There is a common belief that certain forms of ugliness have a commercial value. The existence of cheap buildings, gaudy signs and shoddiness in general about a city is due as much to the idea of economy or profit as to bad taste. But ugliness is a drag on any city, on the individuality as well as the community. It thrusts itself into the daily life of the inhabitants; it intrudes upon the visitor and leaves no opportunity for pleasant impressions."

Portland Oregonian: "In a Montana speech McAdoo pledged himself, if elected, to chase corruption from the capitol to the jail. This isn't much of a sprint for William Gibbs, seeing as how his running gear has been liberally oiled."

Chicago Tribune: "Gov. Gen. Leonard Wood, with the philosophy of the best of colonial administrators, of which he is a highly honored and efficient type, says the United States ought not to give independence to the Philippines for some time to come. He declares the Filipinos are not yet capable of self-government with any promise of stability and progress, and that it would be 'heartless betrayal of our trust to throw them entirely upon their own resources. That is an American assumption of the white man's burden.'"

Kansas City Star: "Health experts advise us to do all our kissing at night, because germs are fewer and less active at night than earlier in the day. This reform seems a little thing in itself—much of the kissing already being done at night—but when you consider how many men who now habitually shave in the morning will have to change to evening, it becomes a matter of great importance to a great many people."

Deseret News: "The princely position occupied by the American workingman in the realm of industry—princely as compared with that of his less fortunate brother across the seas—ought, it would seem, to be an incentive to young men of the nation to become associated with the trades where there is opportunity to earn wages that in many cases exceed the fees realized in so-called professional life."

Worcester Telegram: "Once sober in thought and careful in deed, the United States Senate of the present time is an institution of violence in speech and action. It is possible that a soberly thinking Senate of the saner day might have reached the conclusion that it should adopt the legislation placing the offensive ban upon the Japanese. It is not readily conceivable that it would accompany this action with taunt and bombastics."

Brooklyn Eagle: "On ripe second thought the venerable Charles W. Elliot has added a bank book to the list for his five-foot shelf. This concession to Philistine sentiment will eliminate all existing coolness toward scientifically selected reading matter."

SPIRIT of the STATE PRESS

It is no part of the battle over this immigration bill, but announcement comes that 32,000 Japanese farmers are ready to move from California to Mexico because of the California law prohibiting ownership and leasing of lands. Such a move might temporarily unsettle local production, particularly of vegetables, and of course those with capital will wish to go elsewhere so they can employ it.—San Bernardino Sun.

After fifteen years of happy married life together, in which they were never separated, a couple in San Francisco died within three hours of each other and took their last journey side by side to a resting place in the cemetery. The husband had been ill and under a physician's care, but the wife had appeared to be in perfect health until her sudden death. It does not often happen in this way, but when it does it seems to turn death itself into a romance and make it beautiful.—Stockton Record.

President Coolidge is riding over, in masterly fashion, a delicate, difficult and perplexing status in national administration. He is doing his duty, fearlessly, faithfully and ably, and his course is holding the confidence of the people in the integrity of the government.—Long Beach Press.

There is nothing like a baby to demonstrate the miraculous nature of human life. It is a miracle, in the first place, that endows a tiny organism with its mysterious vital spark—that makes it a living, breathing, growing human creature, and that implants so many of the little whims and peculiarities that generations of hereditary gift have passed down to the baby's parents.—San Diego Union.

If a Los Angeles engineer is accurate, California will have arrived at the limit of water power development in 1939. That is to say, in fifteen years more, at the present rate of development, this State will have harnessed all the water power available in all the California mountains, and if industrial development is to continue, we must look elsewhere for the power supply.—San Bernardino Sun.

With five bidders present, $51,000 of Reclamation District No. 833 bonds were sold by Tax Collector Miss Mattie Lund for par and accrued interest. A block of $257,000 was offered. Bids on the balance of the issue were rejected by the directors, who declare they will hold the bonds for par and accrued interest—Oroville Register.

JUST FOLKS
By EDGAR A. GUEST

A BIT OF ADVICE.

Laugh and take the jest of life,
Be a man with them,
Give a blow and take a blow and rise to fight again,
But take a tip from one who knows and have it understood—
Yes, get it clearly in your head.
Hang it just above your bed,
Say it when your prayers are said:
"You needn't be a sissy to be good."

Sing and dance and have your fun, but keep this truth in mind:
All the joy that is worth while is of the honest kind.
Get out there with rugged men, do what others do,
Brave the wind and face the rain,
Bend your muscles to the strain,
Have red blood in every vein,
But stay clean and true:

Never shrink from any task, bear what you must bear,
Take your post whate'er it be, but keep your conscience clear:
Build your manhood firm and strong, stand where men have stood,
Fight whenever you must fight,
Work to win with all your might—
But remember, day and night:
"You needn't be a sissy to be good."

IT SEEMS TO ME
By Heywood Broun.

One of the most amusing numbers in "Sitting Pretty" is a song about the delights of being a prisoner at Sing Sing. And I wish the song had not been written. People are only too ready to believe that prisons err on the side of leniency of treatment. Unfortunately, reform has not moved any appreciable distance toward coddling.

I wish it had. Something like coddling is what practically every prisoner needs. He must be coaxed, urged and encouraged back into a respect for himself. He ought to come out of prison in better physical and mental shape. Very often crimes are the result of superabundance of energy. It would seem the obvious duty of the State to make education the prime business of every prison, but at the present time it enters only very slightly into prison routine.

Sing Sing, although horribly antiquated in much of its physical equipment, is far above the average of American prisons. And yet even at Sing Sing the work of providing a limited number of prisoners with courses from the Columbia University Extension School, is carried on by private charity.

Prison reform is one of the many things which languishes in America, not on account of any particular stalwart opposition but only because of a very mighty indifference. Generally speaking, the man on the street, and the one around the corner, will agree, with you that prisons should be sanitary and that education should be among their functions, but the good citizen concerns himself with the matter to such a slight extent that little is done and it is all done slowly.

Of course, the argument for entertainment in prison—the baseball game, the picture show, the occasional visiting theatrical company—can be made on very simple and obvious grounds. Every prison which has introduced such diversion finds that the insanity rate diminishes appreciably.

Nobody need worry that prisoners will come to enjoy their captivity too much for the good of the community. I remember a prisoner I met at Sing Sing when "Outward Bound" was playing there. Like the rest, he seemed to be interested in the show and having a good time. I asked him finally, "Well what do you think of this place, anyway?"

"It's all right for a jail," he said.

Even under the most rational and merciful conditions, a jail remains a jail. The condition of compulsory residence carries with it enough sting of punishment to satisfy the vengeance of even the most remorseless community.

One member of the "Outward Bound" company was just a little embarrassed by his visit. J. M. Kerrigan, who plays Stubby, struck up an acquaintance with a prisoner of literary taste and there was a long discussion about books. When Kerrigan left he promised to send the inmate a novel in which he had expressed great interest.

"You know, he's sent that book back to me," Kerrigan told me several days later. "He wants my autograph."

"What's the harm in that?" I asked.

"Well, you see," said Kerrigan, "he's serving his third term in Sing Sing for forgery."

It may be that I was too severe in my review of Samuel Shipman's "Cheaper to Marry." It may well be a better play than other works by him which I have liked better. But those other plays were not pretentious. This one has taken unto itself an air of importance which makes it not only dull but irritating. It is quite true that Shipman has a feeling for situation. There are several moments in his present venture which have distinct possibilities, but he insists on taking even things which could happen and treating them in such a way that they come to seem utterly inconceivable.

There is in the first act of "Cheaper to Marry" one complication which ought not to miss being interesting. A young man just engaged makes a mighty ruction because he finds that the hostess of the dinner party which he is attending is living in sin with a gentleman. The young man insists on taking his fiancee away immediately. He feels that she would not only be soiled but shocked to death by an establishment such as that to which she is introduced. However, he is forced to give her some explanation of his sudden desire to depart, and when he outlines the reasons she laughs at him. She is entirely ready to accept host and hostess just as they are.

That should be first rate comedy, but it doesn't turn out that way because every line which is spoken by every character concerned has in it such flagrant falseness that the whole thing falls to the ground.

Apparently it is only the highbrow playwrights who get about and listen to the precise color of human speech. It is the lowbrow dramatists who live in ivory towers wholly shut off from all contacts with human experience.

GIPSY SMITH AGAIN STIRS BIG THRONG

Evangelist Declares Trouble With Most People Is Worldliness: Pays Compliment and Has Press Cheered

If they who came to scoff did not remain to pray last night at the Gipsy Smith tent tabernacle on Twenty-sixth street, it was because they slipped out before the eagle eye of the Gipsy could detect them, or his vibrant voice arrest them. But if such there were they were few, for the Gipsy is impressively friendly. He is simple; he is direct, and his every action and intonation rings with sincerity.

From the opening hymn "Revive Us Again" to the closing number "I Am Coming Lord to Thee" Gipsy Smith held unquestioned command in the big tent. No one interrupted the meeting as did the luckless person on the opening night who thought the name of Gipsy Smith was filling the hearts of the audience to the exclusion of the Savior's. The Gipsy did not hit the heckler with a bludgeon, but most effectually quieted him in a kindly and compassionate manner.

Rev. R. H. Moon, pastor of the Christian Missionary Alliance church, offered prayer, after which William Gillanders made the announcements.

SPECIAL MEETING ARRANGED.

Next Friday evening will be "Young People's" night. Seats will be reserved for young people between the ages of 12 and 25, until 7:15, after which the older folks will be seated. On Sunday afternoon at 2:30 there will be a meeting for men only in the big tent, when the Gipsy will address them. Church and church officials' night will be observed next Monday at 7:30. It is planned to have all officers of the evangelical churches of Oakland present. An evening to be designated later will be devoted to ex-service men.

"We owe a great debt of gratitude to the newspapers for space in the reporting of these meetings," he said. "The newspapers give wings to my words, for while I talk to 8000 people in this tent, my words are sent out to hundreds of thousands. All of you should read these newspapers, and send them to your friends. Thus will my revival spread to the four winds. Now let's give the men and women of the press section a rousing cheer, for remember the pen is mightier than the sword." In great confusion the press gang stood amid the roar of applause from the audience.

FAVORITE HYMN IS SUNG.

"Wee Willie" McEwan sang one of the Gipsy's favorite hymns "The Wonderful Story."

During the preliminaries there had been intermittent witticism and merriment, but now the revivalist got down to serious business.

"I'm not here to furnish you with amusement and fun. I'm here to fight a battle; to win a victory!" he exclaimed. "My whole aim is to bring you to surrender to the call of God. I'd rather see 5000 church members consecrated to Christ than 10,000 converted outside of churches. If you can get people inside the church right with God, you can shake the world. The great trouble with most of us is worldliness. Worldliness is paralyzing us. Get rid of it, in the Lord's name.

"All of us are sinful. Why, the holiest people I have ever known have felt the most sinful. Since I was a boy of 16, I have followed Christ, but I'm an unprofitable sinner. One thing I know, however—I love Jesus."

The evangelist read from the ninth chapter of St. Mark, wherein Jesus came upon his disciples just after they had been importuned to cast out the devils from the son of one of the multitude, and how Jesus rebuked his unfaithful followers and showed that everything is possible with prayer and faith.

WHAT DOES RELIGION MEAN?

"Failure is more often our experience than victory," said the evangelist, "because we are not prepared to pay the price of victory. Why are you failing to bring people to Christ? Jesus said, 'Bring him to me!' Jesus saved you, just as he saved his disciples in order that they might become a beneficient channel for carrying the divine message to others.

"What does your religion mean to you? You go to church, you go to prayer, you take communion, you sing psalms. But what does your religion mean to your neighbor? To the harlot? To the drunkard?

"Oh yes, you have drunkards. You have a prohibition that does not prohibit. You church people ought to make it so hot that a bootlegger could not exist. The man who buys alcohol is just as black in his soul as the bootlegger who makes it. I have no sympathy with the people who break the law, who flout the constitution. You're not Americans if you cannot keep the eighteenth amendment. If you can't keep the eighteenth amendment, then go back to the place you came from.

"DOES IS LIFT WEARY?"

"What does religion amount to in Oakland? Does it lift the weary, does it keep the tired from falling, does it help any one bear his burdens. It means more than going to church once every Sunday, with an auto ride in the afternoon. Religion is a business some of you are just playing at.

"What makes us fail? Because we do not understand Jesus. Because we have not caught his spirit. We should not fail if we were like Jesus, not just on Sunday morning and evening, but every day and night of the week. Our churches should be open at all times. They should have swing doors, kept well oiled. The devil keeps his doors open all the time.

"Your failure kills faith and creates skepticism. If I had the power of Elijah I would command you to get out of the church or get further in. I hate humbug and cant as I hate the devil. And I tell you I would never get my living preaching the gospel if I didn't believe up to the hilt.

"Even though Christ had been with his disciples two and a half years his followers failed to cast out the devil from the son of one of the multitude. You have taken your children to the theater, the dance, the card table. When did you bring them to Christ? When did you bring them to me?

HARD PITIFUL STORIES.

"Hanging in a closet of my home at Cambridge, England, is a coat covered with blood. It is the blood of many lads who died in the trenches. I spent three and a half years with the boys in France, and I held many a dying boy's head on my shoulders as he passed on. And the pitiful stories I heard from their dying lips. One told me that his father was a church member, but he'd never heard him pray. Another said his mother was a member of a church, but had never brought him to Christ.

"If you've been to Jesus it is easy to show others how to bring them to Christ. Men today should be more keen about bringing souls to Christ than about making money. When I found religion as a lad of 16, I couldn't keep it to myself. Wherever I went I spread the truth as it came to me and have been doing just that ever since. 'Bring him to me,' said Jesus. That is Calvary, that is pentecost, that is religion.

"It's all right to boast about Oakland knows how to do it right, but if Oakland did know how, you wouldn't need me. Let's shake Oakland with a revival of faith, and then cross the bay and annex the other place.

WEAK POINT OF CHURCH.

"I wonder how long since you attended week night prayer meeting? How long since you had family prayer? The weak point of the church is its prayer meeting. Oh yes, you can come to negro minstrels at your church; you can attend ice cream parties at your church, and entertainments bring you out. But only a corporal's guard attend prayer meetings. The business of the church is not to entertain or amuse, but to rejuvenate."

When the pledge cards were passed and Gipsy Smith asked all who wish to be nearer Christ to stand there was a 95 per cent response.

On the right hand of the evangelist were seated the following clergymen: Revs. H. O. Breeden, Thomas McConnell, Willard Fuller, O. R. Davies, J. E. Wright, H. T. O'Rear, Alfred J. Kennedy, Isaac Dawson, Harvey McAlister, M. E. LaDieu, N. E. Gibbs, L. M. Miller, John Friborg, E. H. Dille, Galen Rose, Lloyd J. B. Taber, E. A. Fridell, P. Petersen, G. N. Knoll, R. E. Cooper, James Falconer, L. S. Hendrickson.

Rev. E. P. Cochrane had charge of today's noon theater meeting at the Lurie. Tomorrow noon Rev. George W. Phillips will conduct the services.

:-: A LECTURE ON CHRISTIAN SCIENCE :-:

Under Auspices of Second Church of Christ, Scientist

Miss Margaret Murney Glenn, C. S. B., of Brookline, Mass., a member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., delivered a lecture on Christian Science entitled "God's Allness as Revealed by Christian Science" under the auspices of Second Church of Christ, Scientist, Oakland, in the church edifice, Thirty-fourth and Elm streets Tuesday evening, April 22, at eight o'clock.

The lecturer was introduced by Mrs Tira W. Robertson, member of the church, who said:

Friends:

Second Church of Christ, Scientist, of Oakland cordially welcomes you this evening to listen to a lecture on Christian Science.

On page 107 of Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, she elucidates the meaning of Christian Science in the following words:

"In the year 1866, I discovered the Christ Science or divine laws of Life, Truth and Love and named my discovery Christian Science. God had been graciously preparing me during many years for the reception of this final revelation of the absolute divine principle of scientific mental healing.

"This apodictical Principle points to the revelation of Immanuel 'God with us', the sovereign ever-presence, delivering the children of men from every ill 'that flesh is heir to.'"

In giving us Science and Health, Mrs. Eddy has truly given us a "Key to the Scriptures," and a text book, the study of which makes this religion practical and applicable to every human need.

In little more than half a century this gospel of healing has penetrated into every part of the civilized world, bringing to suffering and sin-sick humanity a realization of their God given dominion and healing all manner of sorrow disease and sin. In the words of St. Paul, it is "casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ." (II. Cor. 10-5.)

One of the many wise provisions of our revered leader was the establishment of a Board of Lectureship, for the purpose of imparting a true understanding of Christian Science, and correcting false beliefs concerning it, and its founder, Mrs. Eddy.

We have with us tonight a member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, and it is my pleasure to present to you Miss Margaret Murney Glenn C. S. B., of Brookline, Massachusetts.

The lecturer spoke as follows:

The Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, Mary Baker Eddy, writes "The [illegible] quest of Christian Science is to settle all points beyond cavil, on the Biblical basis that God is All-in-All" (Miscellany p. 181). If we accept this Biblical basis of God's allness the logic and demonstrability of the Principle and rules of Christian Science will be apparent.

GOD IS TRUTH.

It is the function of any science to make known the nature, character, and laws of its subject. Christian Science is no exception to this rule, for it makes known the nature, character, and laws of God and His creation. It banishes all speculation, mystery, blind belief, and superstition with regard to God, by revealing Him as infinite Truth, thus making Him knowable—for only Truth is knowable. Error or falsity cannot be known, it can only be believed. You cannot know that two paralled lines meet because this statement is not true. You only believe that. Thus the very fact that God is knowable proves Him to be Truth. If He were not Truth it would not be worth while striving to know Him, in fact it would be impossible to know him. Divine Truth must be All-in-all because nothing that is unlike Truth or, in order words, is untrue, could possibly have real existence. Then evil, hatred, ignorance, discord, and mortality, which are the antithesis of God,—can these be true? No, for two opposites cannot both be true. Yet some may say "I can see evil, hatred, and mortality all around me and I can feel discord, so they must exist and therefore must be true." And indeed they would be true, could the material senses know the truth, but they cannot. These senses are not even able to see or feel that the earth is round. You have to perceive that fact with your intelligence. If I were to print in raised type, two times two equals ten so that you could both see and feel it, would that make the assertion true? No, and you would not believe it because your intelligence would inform you otherwise. These instances are but two of many which might be cited to illustrate the unreliability of the testimony of the material senses. May we not conclude that this testimony is equally unreliable when it denies the allness of divine Truth? If we cannot depend on our physical senses for a correct knowledge of human things, we certainly cannot depend on them for an understanding of things spiritual. A higher intelligence or spiritual understanding is requisite to know God, Spirit and every one of you here possess this faculty of spiritual understanding. You all can understand love, honesty, happiness, and nobility, the attributes of God, so you must be able to understand God, Spirit, who is their source.

GOD IS SPIRIT.

Formerly I thought that Spirit was a nebulous, hazy sort of substance that surrounded God and was in fact God's substance, but when through Christian Science I better understood the Bible I realized, that . . the fruit of the Spirit is "love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness goodness faith, meekness, temperance" (Galatians 5:22), the tree must be like its fruit. Spirit which produces these fruits must therefore be Love, good, or God. Spiritual qualities thus became very substantial, practical, and real to me. I think any business man or woman in this audience will agree that these spiritual qualities mean a great deal in business and that employees are engaged on the basis of their spirituality. What you want in your business are people who are temperate, faithful, honest, loving, and intelligent, and you would much prefer having a joyous and peaceable person around than a gloomy or belligerent one, would you not? So you see Spirit and its manifestation are very real and substantial to you, although you may not yet have recognized that fact. If Spirit is All-in-all, these fruits must then be here and everywhere for us all to possess and to share.

GOD IS MIND.

Christian Science teaches that we can know God as Mind only through the ideas that express Mind, such as ideas of love, of life, of strength, of beauty, and of holiness. The idea that God is All, that He is one Lord, besides whom there is no other, this idea helps us to understand Him, for we see that if God is the Infinite One the Only, no conflict, no opposition no dissension exists for Him, nor can these discords exist in His universe which the one Mind alone governs. Job perceived this when he said, "He is in one mind, and who can turn him" The statement that there is only one Mind furnishes a basis whereby individuals and nations can understand each other and whereby they can solve the problems which today confront them. For how can we establish the brotherhood of man [illegible] the same Mind or God? At present mankind is making a greater effort than ever before to attain the unity of thought and action which can alone emanate from a knowledge of God as the one Mind. Mrs. Eddy writes on page 469 of the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," as follows: "There can be but one Mind, because there is but one God; and if mortals claimed no other Mind and accepted no other, sin would be unknown. We can have but one Mind, if that one is infinite." If you and I therefore would stop claiming that petty, discouraged, unhappy, sinful, and sick thoughts constitute our minds and would claim God as the only Mind, as the source and governor of our thinking, we would all have Godlike thoughts, namely, loving, joyous, holy, healthy, intelligent thoughts, —we would understand one another, rejoice in one another; for we would all have that Mind which was in Christ Jesus, that Mind which knows love alone, which is in fact divine Love and therefore ever loving. All the creations of the one Mind are necessarily at-one with that Mind and therefore at-one with one another. In the oneness of the divine Mind and its creation all is harmony. The fact that God is "in one mind" eliminates the possibility of discord, friction, or irritation which are always the resultants of the belief in two or more minds. Because God is one He is All, and because He is All He is one. As Mrs. Eddy has concisely put it, "God is one. The allness of Deity is His oneness" (Science and Health, p. 267).

GOD IS PRINCIPLE.

Of course if God is conceived of as a person,—like a mortal only much greater, more powerful, perhaps more loving and intelligent, but nevertheless a person,—His allness would be impossible, for the conception of God as personal, no matter how extended that concept may be, must be limited unless we think of God as "infinite personality," as Mrs. Eddy puts it. Christian Science reveals God as divine Principle, the unchanging, fundamental surce of all law, the only cause of all phenomena. We all admit that where there is effect there must be a cause and also that we are surrounded by effects. The natural scientists look to matter for the cause of these effects, whereas Christian Science points to God, Spirit, as the creating, governing cause or Principle. It is not difficult to perceive that divine Principle must be ever-present, everywhere, in other words All-in-all. The principle that governs the stars or the science of astronomy is right in this room, it is also outside of this room, at the North Pole, everywhere. You and I may not understand it, but it is here; and did we understand it we should be able to perceive and make use of the wonderful rhythm and law that govern the relations of all the celestial bodies. The same is true of the principle governing music. It is right here, everywhere, and if you or I understood it sufficiently we could compose most wonderful symphonies and overtures. If then the principles governing the natural sciences are ever present, certainly it is manifest that the divine Principle and the spiritual laws which govern man and the universe are everywhere. But some one may ask of what benefit this knowledge would be in daily affairs. Supposing that you knew some one who was egotistical, hateful, revengeful, dishonest, deceitful and hypocritical,—we will hope that you do not know such a one, but suppose that you did—would you not consider him unprincipled? Then let us see what your concept of divine Principle is. If you consider egotism, hatred, and revenge unprincipled, then you must believe their opposite, Love, to be Principle, and that is just what Christian Science reveals Principle to be, divine Love. If you believe dishonesty, deceit, and hypocrisy to be unprincipled, then you will certainly agree that their opposite, Truth, is divine Principle, and that is also exactly what Christian Science reveals Principle to be divine Truth. We saw a moment ago that Principle is everywhere and that we need only to understand it to be able to perceive and enjoy its harmonies. Then what about this unprincipled condition of thought. What are we going to do about it? Why, apply divine Principle, Love, Truth, to the situation. And how are we to do that? By recognizing that Principle or God is All-in-all, that beside Him there is no other, that there cannot be two opposite powers occupying the same space at the same time and that because God, Love, Truth, Principle, occupies all space, there is no room for His opposite, egotism, hatred, and deceit, and that these unprincipled qualities are not governing man, for if they were they would be God, and we know they are not God, because He is good. What would this line of reasoning or thinking do? Try it and see. You would find yourself free from any resentment or fear, you would be protected from any harm that might seem to emanate from this unprincipled state of thought and if you knew this allness of God, Principle, clearly enough it would help to liberate any one who seemed to be in bondage to this false thinking.

MAN CONSTITUTED OF IDEAS.

This brings me to the subject of man, a subject which is very important for us to understand. You and I have been educated to believe that man consists of blood and bones, of matter, and that we have to be very careful of this matter creation because there seems to be something the matter with matter most of the time, and if it does not happen to be just now there undoubtedly will be something the matter soon. So prepare for the worst by being vaccinated or inoculated, but hope for the best! The writer of Proverbs clearly realized what man is when he wrote, "As he thinketh in his heart, so is he." That is exactly what constitutes man,—his thinking, his thoughts or ideas. You will admit that it is a person's thinking which has made him congenial or uncongenial, your friend or your enemy. In our limited human way of considering man we have believed him to consist of loving and hateful, intelligent and ignorant, honest and dishonest, healthy and diseased thoughts. What an impossible conglomeration! As though good and evil, light and darkness, could dwell together. Christian Science proves man to be what the Scriptures declare him to be, namely, the image and likeness of God,—of the one infinite "altogether lovely" God, good, divine Life, Truth, and Love. Mrs. Eddy states that man is "the compound idea of infinite Spirit" (Science and Health, p. 591), also that he is "the compound idea of God, including all right ideas" (Science and Health, p. 475). Mind manifests itself as ideas, so man is the manifestation, reflection, or image and likeness of God. Of course, the divine Mind must include all of its ideas, but it is not within those ideas; so God is not in man, but is reflected or imaged forth by man.

The truth that man reflects all right ideas has tremendous practical value. Mankind is striving in every human way to attain right ideas. It wants the right idea of health, happiness, supply, equality, and government,—in fact the right idea of all things. The whole effort of each individual is to gain through education the right idea of whatever may be his particular talent or work, be it law, art, natural sciences, mathematics, engineering, or architecture.

For a simple illustration of the practical application of this truth that man reflects all right ideas, let us suppose that a boy has an examination in mathematics and that he is unable to find the proper solution of one of the problems presented. If he is a Christian Scientist he will turn his thoughts to the truth just stated, that God is the Mind of man and that man reflects or manifests this all-knowing and intelligent Mind and thereby includes all right ideas. As soon as he realizes that man reflects all right ideas the fear or suggestion that he does not know the right idea with regard to this problem will be dispelled and in place of confusion there will be clarity and in place of fear, confidence, with the result that he will be able intelligently to solve the problem. I have known personally of engineering and architectural problems being solved in just this way.

There is a right idea of health and of healing which when known will dispel or cure disease on the basis of God's allness,—the basis of omnipresent divine Love in which there is no sickness, for divine Love could not conceive of or produce such a cruel effect, the opposite of itself.

Mankind, in trying to get the right idea of health, has spent most of its time studying disease or the absence of health and the result for humanity has been a corresponding absence of health. Physicians have limited the diseases which can be cured by medical treatment, but the Christian Scientists cannot thus limit God's ability to heal and save, for they ascribe to God all power, and believe all things to be possible to Him. When a physician says that a person has an incurable disease, does he mean that the disease is actually incurable, or is he simply admitting the limitations of material curative methods? It must be the latter, for remedies have been found for diseases that were once considered incurable. Then, I ask, were these diseases ever incurable? No, the knowledge or belief that they were curable was simply lacking. Mortals die, in belief, because they are ignorant of the power which cures disease. It is really ignorance that causes the belief of death. When my father was a small boy he lived in a part of the South where it was believed that tomatoes were poisonous and that people suffered from eating them. Were those tomatoes ever poisonous? No, never. Were the people that suffered, suffering from eating those innocent tomatoes, a vegetable that you and I enjoy so much today? No, of course not. They were suffering from their false belief about those tomatoes,—from their ignorance. That is just what seems to cause the sickness and suffering of humanity today, ignorance; ignorance of the fact that God made man perfect and harmonious, that therefore he is so; ignorance of the right ideas that constitute man; ignorance of the fact that divine Mind, not matter, governs man; ignorance of the truth that man is spiritual, not material or fleshy, as Paul says, "They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God."

CHRIST JESUS.

It follows that if ignorance as to the nature of God and man causes sickness, a correct knowledge of God and man must dispel that ignorance and heal its consequent suffering, so any one possessing this knowledge or understanding would be able to heal the sick. The greater the knowledge or understanding, the greater would be this ability to heal. Jesus of Nazareth possessed this understanding to a greater degree than any one the world has ever known. He knew so clearly the allness of God that when he was faced with the physical evidence of sin, disease, or death he was able to heal these discords instantly. In this as in all things, Christ Jesus was our great example. His way of thinking about God and man; his way of living or manifesting Life by overcoming all that tends to its opposite, namely, sin, disease, and death; his way of loving by forgiving, destroying sickness and sin; his way of healing by spiritual not material means; his way of doing all these things must become our way, for he was the way and the Wayshower.

That which enabled Jesus to heal live and love as he did was his knowledge of the true spiritual idea of God and man. Christian Science teaches that this spiritual idea is the Christ. It was the Christ, or the image and likeness of God, which was his true spiritual selfhood, and to which Jesus referred when he said "Before Abraham was I am," and, "I and my Father are one." It is this spiritual idea which voices the truth and heals the sick today through Christian Science. This spiritual idea of God and man which comes to you and me dispelling our fears, our ignorance, our sickness, and our sorrows is the eternal Christ which Jesus manifested so perfectly in his every thought, word, and deed that he will always stand as the highest human embodiment of the Christ. It is this Truth or Christ to which he referred when he said, "Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world."

When we realize that this spiritual idea is with us in consciousness, because, of course, the only place it can be with us is in our thinking, the illusion must vanish that presents fear, sin, malice, hatred, and disease, the opposite of God's image and likeness, as with us. As we have said before, two opposites cannot occupy the same place at the same time. Therefore if it is true that the Christ is with us always, the supposition that sin, disease, and death are ever with us must be an illusion. By knowing the ever-presence of the manifestation of God or of the Christ the sick are healed in Christian Science and it was thus that Jesus healed them. Mrs. Eddy has elucidated Jesus' method of healing in these few words in our textbook (Science and Health, p. 476): "Jesus beheld in Science the perfect man, who appeared to him where sinning mortal man appears to mortals. In this perfect man the Saviour saw God's own likeness and this correct view of man healed the sick."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE PRACTICE.

Because the healing in Christian Science is accomplished by spiritual and mental means, this does not imply that there is any hypnotism or autosuggestion connected with it. In fact, what Christian Science does is to free mortals from hypnotism, releasing them from the illusions of suffering caused by ignorance and the mesmeric effect of believing in the evidence of the material senses. The fact that all Christian Science healing is accomplished from the basis of God as the one and only Mind eliminates the possibility of its being hypnotic, for hypnotism is the control of one mind by another and necessarily involves more than one mind. Christian Science healing results from knowing the truth about God and man, whereas hypnotism and autosuggestion deal with illusions only. The Christian Science practitioner, seeing things as they are, rouses his patient from the mesmerized state of believing in illusions. He shows the sufferer his reflection, revealed by Christian Science as the image and likeness of God. In other words, he shows him things as they are, as divine Truth, or God, has created them. This reflection seen as truth releases the patient from his false beliefs in suffering. Thus it is clear that by seeing things as they are, or by knowing the truth, the sick are healed in Christian Science. If health were a hypnotic state, an illusion, it would not be worth while striving for. Christian Science teaches that health is a spiritual fact, therefore it cannot be suggested or produced by hypnotism, for it is self-evident that a hypnotic state is never a fact, never a reality. Now, I ask, is it not a comfortless theory to have health represented to us as an illusion,—which is all that a hypnotic state can be,—rather than a substantial, changeless, spiritual fact, the free gift of God, the manifestation of His love and goodness? What mankind really wants is health as a substantial reality, as permanent and changeless as honesty or integrity, which cannot be taken away by material conditions of weather, action, or food.

MARY BAKER EDDY.

There is a statement in the first chapter of Genesis which seems to have been overlooked or not understood for centuries, in fact, until Mrs. Eddy made her discovery of Christian Science. May I read this to you? This passage will be most familiar, but it will contain a fact which you may never have noticed. "And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness . . . So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them." If God created woman in his own likeness then God must be feminine as well as masculine. Mrs. Eddy revealed this great fact to humanity, and what it portends is more far-reaching than any of us can possibly comprehend. She gave it first in her beautiful spiritual interpretation of the opening line of the Lord's Prayer "Our Father which art in heaven," in the words, "Our Father-Mother God, all harmonious" (Science and Health, p. 16). Not only did she reveal this great truth through her written works and the form of government which she gave to her church, but she manifested in her life, as no other woman in the world has ever done, the strength, spiritual intuition, tenderness, constancy, courage, wisdom, purity, and virtue which are the reflection of the motherhood of God. To her the words of Proverbs are most applicable, "A woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised. Give her of the fruit of her hands and let her own works praise her in the gates."

Only a woman of extraordinary spirituality, purity, and intelligence could have discovered Christian Science. She submitted it to proof by healing the sick and reforming the sinning, and in the year 1875, "after nine years of arduous preliminary labor," as she herself writes (Miscellany, p. v), she presented it to the world through the publication of her great work, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." This book states clearly, logically, and simply the Science of Christianity which Jesus used in healing the sick, reforming the sinner, and raising the dead. It is the only book that does give a complete statement of Christian Science and of how to demonstrate it. The truth contained therein is presented from every angle possible so that the philosopher, the natural scientist, the religionist, the statesman, the business man, the housewife, the mother, the child, the sick, the sinning, and the dying, each and all, will find within its pages that which will meet their particular need. Many have been healed by simply reading or studying this book, and its last chapter entitled "Fruitage," bears witness to this fact, for it contains testimonies of those thus healed.

Great as was Mrs. Eddy's discovery and great as was her own healing work, for she healed consumption in its last stages, malignant diphtheria, carious bones, cancer, as well as restored sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf, speech to the dumb—great as all this was it remained for her to do an even greater work in organizing The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, The Mother Church, and establishing it according to rules and By-laws laid down in the Church Manual, which she also wrote. Thus she became the Founder of Christian Science. The untiring perserverance and patience, the deep insight into things spiritual, the ability to plumb the depths of human iniquity and protect her church against it, the magnitude of her love for God and man, her unfaltering courage in the face of seemingly insurmountable obstacles,—these are a few of the qualities which Mary Baker Eddy possessed and which made this great work possible. Had she left this work undone, her great discovery would have been lost in time to mankind, even as was the healing element of Christianity which Jesus taught and practiced. The By-laws of the Church Manual govern the publication of the Christian Science periodicals, also established by Mrs. Eddy. These By-laws establish the order of the Christian Science services, they enjoin the study of the Bible and the Christian Science textbook and designate these books as our only preachers. In fact, the Manual preserves to the world and to future generations this great revelation in all its purity.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE PRAYER

The practice of Christian Science requires that the practitioner constantly reflect God's mother-love in his relationship to his patients, for the sick are healed through the exercise of that perfect Love which casteth out fear, by knowing that divine Love is All-in-all, consequently that there is nothing to fear, and through the operation of that Love which thinketh no evil because it knows that the divine Mind or good is the one and only presence and that therefore there is no evil to think, or to think about. If fear, which is the procurer of all disease, and evil, which is the producer of all sin and death, can be eliminated from our thinking, we shall be free indeed. It is this exercise or reflection of divine Love which constitutes the Christian Scientist's prayer. In her book "No and Yes" Mrs. Eddy writes, "True prayer is not asking God for love; it is learning to love, and to include all mankind in one affection. Prayer is the utilization of the love wherewith He loves us ...... It shows us more clearly than we saw before, what we already have and are; and most of all, it shows us what God is."

When I was a young girl I had an experience which has always stood out in memory as most helpful. A letter came one day addressed to my sister and on the outside was the name of the writer. When I saw this name I was consumed with curiosity to know why this particular person was writing to my sister, and this curiosity was so great that my conscience was utterly silenced. I opened and read the letter and when I had finished I was about as satisfied as Eve must have been after eating her apple. I had just put the letter down when I heard the voice of my mother, who had come in the room behind me, asking if I had opened that letter. Instantly it came over me what I had done, how dishonorable, deceitful, and unworthy it was, and I was so filled with shame that it cost me quite a struggle finally to say yes; but I did so, awaiting the rebuke that I knew I deserved. At this point, however, something wonderful happened, for my mother simply said, "That was not like you." Only mother-love could have said that, only mother-love could have seen through that act and perceived that it was not like the character of its child.

What happened to me in that limited human experience is what is happening in an infinitely greater degree to all those who, when in trouble, turn to the love of our Mother, God, as revealed in Christian Science. When you go to a Christian Science practitioner, believing yourself to be burdened with sickness, with sin, with shame, and with sorrow, the practitioner will tell you in substance, "Why this is not like you, for you are Godlike; it is in fact so unlike you, the noble, healthy, harmonious, pure creation of God, that it is not you at all. You are God's beloved child in whom He is well pleased, His image and likeness, therefore you are manifesting strength, goodness, freedom, joy, abundance, all the qualities of God." Little by little you will find yourself letting go of the false, sinful, self-condemning, and sick concept of yourself, and turning whole-heartedly to the arms of divine Love, and your human need, whether it be for love, companionship, happiness, health, supply, or comfort, will be met.

What greater example have we of the healing and redemptive power of this loving prayer than in the regeneration of Mary Magdalene? Jesus, in this case, truly utilized the love wherewith God loves us, and this love gave him a keen insight into the true character of woman as God created her,—pure, humble, loving, consecrated. After he had thus beheld the true woman, he asked the self righteous Simon, "Seest thou this woman?" Knowing full well that self-righteous thinking never could see woman as she really is, Jesus thereupon described the love, penitence, and gratitude which Mary reflected and contrasted this with the spiritual barrenness of Simon himself, ending with that loving declaration of truth that Mary's sins were forgiven,—or as the Christian Scientist understands forgiveness, they were destroyed. Again we see how Jesus' correct view of man, including spiritual womanhood, healed. An account of this example of instantaneous healing and the lessons in compassion and forgiveness which it teaches begins the chapter on Christian Science Practice in the textbook, Science and Health. It thereby serves as a model of scientific practice for all Christian Scientists.

The recognition of the fact that God, Truth, is All-in-all includes an acknowledgment of another fact, namely, that all which is unlike God, good, must be untrue and therefore non-existent, for, as we know, a lie has no reality. In one of her Messages Mrs. Eddy writes: "If Christian Scientists only would admit that God is Spirit and infinite, yet that God has an opposite and that the infinite is not all; that God is good and infinite, yet that evil exists and is real,—thence it would follow that evil must either exist in good, or exist outside of the infinite,—they would be in peace with the schools. This departure, however, from the scientific statement, the divine Principle, rule, or demonstration of Christian Science, results as would a change of the demonstrations of mathematics; and you cannot demonstrate Christian Science except on its fixed Principle and given rule, according to the Master's teaching and proof" (Message for 1901, p. 23). The only reality to sin, disease, and death, God's opposites, is that these errors seem real to a mistaken or false sense of God and man, in the same way that a mistake in mathematics seems real to one entertaining an erroneous sense of mathematics. And just as in mathematics a mistake or false sense of things is destroyed by a correct and true view, or by the truth, so these mistaken beliefs about God and man with their resultant effects of sin, disease, and death are destroyed by the correct view of divine Love as all, and of man as Love's image and likeness. This truth revealed by Christian Science makes practical to mankind the words of Paul in his letter to the Romans that "of him, and through him, and to him are all things."

TODAYS SHORT STORY

by Ad Schuster

REAL WEALTH

THERE were but ten families in the settlement on the Koyoluk river and most of the wives were natives. Northern Alaska for a few weeks in summer is not the frigid place of popular fancy, but in the winter the elements live up to their reputation. Koyoluk, they called the place, the ten men who had come from the States in search of gold, and no boomers of a new town in a land of sun and flowers could have been more proud.

To Koyoluk went David Green, short in stature and with a heart laden with grief. He told no one of why he had left an office in a New England city to journey to the end of the earth, but he repeated the story to himself many times in the months of hardships and loneliness.

Had David Green been rich he could have married Alice Potter. If he could strike gold here in this new land he could go back and marry her. Alice, he told himself, was very desirable and the fact that she would not marry him without wealth did not lower her in his estimation.

"I'll come back one of these days," he said when he left her, "come back rich, or I won't come. Write me once in a while just to let me know you are still single, and I'll write a bit of what happens to me up North." So he departed, an object of some wonder and envy to his friends who would not have dared so hazardous an expedition.

At Koyoluk David found men. They were whiskered men with clear eyes and loud voices, men who laughed at the cold and took a great joy in small things. He smiled when he saw them listening as if entranced to a radio which brought the news and the songs of the world he had left. He wondered at the vast significance they placed in the arrival of the mail and parcel post.

David worked, and as he worked he grew strong and hard. Here was a land which would support the industrious and make wealthy the fortunate. Out of the ground he got his gold and when the snows and terrific winds came, stuck to his cabin reading, or visited with neighbors. In time he came to look upon small things as large ones, to shout glad greetings to the mail man on his monthly visits, and to listen with intense gratitude to the voices that came over the air and out of the horn of the radio.

Alice wrote that she was still single. As the months totaled a year, and then two years, she continued to write that she was waiting. It struck David that her attitude was changing, that she might even be willing to accept him now if he returned as poor as he had left. In Koyoluk he had enough. There was a little saved but his strike had not come. He wondered what he would do if it came within the week.

Then she wrote frankly asking him to come back and he struggled for hours over a reply. All he could say was that he had vowed not to return until he was rich, that she had told him she would not marry a poor man, and that he was not coming back.

When his strike came it was not much. Perhaps it would total fifty thousand dollars. Koyoluk rejoiced, for David was popular, and he was especially happy because he could repay those who had assisted him. David Green started packing his belongings. He could see that he was going to be missed and wondered how he would feel living again in a city of theaters, offices, street-cars, business and worries.

"There are no bright lights here," said David Green, "but then, there is the Aurora Borealis!" A man living at Koyoluk would not be bothered by anyone. He could write all he wished and, he thought of his friends, he could enjoy the acquaintance of people who were not looking to him for any favors.

They came to bid him goodbye and the David Green who had been refused by the girl he loved because he was poor, knew that he was rich now beyond any reckoning in money.

"I'm not going back," he said. "This little old town of Koyoluk is good enough for me!"

MY HUSBAND'S LOVE

by Adele Garrison

OVER THE 'PHONE.

IN reality it was but a few seconds, but it seemed an eternity of waiting before there faded from Edwin Braithwaite's face the rapt, absorbed look with which he followed Lillian's small daughter from the room. I was careful not to glance toward my sister-in-law, but I saw in Lillian's sudden attention to the flowers on the table her perception of the situation, and I think she was as relieved as I when the telephone rang. Dr. Braithwaite gave a shake of his broad shoulders, exactly, I told myself, as a big mastiff might prepare for battle and looked at me.

"The Durkees, do you think?" he asked.

"More probably Mother Graham," I answered, taking down the receiver. "She knows you were to arrive this evening."

My mother-in-law's excited voice fulfilled my prophecy.

"Margaret, are they there? Yes? Let me speak to Harriet."

"Right away," I promised. "Is Junior all right?

"If there were anything the matter with Richard Second, do you thing I wouldn't have telephoned you before this?" she retorted, and realizing the truth of her words, I murmured a soothing "Of course, I know you would," and beckoned my sister-in-law to the telephone.

There followed the usual colloquy of relatives who have not talked to each other for a long time, and then I saw a curious look on Harriet Braithwaite's face as she turned toward her husband.

"Mother wants me to go out there in the morning," she said. she paused tentatively but I saw a strained tense look in the eyes which watched her husband. It was that of a timorous skater putting out a foot to try ice which he fears, and I realized that she was testing her husband's wish and need for her in the same fashion.

The big surgeon looked up at her blankly and as I saw the lost helpless look with which he regarded her, my pulses leaped with joy for his wife. The maternal instinct which is in every woman would have thrilled at the revelation of his need for sympathetic comradeship which only a wife can give. Surely it was her answer for the doubts which had been besetting her.

"Why! of course, dear, go if you wish," he said, but a child could have seen that he infinitely dreaded the prospect of her absence. Long ago Harriet Braithwaite told me that she never left the house before or after one of her husband's critical operations, and I knew that she had had no slightest intention of leaving him when she spoke of it.

She smiled at him tenderly, the cameo-like austerity of her face softened into loveliness. "No, I'll wait," she said in a low tone, then again put her lips to the mouthpiece of the telephone.

"I'm sorry, Mother," she said with a finality that reminded me of my mother-in-law's own firmness, "but I cannot come out until after Mrs. Durkee's operation, unless, of course, Edwin thinks it wise to delay operating. You may be very sure I shall come to you the first minute I can. Take care of yourself. Good bye."

She hung up the receiver abruptly, and crossed to her seat. I was sure that I had heard my mother-in-law's voice in a disjointed murmur of "Let me speak to Edwin," but her daughter had taken no changes of a maternal appeal to the surgeon's chivalric consideration for his mother-in-law. There came to me anew the knowledge which former associations with my sister-in-law had given me, that Harriet Braithwaite, more than most women made a god of her brilliant, distinguished husband, and that she ruthlessly trod upon everything which hindered her care of him.

Was it wise, I pondered, to wrap any human being, even so outstanding a genius as the brilliant surgeon, in such protecting cotton wool? Would it not have been better for him—and for her—as I saw the look of relief unconsciously flashed into Edwin Braithwaite's eyes, and the happiness which glowed in his wife's face. I consigned my conjectures to the rubbish heap. At least Harriet Braithwaite had the knowledge that she had been the chief contributing factor to her husband's success. Could I say the same thing?

When Parents Raise Bars That Children Delight in Jumping

THE MALE FLIRT WHO WOULD BE A DICTATOR

Smoking Considered In the Illumination Of Hygienic Science

Speaking to this generation which, as always, KNOWS EVERYTHING, a woman with a gift of thought and expression says: "DO THEY THINK THAT OUR YEARS HAVE MADE US BLIND AND DEAD TO THE STIRRINGS ABOUT US? CAN'T THEY BE MADE TO SEE THAT WE, WHO CALLED THEM INTO EXISTENCE, DON'T WANT TO SEE OUR WORK DESTROYED? TELL ALL THE BOYS AND GIRLS, JERRY, THAT THEY ARE OUR LIFE AND WHAT THEY CREATE, GOOD OR BAD, WILL BE THEIR LIFE."

Those words are crammed with philosophy and if only children would REALIZE those thoughts behind the actions of their parents, and if parents could see how much better they could "handle" their offspring if they SAID such words of wisdom, it wouldn't be a warring world between parents and children. There would be understanding between them. But as it is, parents say, "you can't" and children say "I will," when behind the "can's" is a breaking heart, and behind the "I will" is an independent, glorious spirit that would act differently if only it UNDERSTOOD.

PARENTS AND CHILDREN DON'T SPEAK THE SAME LANGUAGE.

Dear Jerry:

This is once you are mistaken. Not often, but this time you are going to know.

When I first wrote to you I thought you would throw my problems in the discard as not your kind (such as kiddies' love troubles) and watched for my letter. And later got a bigger surprise in the wonderful letter signed "Just Because."

I would not be surprised to find the writer was one of my own friends. And agree heartily with most of her letter. But there must be some of the leader also in me, as this is what was written to me from one of the clubs I had practically quit. "Hurry up and come back to us; we need you to get us started and keep us going. If some one don't drive us, we will be sitting here judgment day, and nothing done. You are the only leader we have ever had that got anything done."

I wish, Jerry, you could read that letter and know all that went before. I think you and "Just Because" might get a view of life just a little bit different from the usual thing. I don't allow myself to hold a spite. Life is too short. And Jerry, you big comforter, the cause is too big. I shall carry on. But then, "Just Because," you helped also. I have felt myself just as Jerry's Driver looks. I hope I did not look quite so hard. I will try not to in the future.

Jerry, I handle women and girls all ways and read things they write. Why are the girls of today all nursing the idea that they are abused? They are misunderstood. Their boy friends are the only good, clean boys in the world's history. Do they think that our years have made us blind and dead to the stirrings about us. Can't they be made to see that we, who called them into existence, don't want to see our work destroyed? Tell all the boys and girls, Jerry, that they are our life and what they create, good or bad, will be their life.

A man does not build a temple and then set men to tear it down. We do not slave for years to educate and beautify our children that we may hit back and watch their destruction. Rather will we go down in the good fight, a loser, than never to have fought at all, for their happiness and preservation.

Of course, mothers should tell their children; that is part of the fight. We cannot send them to war without guns and ammunition or out to earn a living without tools and education, or far greater still, to create in the image and likeness of God, without a working knowledge.

I never wrote but one letter to you before this and I got in return—my measure filled to running over. So here is a sincere wish that each who write to you may do likewise. I think I could help a few of your lonesome girls and women, and will gladly if they prove as good as some of their letters sound.

The men are not in my line.

Sincerely, "WHY."

Truly, I thank you, Why, for that letter. I don't see how it can help but be a benefit to rebellious kiddies and "shy" mothers. Many a parent with a whole soul full of good things to express, is too BASHFUL to share them with her children.

As to the leadership and the club—DRIVE ON, and good luck!

WORDS SUGGESTED AS TEXT FOR SERMON.

Why should I write a sermon on "love" and "hate" when one has already done it for me?

Dear Jerry:

I wish to compliment you on your page, as many others have done, and also tell you that your page has helped many of my friends solve problems.

What I am writing to you about is the word HATE. Jerry, every one doesn't understand this word or they wouldn't use it and take revenge from it.

Little children say it from hearing it. I have seen little children quarreling and then one will say, "I hate you."

Also sometimes the wife or husband will have a fight and say, "I hate you." So many divorces are caused from these three words. But if the wife and husband love each other do they hate each other? No, they could not possibly, because LOVE heals and forgives everything. Jerry, please give a writing on the word HATE, it will help lots.

Another thing, Jerry dear, is the wonderful word LOVE. Foolish boys and girls at petting parties say, "I love you," and surrender themselves to passionate kisses and going-ons (as most people would call it) and are afterwards sorry for it.

Sincerely,

ONE WHO'S YOUR PAL.

It isn't an explanation that anyone needs, Friend, for the world knows the difference in the real meaning. We've simply become a careless world, and "adore" lemon pie, or else buy a "darling" frock. Something else is "too sweet" for words. The emotional youngster indulging in a petting party is quite sure it is "love" and only experience can tell him differently.

Perhaps we need a campaign for pure English, but not for dictionaries and sermons on the real meaning of WORDS.

THIS LAD SEEMS TO BELIEVE IN MONOPOLY.

Now here is "Sweet Sixteen." She's in LOVE. She's quite sure of it, and all the statements that 16-year-old youngsters are growing, changing little animals, would have no effect upon her. L-O-V-E it is!

Dear Jerry:

I am in a dreadful fix and think I am doing the right thing in writing you about it. I am Sweet Sixteen and have never been kissed and I go with a boy 19 years old. The trouble is that he thinks that I shouldn't look at anybody but him, and he gets angry if I do. Yet he flirts with every girl he sees. I do not want to tell him where to get off, because I am very much in love with him, yet I cannot go on this way. Please help me, as you have helped many others.

Sweet Sixteen.

One of the first things you have to do in life, is FIGHT YOUR OWN BATTLES, and telling "young men where to get off" is one of the most important. If you haven't got the independence and gumption to play for a few years, and KEEP YOUR INDEPENDENCE, you'll be miserable. Grow a spine, girl, grow a spine!

THE CHILDREN WHO CRAVE EXPERIENCE.

Dearest Jerry:

Well, here I come at last, after ever so many threats to have my say. I want to express ideas on the modern young people. I am only 15 years old, but I am a low senior in one of the high schools near here and I want to say a few words for the high school "kids." The main thought is, THEY'RE NOT AS BAD AS THEY'RE PAINTED. Older people of today say that the young people are going to the dogs, but they aren't. They aren't really BAD either, but just a little daring, and they want to find out for themselves. They don't want to be told, they scorn advice and, as they've always heard that experience is the best teacher, they'll have her for theirs.

Show me anyone in Grandma's day, or any day gone by, who didn't think it was fun to flirt—of course, maybe not so openly as they do today, but it always was the same since the world began. If grandma even glanced at a young man, why she and he too, got as much fun out of it as one does out of a wink or a little smile these days. And even mother didn't, or wouldn't think of going out with a young man to a barn dance, or to church on Sunday nights? Oh, no! Why she was tickled to death. The girl who used snuff then was considered worse by people than the girl who smokes and drinks now. There always were some people who would go to extremes, and there always will be, too.

The modern girl doesn't flirt to be bad, or anything of the like, but she gets a little kick out of it. Most of them won't go with fellows they can pick up by flirting. They do flirt and they have a right to. It used to be the boys who flirted, but now the girls have started, and why shouldn't they? They have as much right to as boys—it is no worse for a girl to smoke, drink or swear than it is for a boy. Why shouldn't a girl be able to have just as good times as a boy has? You often hear, "Oh, she's a girl, and she's such a big tomboy." Because a girl enjoys the same sports boys do, she is cast aside.

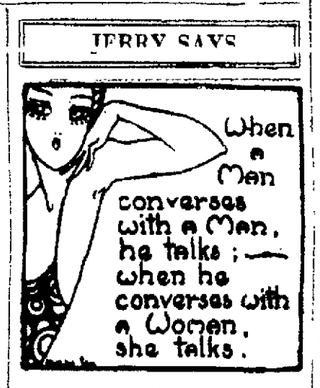

I'm afraid I could rave on forever. I've all round up but just one more point and I'll stop. The morals of this so-called jazz age are no worse than they were ever since ol' Sol started on his rounds. And, moreover, neither is this more of a jazz age than all the others. They used to have popular songs, considered just as jazzy as ours today. How about "Turkey in the Straw?" Grandad, didn't you used to love to clog to it? Don't forget you were young once.

Well, I guess I've said enough. I'll close.

I. L. Tellum.

Sure, you'll tell 'em. That's what we're doing these days. But let's tell 'em something besides "girls can smoke if boys can. It's no worse for girls to smoke than boys." Of course it isn't. It's no worse for me to steal a diamond ring than it is for No. 2055 in San Quentin. I could stand the prison bed and board as well as he can, but if smoking isn't good for a young girl's constitution, neither is it good for a boy's, and why should there be two weaklings instead of one?

The old way of reasoning—"If my husband can, I can," IS THE BUNK!

PERSONAL WORD.

WIFE IN NAME ONLY. I could not possibly print your letter much as I would like to, and I have no idea of a cure for your husband. He seems to me to be mentally rotten and I know of no method of mind-cleaning at his age. It is one of those cases where time decides. What else is there to do?

I'm sorry, you must know that, but I'm sure I don't see how I, or anyone, can help.

HOPING SO. I have only one suggestion to make—see a reliable physician. I know of no books to read. You need professional advise.

E. G. S. I hope, little mother, that you've found work for yourself and the two babies.

A. A. Please believe me when I say that I trust you. I have written as you suggested, but asked nothing. I don't want to take a chance on hurting anyone, and I appreciate what you tried to do. Know, too, that your letters are always welcome.

STRAIGHT THINKING for Modern Women

Keep a Lock On Your Mouth.

By ETHEL R. PEYSER.

Former Director of The Good Housekeeping Institute, Household Editor House and Garden, author of "Cheating the Junk Pile."

More people have lost their jobs because they've talked too much than that their work was badly done.

Now, for impulsive human people nothing is more simple and natural than to talk—and to talk about the people on the job!

Don't do it!

Talk about elephants. Talk about hats. Talk about giants. But—leave the staff alone. If you have kicks make them to your superior, don't complain to anyone—even your best friend if she is on the same job with you.

For some reason or other, all the other listeners may thing what you do, and unconsciously—you become the spokesman—even the scape goat.

It is learned that you said so and so, that you are the kicker; that you don't like Mr. S—— or that you have complained about this or that.

Then what happens? Adjustments, readjustments are to be made and (1) all the little listeners get raised. You get no raise. Or (2) all the little listeners are kept. You get fired.

I've seen this time and again. Why? Because some of the little listeners—or only one—may have brought your absolutely unmeant, harmless criticisms to your superiors, and with the wrong coloring, paint you blacker than you should be painted. The repeated word is always ten shades darker than the original statement! Don't forget it!

There is only one place to open your mouth in criticism and that is to your boss! Then he'll get it straight from you without garnishings. What you haven't said, can't hurt you, and if you get the name for being close-mouthed, you're safe. But—don't let your mouth ever shut on the right sort of sympathetic action to a pal—and here you will often wonder how you can be sympathetic when some one in the job has hurt your pal.

But you can be—sympathy isn't running down any absent one—it is "running up" the one present!

Very often, when you talk too much on the job a certain aroma of disloyalty may appear to be in what you are saying, even though you had no thought of it. Disloyalty to the firm you are with is very bad policy. Here again if you haven't something good to say, don't say it, unless you are ready to move on to some other post.

So much time is spent in re-hashing what was said and what wasn't said that it is wiser not to make the controverseries which cause such wastage. Hence keep a lock on your mouth. However, whenever you are asked a direct question, tell the truth. Tell it kindly, for nothing but the truth is worthy of any of us who are trying to live to the best that is within us and without us.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

By Mildred Marshall

EUNICE

Eunice, like Evangeline, is one of the "glad" names in the lexicon of feminine cognomens. Like Evangeline also, it comes from the Greek word meaning well, or happy. Eunice is translated to mean "happy victory."

Because of its significance, the Greek word from which Eunice was derived, was taken over in early times by the Christians, who adored names of happy augury. The names coming from this favorite word are almost beyond enumeration, but curiously, only a few of them have survived to modern times.

Eunice is one of these latter. It made its appearance as Eunike, one of the fifty Nereids. Her name straightway became popular among Greek women, but it remained for Eunice, the Jewish mother of Timothy, to give it vogue in the days of early Christianity. English lovers of Bible names have favored it for centuries and it is still popular in all the countries of Europe, though particularly adapted to English and American usage.

The topaz is the talismanic gem assigned to Eunice. "The chrysolite of sunrise." Shelley calls it. It is said to preserve its wearer from all dangers and to warn of approaching evil by paling in color, but it will be rendered impotent unless it is set in gold. To dream of it signifies that no harm shall befall. Tuesday is Eunice's lucky day and 5 her lucky number. The chrysanthemum, signifying cheerfulness, is her flower.

A MAN WHO WAS AFRAID OF SHADOWS.

Once there was a man whose name was Scare Crow. It was a nickname. His real name was John. He was named Scare Crow because when he sees the shadow of anything he would just scream and screech and do every sort of thing.

Now one day his wife told him to go to the market and buy some food. In going to market it was a long way off. It was more than a half days journey, so in order to reach the market in time he must wake up early in the morning. So Scare Crow slept earlier than before because he had to wake up early the next morning.

Next morning when he woke up the moon was still in the sky and the stars were twinkling gayly up in the sky. The wind was calm and not a sound was heard in the house except his own footsteps. Scare Crow went to the basin and tried to wash his face but he was so sleepy that he began to yawn mighty hard. All of a sudden to Scare Crow's fright there was an ugly figure with hairs sticking out stiff, and the hands stretching out as if to jump on him the very moment. Scare Crow was so frightened that he went back to his bed and went to sleep again. Scare Crow didn't know that it was his shadow on the wall.

By that time his wife was up and made the breakfast ready, but she was surprised for not finding her husband at the table. So she began to search every corner of the house, but she couldn't find him. At last she found out that she had not searched his room so she hurried to his room. There she found him sleeping soundly as a top. She shook him to wake up but he didn't wake up, so she yelled out, "Fire!" Then Scare Crow woke up, and rubbed his eyes, and yelled out, "Where?! Where!" The wife saw him wake up and went yelling out into the street so she called out, "There is no fire" and she began to laugh. She laughed so loud that all the people of the valley came out to see her.

Scare Crow again dressed himself, finished his toilet and ate his breakfast. The sun was already high in the sky. Scare Crow had to walk fast in order to reach the market by daylight. So he started his journey with some sandwiches that his wife had made.

On his way he met his friend Fooly. He said, "Good morning Fooly."

But Fooly answered, "Why it is not morning, it is afternoon," and he walked on.

Scare Crow was surprised to hear that but he walked on. The sun was already sinking down and night was drawing near. At last Scare Crow reached the market and bought the foods that he wanted. Then he walked toward his home. In going home he had to take another road by a feast. Scare Crow didn't know that there was a forest but he walked on. At last he came to the forest. He passed there without any hesitation but all at once he saw something moving at his side. He turned and looked, with curiosity. There he saw something that looked black and had a ghostly appearance. He was so frightened that he ran and screamed all over the forest. Night have come and the forest was dark. After screaming all over the forest he lost his way. At that time he became hungry so he ate his sandwiches. As he was eating an owl passed near him and said, "Are you afraid of shadows?" At that instant Scare Crow realized that he was afraid of shadows and ask the owl to show the way. The owl showed his way and Ccare Crow went home.

He laid the food down and told her all that had happened. His wife laughed at him for being afraid of shadows. She told him to wake up early when he is going to market so that he won't have to come home in the dark.

Next day he was not afraid of shadows and he became kind and gentle. So the neighbors loved him and didn't call him Scare Crow any more. They began to call him John and Fooley envied him so much that he went to the forest and lived there ever afterwards. As for John he lived peaceably with his wife and was not afraid of shadows anymore. Everything was settled except Fooly.

AN ADVENTURE.
(A True Story.)

One day I asked Mother, "May we go on a picnic in the woods?" Mother said "Yes." My father, my mother and sister and brother and I went.

(My father took his gun, as he was going to shoot ducks.)

I went on ahead to find a place suitable for us to eat our lunch. I found a place in the very thickest part of the woods. I started back to tell them that I found this place, but could not find the way back. I began to holler, but could not make them hear me, so I thought the best plan to do was to try and find our way out. I started in walking. I saw bush. It seemed to be moving. I was right, for out of the trees ran a big brown bear. He started to chase me.

By this time my mother was very much worried over me. She sent my father after me.

He arrived just in time, for the bear was gaining every minute. He shot the bear and received $500 for it. He gave me the money. I gave my mother half and put the other half in the bank. We lived happily ever after.

THE EASTER RABBIT.

There was once a rabbit whose name was Pinkie. The reason why they called him that was that he had pink eyes and pink nose. Pinkie always liked to put Easter eggs in the nest on Easter morn. But his mother, Mrs. Cotton Tail, would not let him. Because he would stop on the way or upset the basket or something like that. It was Easter morn about 5 o'clock in the morning when Mrs. Cotton Tail and Pinkie started for the nests in the neighborhood. When they were through they went home to dinner. The big brown cook had cooked a nice carrot pie and a turnip salad and a bowl of cabbage juice. They had a good time. And I also wished you had such a dinner as the rabbits had. Happy Easter to you.

Uncle Wiggily Stories

By HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY'S BREAD AND JAM.

When Uncle Wiggily hopped out of his hollow stump bungalow one bright sunny morning, Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy said to him:

"You had better take a little lunch with you when you go adventuring today, Mr. Longears."

"Why so?" asked the bunny rabbit gentleman.

"Because," answered his muskrat lady housekeeper, "I am going to have company soon. A number of the animal ladies are coming to stay to lunch and I know you don't want to be bothered with them. So if you took some lunch with you—say a carrot sandwich and a bit of turnip cake—you wouldn't have to come home. You could stay out in the woods and fields until night. By that time the ladies will have gone home."

"Thank you. It's a great idea. I'll do it!" said Mr. Longears. "As you say, I don't want to be around when the bungalow is filled with ladies. I'd better keep out of the way."

"I'll put up a little lunch," kindly offered the muskrat lady housekeeper, which she did.

With his turnip cake and carrot sandwiches in his pocket, Uncle Wiggily hopped over the fields and through the woods looking on every side for an adventure.

But adventures seemed rather scarce that day. The only one the rabbit gentleman could see was an April shower. The sun went under a cloud, the sky grew dark and soon the rain drops came pelting down.

"And I didn't bring an umbrella!" cried Uncle Wiggily. "My pink nose will get wet, it may shrink like a flannel sweater and then I can't twinkle it! I must look for shelter."

Not far away grew a big toadstool, and Uncle Wiggily hopped under this until the April shower had passed. Sitting on a little stone beneath the toadstool, Uncle Wiggily began to feel hungry.

"It is nearly noon," he said, "I shall eat the lunch Nurse Jane put up for me, and then I shall hop on to look for more adventures."

Uncle Wiggily ate his lunch, slowly twinkling his pink nose now and then to keep it from shrinking, and as he dropped crumbs on the ground, little ant boys and girls crawled out to eat them. Uncle Wiggily was kind to the ants.

The sun shone again, and the rabbit gentleman was about to hop on, when a voice cried:

"Oh, Uncle Wiggily, have you anything more to eat! I'm so hungry! Please give me something!"

The rabbit looked down and saw Bully No-Tail, one of the frog boys, hopping up out of the goldfish pond near by.

"Alas, Bully, I have nothing left! I ate it all!" said the bunny.

"Haven't you any bread and jam?" asked Bully. "I'm so hungry for bread and jam!"

"No, I haven't any," Uncle Wiggily answered. "But I'll get some for you, Bully. "Come on, we'll hop to my bungalow. Nurse Jane has company, but I can hop in the back way, go in the pantry, get you some bread and jam and she will never know it if I don't make any noise."

"Oh, goodie!" croaked Bully, clapping his paws happily. "I love bread and jam."

Uncle Wiggily hopped along over the fields and through the woods, and Bully hopped with him until they were near the hollow stump bungalow. The bunny told the frog boy to hide in the bushes and wait.

"I'll slip in the back way and get you some bread and jam," promised Uncle Wiggily. Once in his bungalow he could hear the animal ladies talking to Nurse Jane. "I don't want them to know I am here. They might laugh at me for coming back to get bread and jam," thought the bunny.

He searched around in the pantry finding the bread, butter and jam. He was spreading a lot of jam on the bread, when, all of a sudden, his paw slipped and he knocked down the jug of molasses.

Haven't you any bread and jam?" asked Bully.

"Bang!" the jug fell on the floor. "Crack!" it burst open. "Plop" out spilled the molasses.

"Oh dear!" cried Uncle Wiggily, as he slipped, fell and sat down right in a big puddle of molasses. Then he tried to get up but he couldn't because he was stuck fast to the floor in the molasses.

"Did you hear that terrible noise, Nurse Jane?" bleated Aunt Lettie, the goat lady. "It's in your pantry! Maybe it's the fox!"

"I'll find out!" said Nurse Jane. Going to the pantry door she asked:

"Who is there?"

"I—I am!" answered Uncle Wiggily.

"Oh, well, come out!" and Nurse Jane laughed.

"I can't come out!" said the bunny. "I can't get up!"

"Oh, the Fox has Uncle Wiggily; the Fox is holding Uncle Wiggily fast in the pantry so he can't get out," bleated Aunt Lettie. She was a very nervous and excited goat lady. "Call the Police Dog!" she cried.

"No! No! Don't call the police! I'm only stuck in the molasses!" said Uncle Wiggily. And how the animal ladies laughed when they saw him sitting in a puddle of the sticky stuff.

"Next time I want bread and jam for a frog boy I'll walk in the front door and ask for it," said Mr. Longears, when Nurse Jane had thawed him loose with some warm water. Then the muskrat lady gave Bully something to eat and the bunny gentleman also, but it was a long time before the animal ladies stopped laughing when they thought of the molasses.

And if the egg beater doesn't get dizzy and fall down the cellar stairs after it has helped the chocolate cake get in bed, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily an' the goldfish.

Miss Baxter Is Hostess At Bridge Tea

The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Baxter in Oakland avenue was the scene of a bridge tea this afternoon when their daughter, Miss Vivian Baxter, entertained in honor of two brides-elect, Miss Carolyn Rodolph and Miss Theiline McGee. About sixty guests played bridge, and assisting to receive were Mrs. A. A. Baxter, Mrs. Frank Wishon, Mrs. Stephen Bechtel, Mrs. William Stafford Gibbs, Mrs. H. X. Baxter, Mrs. John Lindley Reith, Miss Elizabeth Safford, Miss Sara Parker, Miss Mary Le Baron, Miss Lora Pratt, Miss Elizabeth Ten Eyck.

The surprise of the afternoon was the announcement of the betrothal of a sorority sister of the hostess, that of Miss Adnelle West Robinson, who makes her home at the chapter house in Berkeley, and William Allan Harger of Claremont.

Miss Robinson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Asher Robinson of Twin Falls, Idaho, and is a graduate of Miss Head's school in the college city. She receives her degree from the University of California next month.

Harger is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Allan Harger of Claremont Court. He was graduated from the University of California with the class of '23, and is an Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity man. He is a member of the Pi Delta Epsilon honor man, and last year was manager of the Daily Californian.

Miss Robinson will return to her home in Idaho in the fall when plans will be completed for her wedding the first of the year.

Among those who played bridge were Mesdames Harold Havre, John L. Reith, Rochelle Blair, Beach Soule, John Wayne Higson, Paul S. Stewart, William S. Gibbs, Frederick Reimers, Frank Wishon, Stephen Bechtel, Robert Houston, Russell Canfield, Cecil Matthew and the Misses Adnelle Robinson, Marjorie Blair, Cecelia von Bokkelen, Gertrude Bosworth, Vera Bernhard, Vera Lewis, Helen Rodolph, Kitty Belle Long, Annalee McGee, Elizabeth Moore, Geraldine Gannon, Lora Pratt, Elizabeth Howard, Carol Botsford, Margaret Cox, Helen Glassford, Myrtle Chamberlain, Sara Parker, Mary Le Baron, Doris Hoyt, Elizabeth Warner, Janet Brown, Ruth Mabee, Ruby Hayes, Elizabeth Safford, Jane Stow, Betsy Taft, Betty Hay, Margaret Martin, Elaine Carroll, Martha Dutton, Florence Clark, Harriet Griffith, Florence Nichols, Elizabeth Ten Eyck, Gertrude Matthew and Elizabeth Mendell.

Traffic in Bones.

In the old days, when the Chinese population of California was far greater than it is now, an important item of cargo shipments to the Orient were the bones of Chinese originally buried here, but dug up for reinterment in the land of their ancestors. In those days California also sent large shipments of bones of animals to New York to be manufactured into buttons and knife handles. But now such shipments go to the Orient to be turned into mah jongg sets.

D. A. R. Honors New Officers At Luncheon

By EDNA B. KINARD.

Daughters of the American Revolution are looking toward Saturday, May 3, as one of the important days in the season's calendar, the spring reciprocity luncheon at the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, being arranged to honor the newly-elected state officers and delegates returning from the national congress in Washington, D. C. Mrs. Lyman Stookey of Los Angeles, past state regent, and a large body of southern Daughters, will be especially complimented. The new state officers will inaugurate their administration in presiding over the monthly conferences which call from the various patriotic chapters bordering on San Francisco bay large groups of members.

Mrs. W. A. D'Egilbert, 707 Stockton street, San Francisco, as chairman of the day, is being assisted by Miss Lily Cole, Berkeley 5140-W. Reservations for luncheon may be made with either member of the committee.

Charles W. Helser, president of the California Development association, will give the principal address of the day. Patriotic songs will be contributed to the program by Mrs. Gertrude Agden O'Neal.

Mrs. H. J. Mannhart of Berkeley is the newly elected state regent. Officers who will assist her in carrying on the important work of the organization this year are: Mrs. Jesse Shreve, San Diego, vice-regent; Mrs. Henley Booth, Berkeley, corresponding secretary; Mrs. L. P. Boyce, San Francisco, recording secretary; Mrs. Edwin Frank, Oakland, treasurer; Mrs. E. T. Hart, San Francisco, auditor for the north; Mrs. E. H. Bean, Los Angeles, auditor for the south; Miss Lily Cole, Berkeley, consulting registrar; Miss Louisa P. Merritt, Pasadena, historian; Mrs. J. F. Kent, Hollywood, librarian; Mrs. M. M. Maybury, Los Angeles, chaplin.

Grant Parent Teacher association is inviting its members and friends to a card party on Friday afternoon that its treasury, to be expended in child welfare, may be satisfactorily increased. The mothers have chosen to entertain in Covenant hall, Temple Sinai, Twenty-eighth and Webster streets, the nearest auditorium to the school.

As one of the youngest of the parent teacher associations of the city, the Grant club is striving to write a record before the close of the semester which will equal that of the older groups.

Mrs. E. R. Crum, home department chairman, Second District, California Congress of Mothers, will be the speaker on Friday before the regular meeting of the Fruitvale Parent Teacher association, meeting in the school auditorium.

California club women will be hostesses in thirty hotels of Los Angeles on Sunday afternoon, June 8, in compliment to the several thousand delegates who will come west for attendance upon the biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's clubs in that city. The informal teas will be held simultaneously between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock, offering opportunity to the visitors to greet that great band of women who have planned so generously for their entertainment during the 10-day conference.

Beginning on June 3 when 1000 California clubwomen will lunch together at the Biltmore, the convention headquarters, Mrs. Oliver C. Bryant, chairman of luncheons, has arranged for approximately 30 noontime feasts during the general convention. Two luncheons of 1000 guests each, one for 800, one for 600 and one for 500 are among those which have already been contracted for.

LIFE'S DARKEST MOMENT ---By Webster

Our Cheery Chum

A Suit for the Crown Bearer.

"This is the way we'll have the May Day Pageant," announced Betty Cut-out. "First Henry will come out on the lawn and do his jester stunts. All the people will be sitting around in a big circle and at one end will be the Queen's throne. Then the pink roses will do their dance while Henry runs back and changes his costume. Next will come the May Queen procession with Henry leadin as the crown-bearer. The May Queen will sit on her throne and watch the maypole dance."

"Here's the suit of green leaves Henry will wear," Nancy said.

"What kind of leaves do you think they are?" Tom Cut-up asked Billy. The boys had just joined the group of seamstresses.

LITTLE LIAR'S CORNER.
"Now the morning up at Castafic Creek when I hooked that eleven-pound rainbow.... "CHARLIE MAIGNE."

HOLLYWOOD, April 23.—Talking about Charlie Maigne's eleven-pound rainbow trout reminds us of the other day when we went up the road apiece with a bunch of the earnest young fishermen about town to a place named Rainbow Angling Club, and ever since we went up there we kind of been intending to pen a little piece for this here colyum about same. It seems like this here Rainbow Angling Club has become pretty popular here lately with the young and old bloods who hanker to get their casting arms all oiled up before the trout season opens the first of May. The day we were there we ran into Conway Tearle and his wife, both angling; also Estelle Taylor and quite some others. A good time was being had by all.

ESTELLE TAYLOR.

This here Rainbow place was started by a bird named Leigh Guernsey, who dammed up a stream and made a series of little rustic pools and filled them full of rainbow trout. Then he put up a lot of rustic shelters here and there with fireplaces and everything, and organized a fishing club and went to it. It is one those places where tired actors can go and rough it out in the untamed wild open space accompanied by nothing but cook, butler, valet, limousine and truck to carry home the fish. And the last six words are no joke.

You probably read sometimes about how all the high priced movie stars are buying apartment houses and flat buildings and hotels and everything that looks like it ought to be real estate, and how Norma Talmadge is putting up a big apartment, and all that.

Well, sir, here the other day who should we run into but little Beth Kosik and her little sister, Marguerite, starting out to work for the day. They work around here and there, and you see them in pictures every day without knowing, probably who they are. Marguerite is only 8, and Beth isn't more than 15 or so. And we stopped to pass the time of day and this and that, and all they could talk about was that they'd just started buying an acre apiece away out in the country some place.

And they talked about the big oak trees on their acres, and the beautiful grass, and everything, and we just got to thinking that we bet they got a lot more kick out of spending their few little dollars than some of the stars get out of spending all their thousands.

Personally, we've got kind of a weakness for dogs, and we're one of those nuts that go around patting strange dogs on the head and sometimes getting away with it.

And over on the Goldwyn lot the other day we met Stuart Holmes, and Stew has a police dog named Bojer, and while we were talking to Stew here came Bojer trotting up with a pair of shoes in his mouth. And Stew took the shoes and patted the dog, and the dog laid down and Stew didn't seem to think anything about it. But the folks around the set tell us that all Stew has to do is to write a little note, when he wants anything, and tell ojer to take it to the dressing room, and whoever is in the dressing room gives the dog what Stew wants, and Bojer takes it back.

This is not much of a story, but we kind of wanted to put Bojer's name in the paper and give him a thrill.

MY FAVORITE STORIES by IRVIN S. COBB

Before Bob Davis settled down to be a magazine editor, he was a sport writer and fancier of pugilism. When Fitzsimmons was getting ready to fight Corbett for the heavyweight championship in 1897, Davis, as staff correspondent for a big city paper, was sent to Carson to cover the story. It was for him a congenial assignment. He liked prizefighters and had spent his boyhood in Nevada.

He made his headquarters in Fitz's training camp where he speedily distinguished himself, among other things, as a sincere and eager trencherman. He was brilliant at all times but at mealtimes he especially shone even against spirited competition from a crew of handlers and sparring partners.

One morning he went with Fitz for an exercise spin over a country road. As the two Bobs trotted along, the fighter presently drew ahead.

"I don't feel so well," answered Davis.

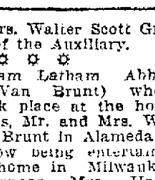

"What's the matter?" inquired the Cornishman.

"I've lost my appetite," said Davis, between pants.

Our Children By Angelo Patri

CHILD LABOR.

When a child works to earn the money that feeds and clothes him, or helps to do so, he becomes a laborer, and no child should be that in this country. When one learns that three-year-old children work on the flowers and feathers the ladies wear on their hats one does not care to see the pretty hats. They are no longer pretty because they represent hours of play and glad growing time stolen from babies that some greedy creature may wallow in idleness and worse.

When children work nine hours a day in a factory for a few dollars a week and have no chance to go to school because a mill owner wants to reduce costs and increase profits, one begins to have a bitter contempt for the mill owners who have such a point of view, who can enjoy money gained in that way.

Children are entitled to their childhood and all that childhood promises. The country or the individual who attempts to cheat them out of it is bound to pay a severe price in the end. There are some laws that we may not break with impunity and the law of child-growth is one of them.

School should make the first claim on the children's time. People can have little patience with grown men who say that compulsory schooling is depriving the parents of natural rights in their children. The only thing that is concerning these people are the rights they claim to work the children.

No parents would force their children to work in a mill or a factory or in the back room of a tenement unless they were obliged to do so to keep body and soul together. They want the children to grow into healthy, happy men and women with a better prospect than they had, but living conditions forced by the business administration of these child-exploiting employers make this impossible.

I believe in work for children and grown people alike, but I hate exploitation of the weak. The grown-ups at least have a chance to show fight occasionally, but the children are helpless.

But we are to blame, we who know what schools mean and how they are established and how they work. We who know that there are places where the schools are few and mean, where the factory owner can say, "My factory is a better educational plant than your school," and we would be hard put to it to deny him.

Until education takes a place of importance equal to that of industry in the consciousness of the people of the country the children must continue to suffer. That will come about when those of us who believe in the schools and believe in the rights of children and the rights of this country to its children at their very best, get out of our office chairs and fight as hard for the decent education of the children as the employers fight for their business.

Finnegans

(Try these "first cousins" to cinnamon buns at your next afternoon tea)

2 cupfuls flour
2 teaspoonfuls baking powder
1 teaspoonful salt
2 tablespoonfuls Crisco; milk

Filling—

½ cupful Crisco
1 cupful sugar
1 teaspoonful cinnamon
1 egg yolk

Cream Crisco with sugar and cinnamon. Add egg yolk. Sift dry ingredients. Work in Crisco with finger-tips or knives. Stir in just enough milk to moisten mixture. Roll out on floured board, to ¼-inch thick. Spread with filling mixture. Roll up and cut into slices ½-inch thick. Place each slice, cut side down, on baking pan well greased with Crisco, and bake in moderate oven about 15 minutes. Serve warm.

Greater Baking Capacity

with the wonderful Fresh-Air Oven—a 16-inch Estate has baking capacity of ordinary 18-inch oven!

IN comparing prices, please consider this important advantage of Estate Gas Ranges. There are no openings in the sides of the oven, and this means uniformity of heat in every inch of the oven.

Estate GAS RANGES

Bake With Fresh Air

CHICAGO, April 23.—Wheat traders marked time today during the early dealings and effected no decided change in prices. Apparently neither sellers nor buyers were willing to take any determined stand for the time being and were confining their efforts to adjustment of open accounts. The bulk of wheat transactions consisted of changing over from May delivery to July. Opening prices, which varied from ⅛c off to ⅛c up, May $1.03¼ to 1.03½ and July $1.05¾, were followed by only trifling changes in either direction.

Corn and oats held steady with wheat. After opening unchanged to ¼c lower, May 77¾ to 77½c the corn market dipped a little and then scored slight gains in some cases.

Oats started at ⅛c@¼c decline to a like advance, May 46⅛ to 46⅞-@47c, and later duplicated the action of corn.

Lower quotations on hogs made the provision market easy.

BUSINESS and FINANCE

By H. S. SCOTT.

British and French exchanges mounted to new high prices for the year today on heavy buying from European sources, which was described by some local dealers as belated short covering. French francs touched 6.82 in New York, and demand sterling was quoted at $4.40. Other European rates improved in sympathy.

The oils stood their ground today and while no startling gains were made, yet most of the big California companies scored advances after the first hour of selling, and the progress was slow but steady for the remainder of the morning session in San Francisco. The Hawaiian sugars too were slightly stronger. On the other hand, there seemed to be some slight edging down on the part of the utility stocks.

Realization that the short interest was becoming overcounted, which was revealed by the unprecedented number of shares loaning flat, brought about an extensive covering movement into today's New York stock market which carried many shares 1 to 5 points above yesterday's closing figures. Sales approximated 700,000 shares.

Aggressive buying was nowhere in evidence, but continued covering brought about steady improvement throughout the general list. Motor, oil and specialty shares scored fractional gains, but American Woolen continued under selling pressure due to the unfavorable trade reports from the textile industry, falling to a new low at 62¼. General Electric advanced 2 points and gains ranging fromfractions to more than a point were registered by Baldwin, Allied Chemical, Colorado Fuel and Iron, Gulf States Steel, Chandler and Maxwell Motors A.

Congoleum and Norfolk & Western declined from 1 to 2 points.

The report of Cities Service Company for 1923 which has just been issued shows a substantial increase in earnings over the preceding year. The gross earnings were $16,602,562, as compared with $14,658,971 in 1922, and net to stock was $13,468,760, as compared with $11,847,119. This was the equivalent, after the deduction of preferred dividends, to $18.28 a share earned on the average amount of common stock outstanding during the year. In 1922, $14.88 was earned on the common stock then outstanding.

Gross earnings of Cities Service Company which came from public utility subsidiaries alone increased 35% to $11,278,508 from $8,347,546 in 1922. In spite of the fact that the oil industry became demoralized because of the abnormal overproduction of crude oil, the gross earnings of the company's oil division showed a decline of less than one million dollars, the amount for 1923 being $5,521,054 as compared with $6,311,425 in 1922. How unusual this overproduction was is shown in the report by the statement that during the past eleven years fourteen major oil pools, with a daily production of 100,000 barrels or more, were developed in the United States, of which eight reached their maximum production in 1923.

The earnings from utility properties alone were not only sufficient to take care of all expenses, interest charges and the preferred dividend, but also provided a substantial balance for the common stock, all of the earnings from the oil operations of the company's subsidiaries being applicable to the common stock.

DIVIDENDS.

Pacific Gas and Electric—Quarterly dividend of $1.50 on preferred, payable May 15 to stock of April 30.

Brooklyn Edison—Regular quarterly dividend of $3, payable June 2 to stock of May 31.

Van Raalte, Inc.—Regular quarterly of 1¾ per cent on first preferred.

Mexican Seaboard Oil—Resumption of dividends at rate of 50 cents a share quarterly. Last dividend was paid in June, 1923.

METAL MARKET

NEW YORK, April 23.—Copper steady, electrolytic spot and futures 13⅜c, tin firm, spot and futures $49.87. Iron steady, prices unchanged. Lead steady; spot $7.87 to $8.25. Zinc steady E. St. Louis spot and futures ... spot $5.77.

REFINING END OF SINCLAIR LINKED TO TEAPOT DOME

Cancellation of Lease Might Involve Loss of About Million.

By ARTHUR L. BREWER.

(F). SINCLAIR REFINING COMPANY.

By far the two largest customers of the Sinclair Crude Oil Purchasing company are the Sinclair Refining company and the Standard Oil company of Indiana. The trunk lines of the Pipe Line company have already been shown to be connected with various refineries of the Sinclair Refining company (at East Chicago and other strategic points) and with the Whiting refinery of Standard Oil of Indiana. Apparently, the Sinclair Refining company stands to lose up to $1,000,000 in the event of the Government's winning the equity suit respecting Naval Reserve No. 3. We propose to go into this matter.

The Refining company is owned 100 per cent by Sinclair Consolidated. Presumably it would benefit from the development of the Reserve to this extent, that it would gain from that source additional oil to refine.

We are informed by Harry F. Sinclair, through the Wall Street Journal, that the Refining company has almost completed a "storage installation for the U. S. Navy at Portsmouth, N. H., the total cost of which will be less than $1,000,000". Also, "the cost of this installation and of filling it with oil for the use of the Navy is to be liquidated by the proceeds from royalty oil accruing to the Government through Mammoth Oil company's operations."

DISPUTED STORAGE.

The bill of complaint filed by the Government's counsel, it is reported, "requests the court to decree that the Teapot Dome lease, and supplemental contract providing for the erection of oil storage at naval bases be declared null and void, and that Mammoth be directed to surrender them to the government for cancellation." And it is described as stating that "the crude oil company and the pipe line company claim to have certain rights derived from Mammoth Oil," and as alleging that they are trespassers.

Our interpretation of this situation is that a successful issue for the government would probably be followed by the government's declining to pay the Sinclair Refining Company for the aforesaid storage.

However, let it be assumed that the government has no such intention. Has it made enough money from the lease to meet that million dollar bill?

The statement of Mr. Sinclair himself is open to the interpretation that, unless Mammoth Oil produces enough oil to net the government $1,000,000 royalties—in other words, unless Mammoth produces anywhere from $8,000,000 down to $2,000,000 worth of oil (the royalty scale being 12½ per cent to 50 per cent of production)—the Sinclair Refining Company may have trouble in collecting its million dollars.

RECENT RECORDS.

Over the last 15 months Salt Creek crude sold at a mean average price of something like $1.22 a barrel, and on that basis we may roughly estimate that anywhere from 6,500,000 bbls. down to 1,600,000 bbls. would necessarily need to have been the Mammoth production represented by the sums just mentioned ($8,000,000 and $2,000,000).

In view of the known production of Mammoth at the end of 1923, and of the royalty scale, which ranges from 12½ per cent production of wells producing 50 bbls. a day and under to 50 per cent output of wells yielding 1000 bbls. a day and over, and of the number of wells now known to be yielding the present total output of about 3500 bbls. per day, it seems certain that nothing like enough oil has been produced to date to yield royalties sufficient to cover that million-dollar bill.

If as high as 6,500,000 barrels production was the requirement, it is possible that the production is still about 5,000,000 barrels short of sufficient to provide the government with enough money for the payment. In this event it would take Mammoth Oil another four years as from January 1, 1924, to get that quantity of oil at its present rate of output.

Accordingly, if Mammoth is forced on to the rocks, there is quite a substantial chance that the refining company's bill will never be liquidated.

ROYALTIES $279,651 TO DATE.

Since that conclusion was arrived at we have received a Washington advice which seems to corroborate it. This says that Mammoth's production from Teapot Dome to March 3, 1924, was 1,174,191 bbls. of fuel oil, and that 184,581 bbls. of this, valued at $279,651, was credited to the government. This advice seems to clinch the matter; the great bulk of the money wherewith the government would pay for the Portsmouth storage has yet to be earned from Mammoth's efforts, and the government has temporarily restrained those efforts and is trying permanently to restrain them.

The refining company, according to Sinclair as quoted by the Wall Street Journal, is under no obligation for the construction of further installations or for the delivery of additional oil, "except as and when such construction and such delivery are fully warranted by the actual production of royalty oil by the Mammoth Oil Company and Naval Reserve No. 3," and "the Sinclair Refining Company has no other obligations of any nature in connection with the Mammoth Oil Company contract with the government."

OAKLAND BOUND MOTORSHIP HITS UPON SAND BANK

Dinteldyk Will Go Into Portland Drydock For Survey of Injuries.

PORTLAND, Ore., April 23.—The Motorship Dinteldyk in the joint European-Pacific service of the Royal Mail Steam Packet company and the Holland-American line, will be lifted on the 15,000 ton drydock of the port of Portland for repairs today without discharging the cargo of 7560 tons on board. This decision was reached today when the underwriters determined that the cargo need not be discharged if the lifting capacity of the drydock was sufficient to lift the combined weight of the ship and the cargo. The vessel weighs about 7200 tons and this with the cargo will not exceed the capacity of the drydock. The Dinteldyk was damaged when the steering gear jammed Saturday afternoon nera Stella, Wash., while en route down the channel, causing the vessel to go aground. She was headed for Oakland and San Francisco.

Two regular line freighters operated in trans-Pacific trade out of Portland reached the Columbia river from the Orient during the past eighteen hours. The West Kador of the Columbia Packing shipping fleet, entered the river and will discharge miscellaneous freight. The Ervikan handled by Wellem and company will arrive here today to load for the outbound voyage.

Scout Cruiser Christened in East

The scout cruiser MEMPHIS, last of the group of five speedy sea scout launched for the fighting fleet of Uncle Sam took to the water from the Cramp Ship yard in Philadelphia, Thursday. A sister ship the Omaha, built on this coast, has been making new sea records.

New Warship Launched From Eastern Yards

Last of Five Such Vessels Goes Down Ways at Philadelphia.

The scout cruiser Memphis, last of the fleet of five new vessels of this type to be built by the United States government was launched from the ways of the Cramp shipyard, Philadelphia, last Thursday.

The launching of the new fighting craft was attended with elaborate ceremonies. The Memphis was sponsored by Miss Elizabeth Paine, small daughter of Mayor Paine of Memphis.

Two of these fast fighting vessels were built on the Pacific coast. Already one of them, the Omaha, has distinguished herself by dashing over the sealanes to the Hawaiian Islands and back in a time that cut all previous sea speed records.

All the vessels of the group are particularly fast and have been armed with larger guns than vessels of their sige ordinarily carry. They are a new departure in naval construction and the results of their performances are being watched with careful interest.

LASKER, FARLEY UNDER FIRE FROM INVESTIGATORS

Special House Committee Says Past Heads Tried to Discredit Board.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Two former chairmen of the shipping board, A. D. Lasker and Edward P. Farley, were targets for attack yesterday by members of the special House committee investigating the board.

Representative Davis, Democrat, Tennessee, committee prosecutor, charged that both Lasker and Farley, through some of their "expert" assistants, tried to "discredit" the government merchant marine in furtherance of a plan to turn the ships over to private ownership. He developed from E. F. Plummer, vice-chairman of the board, who was on the stand, that Lasker was a "very dominant figure" and that he frowned on any efforts toward formulation of a shipping policy that did not square with his subsidy proposal, while that was pending.

Board members knew that Lasker had been given a "free hand," Mr. Plummer testified, and they usually "acquiesced" in his plans.

Davis charged that Farley had persisted to such an extent in his advocacy of a "corporation scheme" of operating the fleet, that functioning of the board during his regime came to a virtual standstill. Mr. Plummer said the former chairman had claimed "enlarged responsibilities" compared with those of his commissioners and that "little progress" was made up until the time Farley went to Europe about five months ago.

The vice-chairman testified that while some commissioners were in favor of the government getting out of the shipping business and turning over the ships to private owners he and some others believed it "our duty to maintain trade routes until private capital could be induced to take them over."

He told the committee that while both domestic and foreign shippers were losing money because of the present depressed state of the shipping business, he believed the next three year would see a great improvement in world trade.

Nevada—Rain or snow and colder tonight, Thursday fair north, clearing south portion, not so cold, fresh gusty westerly winds.

Idaho—Fair tonight and Thursday, colder tonight with heavy frost.

Conditions.

A moderate storm over Nevada is causing rain in California from Paso Robles and Fresno south to Los Angeles. Another storm is passing down the St. Lawrence Valley. The barometer is rising steadily over British Columbia and the north Pacific states. Temperatures have fallen in Washington and Oregon and it is warmer in northern Nevada, Utah, southern Wyoming and generally throughout the Plains states. Small craft warnings were ordered at 7 a. m. from Fort San Luis south to San Diego.

The outlook is for rain tonight and Thursday in the southern portion of California and for rain or snow in Nevada with lower temperatures and windy weather. Fair weather will continue in the north Pacific states with heavy frost tonight.

7D HERBALISTS

CHINESE HERB SPECIALISTS
HOW TO GET WELL AND KEEP WELL.
Ailments of whatever nature successfully relieved by our wonderful life giving Chinese herbs—whether your ailment be of the lungs, stomach, heart, liver, kidneys or if you are afflicted with indigestion, asthma, catarrh, blood poison, rheumatism or appendicitis, or any other known complaint. When your case is given up as hopeless by others, see us. Cons. free. Herbs reas.

CHAN & KONG
901 Clay st., cor. 9th st., Oakland.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:
In reciprocation of the wonderful cure effected through the medium of Dr. Wong Him's herbs and his thorough knowledge of every human ailment, I desire to state briefly the terrible sufferings experienced by myself for over thirty years, thus guiding anyone who may desire relief from attacks of any nature:
I had been afflicted with cancer and Bright's Disease, also catarrh of the head for a period of over thirty years. Learning of the extraordinary cures resulting from the herb treatments of Dr. Wong Him, I decided to seek relief if possible through this course, being to some extent skeptical, due to failures of other eminent specialists to effect any amount of relief.
A complete treatment of the above herbs have resulted in relieving me entirely of these afflictions, and my head has been cleared of all traces of catarrh. Pains in back and headaches have ceased and am again able to enjoy perfect health.
The above has been absolutely unsolicited and my only hope is that same may prove of great benefit to all sufferers who may read it.

Had Four Cancers

Berkeley, Nov. 5, 1922.
Beginning in April, 1922, I suffered with four cancers, two of which were on my hands and the other two on my foot. For a year I was in the extreme agony of pain. I was unable to do anything. I became very weak, and I coughed frequently. I had four physicians but I did not get any better until I went to the FONG WAN HERB Co. in March of this year. Under their treatment the cancers were cured, one after another. The openings are now healing up nicely, my general health has greatly improved, and I have regained my weight. I do not think I could have lived up to this time had it not been for the FONG WAN HERBS.

The Oakland Tribune is a member of The Association of Newspaper Classified Advertising Managers which includes leading newspapers throughout the country and has for its aim the elimination of fraudulent and misleading classified advertising. The Oakland Tribune as well as every other member of the association, endeavors to print only truthful Want Ads, and will appreciate having its attention called to any advertisement not conforming to the highest standards of honesty.

Want Ad Section INDEX

Want Ad classifications appear in numerical order, and all related classes are grouped together. For example: All advertising of Rooms To Let is numbered 20 to 29. The numbers appear on the headings, so if you seek room and board look through the "20s"; "Board" is No. 25, and always follows Housekeeping Rooms (24). Note—Every "For Sale" or "To Let" heading has a "Wanted" classification with the same number, but followed by the letter "A."

Our Free Course in Motor Car Salesmanship Is Your Opportunity

IF YOU QUALIFY A POSITION AWAITS YOU

HUNDREDS of bright, ambitious men in the Eastbay district are tied down to jobs that are leading nowhere—men with sufficient brains to realize their predicament and enough backbone to step out and make a fresh start with greater opportunitis—provided they can be shown the way.

Bell & Boyd, dealers in the popular Overland and Willys-Knight Motor Cars, offer to a limited number of ambitious men the opportunity to obtain a thorough automobile sales training, which will in no way interfere with their present employment and will cost them nothing.

The men selected will be put through a school of instruction conducted four evenings each week for two weeks by a factory sales ... of national reputation. If at the completion of the course any student feels that he is not fitted for the work he will be at liberty to drop out—without obligation.

SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATES WILL BE GIVEN POSITIONS ON OUR SALES STAFF

Classes are now forming. Call in person at our store any day this week between 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. or 7 to 9 p. m., and ask for Mr. M... The classes will be limited in number—act NOW.

WHY MONTCLAIR
Sells So Fast

DESIRABILITY
Immediately adjoining the city's finest home section, Piedmont, it is Oakland's only close-in tract of 60 foot frontages and more, is naturally beautiful in itself; exquisite vistas of hill and bay are to be had, and the rigid 15-year restrictions preclude other than residences and not over one to the lot or quarter acre.

CENTRAL LOCATION
Montclair is only 9 minutes' drive to 14th and Broadway, 14 minutes by car service and 43 min. from Market st., San Francisco, and appeals to San Franciscans because it is as quickly reached as their own new residence sections, besides being inland and protected from ocean fogs and winds instead of exposed to same.

ATTRACTIVE PRICES
Nowhere else in Oakland can you buy similar property at our sensationally low sale prices averaging less than $10 per front foot. You must pay ten to twenty times our prices for similar pieces in exclusive Piedmont, immediately adjoining our Montclair Tract.

FUTURE
Oakland's 41% population increase in the past 5 years indicates over 100,000 more inhabitants within the following period and with Broadway and Park Blvd. acting as barriers between which the better home development is compelled to expand through Piedmont into Montclair, it is plain to see that a sharp advance in Montclair values is due. We bought this wonderful property to subdivide and sell and we know that we are offering the investor or homesite seeker a prime realty opportunity.
DRIVE OUT MORAGA AVENUE TODAY or one of our representatives will gladly call and show you this attractive property without your incurring any obligation whatever.

A PLANTED FIG GARDENS
NO PAYMENT DOWN

I, J. C. Forkner, president of the J. C. Forkner Fig Gardens, Inc., hereby offer 100 families a most remarkable proposition

I have planted and sold 10,000 acres of fig gardens, I have spent $6,000,000 during the last ten years developing these fig gardens; there are 100 happy families living on these home acres now; I want 100 more families.

I have decided to sell 1000 acres of planted fig gardens, just coming into bearing, on the following conditions:

You move upon five or ten acres of my fig gardens, just coming into bearing, adjoining the city of Fresno, and build a home and farm the land, I will give you ten years in which to pay.

The Crops Will Pay for the Land
Roads, ditches, highways, electric lines are built; townsite on land being developed, best water right in state; canning factory already built, church, schools and $5,000,000 lumber mill employing 1000 men on tract, only 15 minutes from center of Fresno.

I live on the land and have developed these fig gardens myself; any man who moves upon these fig gardens cannot fail, for I will help him to success.

For details see my personal representative, MR. FRED W. GREGORY, suite 706 Hearst bldg., San Francisco. Phone Sutter 1311.

If you cannot personally call write for details.

"ASK THE ENVELOPE" AND KNOW THE TRUTH ABOUT

HOWARD USED CARS

The fishing season is on. No need to kiss the wife and kids goodbye — climb aboard a train for some overcrowded fishing grounds. Give the whole family a trip in a car—pack the tent—sleep where you stop—stop where you want—alongside some swirling pool where fighting trout will give you the tussle of your life—where the kids can romp the hills and absorb the life-giving freshness of the woods. In other words, get acquainted with your family during your hours of play—the automobile will do it. "Ask the Envelope" will START YOU RIGHT.

COMMODITY NEWS

LUMBER.
CHICAGO, Ills., April 23.—The Great Lakes fleet of lumber carrying vessels is expected to set out this week for its first cargo from northern ports. A heavy season is expected.

NEW ORLEANS, La., April 23.—New business received by the mills of the Southern Pine Association last week increased 1.4 per cent, shipments 10.5 per cent and production 3.7 per cent. Orders on hand at the beginning of the week totaled 254,000,000 feet as compared with 356,000,000 feet a year ago.

COTTON.
HOUSTON, Tex., April 23.—Favorable weather is aiding the planting of cotton, which now is progressing in the northern part of the state. It is expected the increase in Texas acreage will be above 10 per cent.

WHEAT.
SPRINGFIELD, Ills., April 23.—The Illinois wheat crop is below the average and spring planting has been late. Much wheat acreage will be abandoned because of the thin stand and corn, oats, soy beans and forage crops substituted.

HARDWARE.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 23.—Cool weather is responsible for the quiet hardware market in the Pittsburgh district. Dealers see nothing to be gained by buying ahead, as deliveries are very prompt. Prices are firm.

LIVESTOCK.
FORT WORTH, texas, April 23.—Five Thousand head of 5 year old steers requiring 165 freight cars, have been shipped in the last week from Kent County to Bazar, Kansas, where they will be finished for the fall market. This is the first big movement of Texas stock to Kansas grass this year.

TEXTILES.
CLEVELAND, April 23.—... variety of colors now being worn in hose is responsible for capacity operations at the Woven Right Knitting company's plant here, according to J. F. Norton, president. The plant, working night and day is making 15 shades. Some eastern mills are making forty shades.

OIL.
SHREVEPORT, La., April 23.—Renewed interest has been aroused in this section by the bringing in of the new 7000 barrel gusher in the Ferry Lake Area of Caddo Parish by the Gulf Refining company.

TOBACCO.
YORK, Pa., April 23.—The Meads Tobacco company has bought the yield of about 5000 acres of tobacco in York and Lancaster counties and has already received at its warehouses 176,499 pounds, which cost around nine cents a pound.

PHILADELPHIA, April 23.—Recent imports of iron from Europe at this port total 2200 tons, of which about half came from England and the remainder from France. The market is unsettled.

LEGAL NOTICE.

ORDINANCE NO. 151.
AN ORDINANCE FORBIDDING PERSONS FROM TRESPASSING NEAR, WADING OR WALKING IN AND LOITERING ALONG STREAMS OR BODIES OF FRESH WATER
The Board of Supervisors of the County of Alameda do ordain as follows:
Section 1. During such time as the County of Alameda is under close quarantine for the foot and mouth disease, every person, who, within the County of Alameda, trespasses upon any real property within fifty feet of any stream or body of fresh water, or walks or wades in, or loiters along the bank of, any stream or body of fresh water, is guilty of a misdemeanor.
Section 2. Every person found guilty of a violation of any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be punishable by a fine of not less than $10.00 or more than $500.00 or by imprisonment in the County Jail for not less than ten days or more than one hundred fifty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.
Section 3. This ordinance is for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and is a urgency ordinance for the reason that the foot and mouth disease is prevalent in Alameda County and would be spread by persons trespassing near streams and bodies of fresh water and wading or walking in the same.
This ordinance shall take effect and be in force immediately, and before the expiration of fifteen days after its passage it shall be published with the names of the members voting for and against the same for one week in Oakland Tribune, a newspaper published in said County of Alameda.
Adopted by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Alameda on the 21st day of April, 1924, by the following vote:
Noes—Supervisors, none.
Absent—Supervisors, none.
WM. J. HAMILTON,
Attest:
GEO. E. GROSS,
County Clerk and ex-officio Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Alameda, State of California.

ANNUAL MEETING.
The regular annual meeting of the stockholders of COAST MANUFACTURING AND SUPPLY COMPANY will be held at the office of the company, DuPont Building, in the City of Wilmington, New Castle County, Delaware, on the 13th day of May, 1924, at the hour of 1:30 p. m., for the purpose of electing a Board of Directors to serve for the ensuing year and the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. Transfer books will close on Wednesday, the 30th day of April, 1924, at 5 o'clock p. m.

CHINA GETTING ITS 'IRON' DAILY BY EATING RAISINS

By HAYDEN NICHOLS.
United Press Staff Correspondent.

SHANGHAI, China, April 23.—China is getting its "golden nugget of food iron" daily.

The Sun Maid Raisin Growers from California are seeing to it.

In all of the large cities of China the five-cent package of California raisins familiar in the United States has appeared for sale.

And to meet the needs and the pocketbooks of the Chinese coolies, a new, typically Chinese package, has arrived—an envelop of raisins which retails for "two coppers" or one-half cent in American money.

In addition prizes are being awarded to native bakers in Shanghai who show the most skill in using California raisins in their cooking.

"The Chinese seem to be looking with favor on this innovation," T. C. Scanlon, in charg of the Shanghai office of the Sun Maid association, told the United Press.

His optimism was supported by the fact that it is rapidly becoming difficult to buy goods in many of the native shops without seeing a California raisin peeping out of it somewhere.

The popularization of the raisin in China is the result of efforts by the Sun Maid organization to create an Oreitnal market to take care of increased production in the vineyards of California. Ralph P. Merritt, head of the organization, now is in China directing the campaign.

Scanlon denied reports that the association was about to negotiate a contract whereby raisins would be shipped to China to be distilled into brandy and spirits. He admitted that Japanese wine makers some time ago approached the Sun Maid representatives in the Far East on the subject of buying raisins for industrial uses.

Negotiations, however, have been dropped, Scanlon said.

$50 Offered for Cling Peaches

YUBA CITY, April 23.—Offers of $50 a ton for cling peaches are reported to have been made to several growers last week by buyers from two large packing companies. Some contractors have been signed for $35 per ton. The best price last year was $30 but some growers are of the opinion that the price will be even higher than the $50 figure.

IRON AND STEEL WILL SLOW DOWN TO LIGHTEN STOCK

Buying Is at Low Level and No Immediate Increase Expected.

By J. C. ROYLE.
Special Correspondent of The Oakland TRIBUNE.
(Copyright 1924, by The Oakland Tribune)

NEW YORK, April 23.—The other factors in steel are finding many things to add to the statements regarding conditions in the industry made by Judge E. H. Gary to stockholders of the United States Steel Corporation at their annual meeting. The men outside the leading interest declared that, having attained the greatest productivity in history, the iron and steel plants would slow down until large stocks were liquidated.

The independents added to Judge Gary's statement that the abolition of the 12 hour day was costing the Steel Corporation $15,000,000 a year, the declaration that the absorption of the eight hour schedule, accompanied by increased wages and additional employes required, had added 26 per cent to overhead costs in the industry as a whole. They continued that they were in no shape at present to make further startling price cuts because the margin of profits was extremely narrow.

General buying of steel by jobbers and manufacturing consumers has been at a low level since April 1. Jobbers say they have replenished their stocks for the spring trade and even if this proves to be heavy, they are disposed to reach mid-year with only small amounts on hand. Buyers are not showing worriment over the future, however. There is no urgency for deliveries, though mills are receiving a fair volume of new business. In actual prices being realized there has been little decline from the averages of earlier this month, but the market undoubtedly is easier.

The next thirty days is expected to bring about a merger of several Pacific Coast iron and steel companies under the wing of the Pacific Coast Steel Corporation. This merger is not a new development, as the plan was announced at the time the corporation was launched two years ago. Now, however, Eastern capital is reported to have been extensively interested so that the original program may be carried through. The Pacific Coast Steel already owns a large acreage of iron and coal lands in Utah which will be utilized to supply raw materials for the Pacific Coast units of the concern. The Columbia Steel Corporation, a competitive company which recently put its plate mills into commission in California, will blow in blast furnaces on its Utah properties this week, which the company asserts will have a capacity of 100,000 tons annually.

While these developments will undoubtedly aid the western section of the country industrially, the difficulty of aiding that section agriculturally is indicated by objections which have been heard to the message of President Coolidge urging aid to the holders of land on reclamation projects.

The President's message suggests that payments be assessed according to the crop producing qualities of the soil involved. Many of the farmers involved say, according to dispatches received from Western centers, that by the time it is possible to determine the productivity of the soil the holder of the land is either on the way to prosperity or broke so thoroughly as to be beyond reach of federal aid. In support of this contention they point to the fact that the government according to the President's message, faces a loss of approximately $27,000,000 spent for canals, reservoirs and other projects to irrigate lands which government experts could not tell were unproductive.

Kansas Wheat Men Prosperous

KANSAS CITY, Kansas, April 23.—Kansas farmers on the average are more prosperous than the recent walls of some sorely pressed wheat growers and cattle men would indicate, accordin gto the largest report of the State Board of Agriculture. Not in twenty years have horticulturists received so much for their products as in 1923, when the total was $6,616,528. Only twice in twenty years have broom corn growers made so much and only four times in the last 20 years have the livestock growers secured as much as the $117,472,380 total of 1923. The value of the corn crop has been exceeded only six times, while kaffir corn and sorghum growers each had exceptional seasons.

Southern Jobbing Trade Improving

NEW ORLEANS, La., April 23.—Jobbers in most lines report a decided improvement in recent orders. This territory has been aided by higher prices for cotton goods and the progress made in the last few days in farming operations. Sales of hardware, agriculture implements and groceries still are slow, however. Business with Central America and Mexico is improving rapidly with a marked resumption of shipments curtailed heretofore by revolutionary activities. Rice has failed to respond to the builish figures on the state of supplies, owing to the unwillingness of the consuming trade to stock up at prevailing prices.

No Cash Involved In Picture Merger

NEW YORK, April 23.—The merger of Loew's, Inc., and Goldwyn Pictures Corporation will be effected by an exchange of stock, it was announced today, and will involve neither cash payments or new financing.

The voting trustees of Goldwyn, it was said, would receive $5,000,000 of 7 per cent preferred stock of the Metro Pictures corporation, a producing subsidiary of Loew's. In exchange for 186,506 shares of Goldwyn capital stock outstanding, equal to about $27 in new 7 per cent preferred for each share of Goldwyn outstanding.

AUTOMOBILES.
ST. LOUIS, April 23.—There are now 14 manufacturers licensed to manufacture and sell neutrodyne apparatus. Detail sales under the Hazelting patents in the last three months totalled $5,800,000.
